Dr. John P. Murphy, Native Doctor, Dies

Dr. John Patrick Murphy, native of this community, died in St. Louis Tuesday after a year-long illness. Dr. Murphy was an ear, nose and throat specialist and practiced in St. Louis for many years.
 Dr. Murphy is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Frank McCrary of Clarksville, Missouri, and Mrs. William Grant of Wichita, Kansas, and five grandchildren. His wife preceded him in death in 1933.
 Miss Hilda Gallagher, of O'Neill, a cousin, will leave Thursday for St. Louis to attend the funeral.

Virgil Needham, left, Safeway stores' new divisional manager, will replace Frank G. Fringle, right, who is retiring. Needham, now of Omaha, will head the company's 120 midwestern stores. The O'Neill store is one of the large organization.

PRESBY YOUTH CAMP at Cleveland this week for a church youth from Atkinson, Stuart, O'Neill and Cleveland are meeting camp. Rev. John Hart of the local church is attending as a camp leader.

300 Head of Cattle Today

There will be 300 head of cattle at the O'Neill Livestock Market today—200 of these will be light yearlings and calves, 75 will be yearlings, both heifers and steers. The balance of the stock will be slaughter cows and small calves. There will also be 200-250 head of feeder pigs. That hog sale begins at 12:30 p.m. at the O'Neill Livestock Market.

Teaching and Studies Await St. Mary's Sisters During Summer Months

The Sisters of St. Mary's Academy have been conducting summer catechism classes since the close of school.
 Sister Laurita, Sister Joseph and Sister Michael are teaching at Ewing.
 Sister Florence, Sister Agnes and Sister Genevieve instruct the children at Burwell. Mother Agnesine, Sister Thoma and Sister Mildred teach the O'Neill children. Next week two sisters will journey to Mason City to instruct the children there.
 The following teachers from the Academy will attend summer courses and institutes. Mother Agnesine will attend an Institute at Notre Dame, Indiana, in August. Sister Agnes and Sister Mildred will pursue further studies at Loyola University in California. Sister Genevieve will attend a twelve-weeks' course at Regis College, Denver, Colo. Sister Fides and Sister Josephine will attend an eight-weeks' summer session in mathematics and science at Creighton University, Omaha. Sister Michael and Sister Florence will attend St. Bonaventure's University in New York.

Hynes Rites Tuesday; Son of Pioneers

William A. Hynes, 56, died Friday in Omaha. Funeral services were conducted Tuesday at 10 a.m. from St. Patrick's Catholic church in O'Neill.
 Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan officiated. Burial was in Calvary cemetery under the direction of Biglins. The rosary was recited Monday evening at the funeral home.
 Pallbearers were Terry, Bill and Don Hynes, Dale Nissen, Louis Genevieve and O. W. Druce.
 Mr. Hynes was born in northern Holt county the son of pioneers Austin and Catherine Kelly Hynes. He was reared there and attended high school in O'Neill.
 Among the survivors are brothers, Matt and Bernard of O'Neill and numerous other relatives.

4-H State Honors Won by Inman Boy In Lincoln Tuesday

Gary Fick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walt Fick of Inman, was runner-up in state 4-H public speaking contest in Lincoln Tuesday.
 Gary was also the runner-up in last year's competition.
 The contest was a part of 4-H club week at the University of Nebraska agriculture campus this week.
 Karen Bowers, of Butte, became the district winner of the junior division and received a red ribbon for her speech.
 Other 4-H members attending were Perry Dawes, Gary Gillespie and Nancy Wray, all of O'Neill, Jerry Homajka of Chambers and Gary Fick of Inman.

Milk Cows Pay 33 1/4% to 50% More

Since introducing a whole milk market in northern Nebraska 2 years ago our producers have shown increases in income from 1/3 to 1/2 above their present income from cream.

You as producers may have heard various things about the milk market—but why don't you take just a few minutes and drop a card to Langle's Dairy, Box 361, O'Neill, Nebr., and get THE STRAIGHT AND FULL DETAILS on selling whole milk on an up-to-date basis. Please note on your card the number of cows in your total milking herd. Writing this card can be nothing but an advantage to you, as we are very well informed on all phases of the situation and are the originators of the Milk Market in this entire section of the state.
