

Medcalf Receives Promotion

By Mrs. E. R. Carpenter

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Medcalf received word from their son, Ben Medcalf of Sioux City, Ia., that he was being transferred from the Nutrena office in Sioux City to the credit department of Cargill in Minneapolis, Minn. The family plan to move probably in July.

Mr. Medcalf, a graduate of Chambers high school and Morningside college in Sioux City, has been employed by Nutrena for the past eight years as bookkeeper and later as office manager.

Mrs. Medcalf is the former, Phyllis Carpenter daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Carpenter of Chambers.

They have four children, (three sons and a daughter).

The Woman's Society of Christian Service met at the Methodist Church Thursday May 7 with about 44 members and guests present.

An impressive pledge service was held with Mrs. A. E. Hubbard and Mrs. Genevieve Bell in charge. A skit emphasizing the giving in service and money was presented. Those participating were Mrs. Gaudis Wintermote, Mrs. Steve Shavlik, Mrs. G. H. Adams, Mrs. James Grimes, Mrs. Clarence Damme, Mrs. Raymond Shoemaker and Mrs. LaVern Hoerle.

A short business session was held with the president, Mrs. T. E. Newhouse presiding. A budget of $1,000, presented by the treasurer was accepted for the coming year. The president gave her annual report.

A meeting of the executive committee was set for Wednesday evening, May 13.

The meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer and the group adjourned to the basement for a party honoring those whose birthdays occur in April, May and June.

Mrs. Lloyd Gleed was in charge of the program which included several small children Larry Adams, Cheryl Damme, Rosi Miller, Patsy Grimes and Rose Marie Hoerle.

Three nicely decorated cakes with tea, sandwiches, mints and coffee were served. Tables were decorated with spring flowers. Mrs. Anna Albers poured.

Among the guests present was Mrs. Robert Embree of O'Neill, wife to the district superintendent and a district officer of the Woman's Society.

Keith Halsey and Glen Miller went to Milford Friday evening, May 7, to visit Gleeson Grimes.

On Sunday the three boys attended the centennial celebration in Lincoln.

Mrs. Sarah Adams, who has spent the winter in California with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Substrand, and son returned home Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Glen Adams and Mr. Mrs. Lloyd Gleed met her in Grand Island.

Mrs. Lavern Hoerle reports that her brother Bill Young of Meridan, Idaho, will be with a group coming to Hutchinson, Kansas for a National Junior College track meet on Friday and Saturday, May 15 and 16th. Bill attended the Boise Junior College Boise, Idaho. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Young, formerly of Chambers and where he attended the first three years of high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis (Bus) Young and daughter of Kearney and Dick Young and Elaine Worden of Amelia were Sunday, May 10 dinner guests in the LaVern Hoerle home.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Farrier and family of Winner, So. Dak., spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Farrier. Evening callers Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Max Farrier and family of O'Neill and Mr. and Mrs. John Lee Farrier of Chambers.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred DeHart moved last week from Logan, Iowa to the John Walter house in Chambers. Mr. and Mrs. DeHart farmed north east of town for a number of years, going to Iowa in about 1934 where they continued farming operations until his age and health required him to retire. They moved to Chambers to be near their son, Edgar and daughters, Mrs. Victor Harley and Mrs. Harry Scott and their families.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Carpenter were Mothers Day guests of their son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Dean Stevens and family of Atkinson.

Miss Shirley DeHart was surprised when the patrons of her school honored her on Friday afternoon May 8th with a miscellaneous shower. Her marriage to Gene Van Gerpen of Fremont will take place May 23rd. Miss DeHart spent the past weekend in Fremont as a guest of his parents.

Vernon Whitaker, accompanied by his daughters Danella, Sandra and Linda and Terry drove to Lincoln Friday taking a horse and coach for Ethel Oeljen, his nephew's fiancée, to ride in the College of Agriculture Rodeo.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gleed spent Sunday, May 10 with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Prill and family in the Star Community north of Page. Maureen and Kathleen Prill came home with them for a few days visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Jarman of Bassett, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jarman and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Walters and family of Chambers were Mothers Day guests in the Duane Grassnicklaus home.

Mothers Day guests of Mrs. Sarah Adams were Mr. and Mrs. James Grimes, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Adams, Eugene and Dale, and Mr. and Mrs. Art Walters and family of Chambers and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Adams of Atkinson.

The 4th quarterly conference of the Methodist church was held Thursday evening with District Superintendent Rev. Robert Em-tree presiding. Reports of officers and committee chairmen were given and other business of the closing year was transacted.

Mrs. Robert White left Thursday, May 7 for Forest City, Ia. where her husband was reported hospitalized. The three children stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Covey. She returned Saturday, Mr. White accompanied her for a week's rest. The family will move to Forest City next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Grimes and family of Milford were Mothers Day guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Grimes. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coolidge, Glen Grimes, Bernard and Edith and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Adams and Larry. Mr. and Mrs. William Phiel of Wayne spent Sunday, May 10 with her mother, Mrs. Al Deirking and grandfather John Walter Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Duane K. Miller and family and Mr. and Mrs. Don Gartner and boys spent Sunday, May 10 with their sister, Mr. and Mrs. Carlyle Victor and family at Laurel.

About 71 relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Charlotte Honeywell Sunday, May 10 for Mothers Day and for Mrs. Honeywell's birthday. The guests came from Elgin, Neligh, Albion, Ewing and Chambers.

Taken into membership of the Methodist church Sunday, May 10 were Mrs. Kathleen Renter by letter and Mary Jane Fleek and Darrel Elkins by confession of faith.

The Chambers High School senior class left Friday evening, May 9 for Denver, Colo., for sneak day.

Mr. Kenneth Weller, Mr. Emil Klabenes, and Lawrence Tange-man took cars. Mrs. Glen Grimes went as sponsor for the girls.

Mrs. Lavern Hoerle attended a shower at the Dale Mitchell home near Amelia Saturday afternoon for Miss Elaine Worden.

The Junior Garden Club met Saturday morning at the Merlin Grossnicklaus home.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Niemand came up from Omaha Mothers Day to visit his grandmother, Mrs. Mary Niemand. They also visited Mrs. Frank Belk at Page.
