Methodist Ceremony Unites Ewing Couple

Miss Vivian Wright became the bride of Stanley Bartos Sunday evening at a candlelight service in First Methodist church. Garden flowers and candelabra decorated the altar. The Rev. Woodrow Elliot, pastor, officiated at the eight o'clock double ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wright of Ewing and the bridegroom is the son of James Bartos, also of Ewing.

A prelude of appropriate organ selections was played by Aubrey Woods, who also accompanied Miss Sandra Shradar as she sang "Because" preceding the ceremony and "The Wedding Prayer" at the close of the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white embroidered tulle over silk taffeta with a fitted bodice, buttoned at the back and cut to a point at the front. It featured a high sabrina neckline of patterned lace embroidered in a rose design. The long fitted sleeves were pointed and crushed at the wrists. The bouffant skirt shirred full at the waist and worn over hoop petticoats, repeated the pattern in deep shirred tiers that cascade the full length of the skirt at the front. A wide flange of patterned lace fashioned the side panels. She carried a bouquet of white roses and blue stephanotis with net and satin streamers on a white sible.

Mrs. Alva Scholz and daughter Allene of Neligh were Sunday afternoon guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Morsbach and Mary. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ubben and daughter, Mrs. Vaden Kivett and Royce of Orchard and Linda Bartos of O'Neill were matching guests of blue nylon.

David Wright, brother of the bride was bestman. Frederick Wright and Jerry Hahlbeck were ushers. The bridegroom wore dark trousers and a light sport jacket. His attendant and ushers wore light business suits. All had a white carnation boutonniere as did the fathers of the couple and the grandfathers of the bride.

The bride's mother chose for her daughter's wedding a two piece beaute costume with white accessories. Mrs. Elmer Butterfield and Mrs. George Wright, grandmothers of the bride, also wore a white carnation corsage.

Following the ceremony, a reception for one hundred twenty five relatives and friends was held in the parlors of the church. Miss Cheryl Thornton of Duarte, Calif., was in charge of the guest book. The four tier wedding cake, baked by the mother of the bride and decorated by Mrs. J. L. Pruden and Mrs. Waldo Davis in the bride's chosen colors of blue and white, centered the luncheon table flanked by candles with blue and white decorations, in crystal candleholders. The cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom in a floral spray.

The bride chose for traveling a three piece costume with white accessories. After a short wedding trip the couple will make their home at Kimball.

The bride is a graduate of the Ewing high school and attended Wayne State Teacher's college last year. She has lived in the Ewing community all her life.

The bridegroom has lived in Ewing the past five years and is a graduate of Ewing high school. He is now employed by the Kansas-Nebraska Natural Gas company at Kimball.
