

To Meet at Tomjack Home
The Goose Lake 4-H club met at the home of Datzell and Norma Brewster Friday evening, May 8. All members except one answered roll-call by naming a vegetable that would be nice to put on a vegetable plate.

The boys learned to fix sandwiches while the girls fixed a raw vegetable plate with carrots, radishes, onions, cucumbers and celery. The next meeting will be at the home of Leanna Tomjack June 12. Leanna Tomjack, reporter.

Eagle Creek 4-H Club
Our next meeting has been postponed from May 17 to May 24. It will be held at the Fred Ernst farm instead of at the Brown home as was originally planned.

Roll call will be "What we are going to do to help at home after school it out."
Gardening demonstrations will be given by those carrying garden projects.

At the meeting at the Hynes home April 12 a demonstration was given by Lynda Hynes and Carol Druke. The demonstration was on pudding.
Guests were the Bauer and Derickson families.
Norma Jane Widfeldt, reporter.

Lucky Clover 4-H Club
The Lucky Clover 4-H club met at Howard Graham's home Friday, May 8. Vice president, Alice Halstead, presided. Mrs. Fred Krugman, leader of first-aid, demonstrated how bandages are used. Our next meeting will be held at Harvey Krugman's June 5.
