

Seniors Receive Diplomas at Page

By Alvin Crumly

Ten seniors and nine eighth graders received diplomas at commencement exercises at Page, Tuesday night.

"Where There Is No Vision" was the title of the address given by M. A. Oschner of Wayne.

Donna Crumly gave the valedictory address and Dixie Nissen gave the salutatory address.

Carl Max presented the diplomas and Ronald Park presented the scholarships and awards.

Baccalaureate services were held at the Page High school Auditorium Sunday evening. The sermon "At the Crossroads" was delivered by Rev. Burl Baty of the Wesleyan Methodist Church. Rev. Lisle Mewmaw gave the invocation and benediction.

The pupils of District 23 and their teacher, Miss Brenda Beelaert closed the school year with a family picnic Thursday noon, May 14.

Each family brought a picnic lunch and ice cream was furnished by the school.

District 97. Pupils of district 97 and their teacher, Miss Linda Cronk, also held their closing picnic on Thursday.

Pupils of district 37 and their teacher, Delores Mellor, held a family picnic to close the school year.

Mrs. Marvin Stauffer, teacher at district 55 held their last day of school picnic on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Max went to Norfolk on Saturday to attend the funeral of A. D. Palmer, a former resident of the Page community.

Miss Donna Crumly (above) was named valedictorian of the Page High School graduating class. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Crumly. Donna plans to attend Wayne State Teachers college.

Miss Dixie Nissen (above), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nissen of Page was named salutatorian of her class. Dixie plans to enter the nursing profession after her graduation.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerhardt Luebeck, Seal and Charlotte and Mrs. Christine Luebeck went to Battle Creek to attend a family reunion and spent the evening in Norfolk.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Krokauger and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Beckwith and family were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gerhardt Luebeck.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Cork and family went to Spencer to attend the graduation of the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cork.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Hiess and family went to Lincoln Saturday morning.

They visited their daughter Myrna, who is a student at Wesleyan. They returned Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Freemeyer and family were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nissen.

The Page track team went to the state track meet at Lincoln. They left Friday morning and returned Saturday night.

James Nissen was 5th in the half mile. He was the only one from Page who placed.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Harvey and family were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Asher Thursday evening.

The Nifty Needlers 4-H club met at the Legion hall May 16 with Sharon and Delia Hansen as hostesses.

Roll call was answered by each member saying what they did to help most at home.

The girls judged skirts, shorts, and luncheon cloths. Let's Cook girls brought rhubarb and apple crisp to be judged. Homemaking girls hemmed luncheon cloths and the Beginning Baking girls brought vanilla drop cookies to judge.

Skirt and Blouse girls and the Work and Play girls worked on their projects.

Games were led by Juanita Ragland. The next meeting will be held June fifth.

GLEANINGS from our Heritage of Freedom

"The only freedom which deserves the name is that of pursuing our own good in our own way so long as we do not deprive others of theirs."

— J. S. Mill.

In the 1700's, good cheer and merriment were found in a cozy pub. Today, discriminating people still enjoy the festive sparkle of good beer in festive taverns. Beer belongs—enjoy it.
