

Social Snail Pace

Activity on the O'Neill social scene is slowed to a snail's pace this week with families on annual vacation trips and 90 degree weather putting a dampener on enthusiasm.

M. M. Bridge club met Tuesday evening with Mrs. H. L. Lindberg. O'Neill Better Ways Extension club postponed their scheduled July meeting until August.

But the social forecast, like the heat wave, must break. That change is coming next week for O'Neill club members.

Our vote is for a change in the temperature to accompany the quickened pace of the social calendar.

The Social Forecast

Monday, Aug. 3—Country club bridge party, 7:30 p.m. at clubhouse.

Tuesday, Aug. 4—WCTU with Mrs. Edith Young at 2 p.m.; Merimix Bridge club, J. D. Osenbaugh home.

Wednesday, Aug. 5—American Legion auxiliary, 8 p.m.

Thursday, Aug. 6—Presbyterian Women's association breakfast at 8:45 a.m. at Fellowship hall; WSCS at church, 2 p.m.

Friday, Aug. 7—Come Double CA at Rev. Robert Paul home; Rebekah lodge, 8 p.m.

Catholic Ceremony Unites Iowa Couple

Miss Patricia Anne Melroy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Melroy of Adel, Ia., and Roger John Krueger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Krueger of Woodward, Ia., were united in marriage Saturday, July 11, at 9:30 in the St. Boniface Catholic church at Waukeo, Ia., by Rev. Maurice Schulte.

Nuptial music was furnished by Kay McManus, organist and Annette King, soloist.

The double ring ceremony was read before an altar decorated with bouquets of white mums, asters and white carnations.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a ballerina length white gown of nylon net over taffeta trimmed at the V neckline of white scalloped lace, with iridescent sequins centering each scallop. The tapered sleeves were of net and lace. The bouffant skirt featured net over taffeta with rows of scalloped lace down the front over pleated net. The fingertip veil was held in place by a crown of braided silk, studded with seed pearls. Her bouquet was white roses and white mums with streamers.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Katherine Melroy.

The bridegroom was attended by David Book of Minburn, Ia. Ushers were Clayton and Duane Krueger, brothers of the bridegroom.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger John Krueger. The bridegroom is a former Inman resident. They were married July 11 at St. Boniface Catholic church at Waukeo, Iowa.

Mrs. Melroy, mother of the bride, chose a blue lace dress with white accessories. Mrs. Krueger, mother of the bridegroom, wore a navy and white pointed silk dress with white accessories. Their shoulder corsages were of pink carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church hall. The table cloth was of mint green with white nylon net covering and had a floor length ruffle with large white satin bows at each corner.

The four tier wedding cake, decorated in white with mint colored trimmings, was topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom surrounded by lilies of the valley. The crystal candle holders were decorated with white roses and tied in the center of the holder with white satin bows and lilies of the valley. Green and white mints, in the shape of daisies and leaves, were served. The wedding cake was surrounded by white gladioli and greens.

After the first piece of wedding cake was cut by the bride and bridegroom, Mrs. Hershel Nance served the cake. Punch was dipped by Janice Loynechan, coffee was poured by Velma Jean Kirlin, Karen Marlenee was in charge of the guest book, Patsie Harsh and Mrs. John Mague were in charge of the gifts and Barbara Guisinger was hostess. Mrs. Marvin Blomquist and Mrs. Ed Marlenee were in charge of the table. Mrs. Wilma McManus made and decorated the cake. Reva Schaffer and Shirley Nance served as hostesses in the dining room.

For their wedding trip to Colorado and Nebraska, the bride chose a dress of pastel blue rayon baste with white accessories. The Kruegers are former Inman residents and Mr. Krueger is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Reimer of Inman, and has several aunts and uncles here.

O'Neill Locals

Dinner guests Sunday at the John Schmit home were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Engler of Stuart and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stokely and Tom of Valentine. Afternoon guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bud Lueckart and family of Creighton and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Dvorak of Atkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Burdell Rowe and family of Luverne, Minn., are visiting here at the Richard Nelson home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Rohde and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Rohde attended a smorgasbord at St. Michael's hall in Emmet Sunday.

Supper guests July 21 at the Leo Schneider home were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Rhodes and family and Mrs. Fred Leiding of Napa, Calif., Mr. Albert Anderson of Neligh, Mr. Wendell Bahl of Emmet and Mr. and Mrs. Andy Ramold and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Aln Jaskowiak and Nyla, Miss Alan Jaskowiak sas City, Mo., and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lohaus and family were guests at the Joe Brewster cabin on the river Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Tielke of Atkinson were dinner guests Sunday at the Dwayne Philbrick home.

Dinner guests Sunday at the Francis Curran home were Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Ott and family, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Ott and Mrs. Thelma Rathekus and boys.

Carolyn Schmeichel is in Ainsworth for a two week visit with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Chet See.

Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Reynolds were in Cozad Thursday to Saturday at the home of her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brunk.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Philbrick and family visited Friday at the Dwayne and Dwight Philbrick homes.

The Ned Porter family of Columbus were weekend guests at the C. W. Porter home.

Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Ray and family of Wadena, Minn., plan to spend the coming weekend at the Richard Nelson home.

Guests at the C. C. Shelhase home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Butterfield of Atkinson.

35-foot deep freeze only $198.88 at Scoville's Western Auto Store in O'Neill.

Mrs. Bob Timmerman and children and Mrs. Owen Parkinson and children were in Norfolk Monday for the Shrine Circus.

Russell Kelley, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Pruss, returned Sunday to his home in Omaha after several week's visit here.

Weekend guests of Nyla Jaskowiak were Miss Kay Seltz of Kansas City, Mo., Miss Henrietta Linenbrink of Eli and Miss Verma Linenbrink of Scottsbluff.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Kelley Winnetoon were here Wednesday visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry McCormick of Inter were guests Sunday at the Eugene Schmeichel home.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Young, Esther and Junior were dinner guests Sunday of Miss Maude Rouse and Mrs. Edith Young.

Mrs. Esther Morgan and Mrs. C. E. Jones returned Tuesday from Columbus where they spent several days. Mrs. Morgan was also in Oklahoma City.

Mrs. Felix Hendricks is in Omaha this week visiting relatives.

Mrs. Kenneth Waring returned Saturday evening from Omaha where her mother, Mrs. Alta Finch of Page, is recovering from surgery performed at St. Joseph's hospital last Wednesday. Mrs. Finch will return to her home by next week.

Mrs. Don Bouska of Stuart visited Monday at the Marlin Wichman home.

Mr. and Mrs. James Foreman and sons of Winner, S.D., were here Sunday at the home of her parents, the Claude Bates. The Foremans also visited in Emmet.

Mr. and Mrs. Clay Johnson jr. and son and Clay Johnson sr. were in York Saturday night and Sunday at the Roy Johnson home there. Clay Johnson sr., returned to Kearney with the Don Loy family who were also in York for the weekend and Jeannie Johnson, daughter of the Roy Johnsons returned with the Clay Johnsons jr.

Mrs. Victor Halva and Mrs. Adolph Latzel of O'Neill and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cernousek of Page attended the Mladly family reunion in Verdigré park Sunday, July 19. There were 74 present including the children, Mrs. Halva, her three brothers, John of Verdigré, Charles of Cedar Rapids and Frank of Creighton, are the only living members of the Mladly family.

OF OLD NEBRASKA

Several years ago an article describing pioneering on the Niobrara near Meadville appeared in Nebraska History. It tells about the life of a family who went up on the Niobrara in Keya Paha county north of Ainsworth in 1882, and describes that family's activities and experiences near Nebraska's northern border. It has a great deal of interest to Nebraskans in describing a comparatively little known and interesting part of Nebraska that along the Niobrara valley.

The Mead family, like many settlers, were much taken by the aspect of the country they found on the Niobrara. As they said, they had been looking for a wooded river valley and had found it. But the Niobrara was first rough country. After their first look they found that they would have to lower their wagon by ropes and lead the livestock down the bluff one at a time to reach the valley where they wanted to settle.

Mead's daughter found a number of rugged canyons in the area. One of the canyons was so narrow and so steep that the sun shone into it only a few minutes right at noon. A person in the bottom of the canyon could see the stars in the sky above him in broad day light so the canyon was named Starlit Canyon.

Cattle rustlers were a problem in this area and vigilante organizations operated to halt cattle stealing. From 1883 to 1888 the country was settled rapidly, and the new settlers found the vigilantes troublesome. They executed at least four settlers without trial in the summer of 1885, making the lot of the settlers both difficult and dangerous.

The Mead place was on the river bank, and early had a road and a crossing by either boat or ferry. As a result it became a natural gathering place for people. It developed into a tavern and a hotel. Also, Mead applied for and got a post office, Meadville.

In several ways this settlement on the Niobrara was different. Mead made a good living the first few years from his ferry across the river. The ferry operated before the first bridge was built and for intervals between bridges, as two bridges were destroyed by the river. Fishermen could always find fish in the river, and in hard times the fish were an important source of food to augment the larder. The area was wooded, and the houses built were log houses, not sod. These activities and ways were not typical of central Nebraska settlers. Yet the experience of the settlers here were for the most part much like those of Nebraskans in many other settlements.

The business meeting was followed by a treasure hunt along the creek. Just before going home everybody was served cookies and home-made ice cream.

The next general meeting will be August 10 at the court house annex at 2:00. The project meetings will be as follows: Sewing, August 5 at Sharon McLeish's; Cooking, August 6 at Perry's.

of food to augment the larder. The area was wooded, and the houses built were log houses, not sod. These activities and ways were not typical of central Nebraska settlers. Yet the experience of the settlers here were for the most part much like those of Nebraskans in many other settlements.

The business meeting was followed by a treasure hunt along the creek. Just before going home everybody was served cookies and home-made ice cream.

The next general meeting will be August 10 at the court house annex at 2:00. The project meetings will be as follows: Sewing, August 5 at Sharon McLeish's; Cooking, August 6 at Perry's.

of food to augment the larder. The area was wooded, and the houses built were log houses, not sod. These activities and ways were not typical of central Nebraska settlers. Yet the experience of the settlers here were for the most part much like those of Nebraskans in many other settlements.

The business meeting was followed by a treasure hunt along the creek. Just before going home everybody was served cookies and home-made ice cream.

The next general meeting will be August 10 at the court house annex at 2:00. The project meetings will be as follows: Sewing, August 5 at Sharon McLeish's; Cooking, August 6 at Perry's.

of food to augment the larder. The area was wooded, and the houses built were log houses, not sod. These activities and ways were not typical of central Nebraska settlers. Yet the experience of the settlers here were for the most part much like those of Nebraskans in many other settlements.

The business meeting was followed by a treasure hunt along the creek. Just before going home everybody was served cookies and home-made ice cream.

The next general meeting will be August 10 at the court house annex at 2:00. The project meetings will be as follows: Sewing, August 5 at Sharon McLeish's; Cooking, August 6 at Perry's.

of food to augment the larder. The area was wooded, and the houses built were log houses, not sod. These activities and ways were not typical of central Nebraska settlers. Yet the experience of the settlers here were for the most part much like those of Nebraskans in many other settlements.

The business meeting was followed by a treasure hunt along the creek. Just before going home everybody was served cookies and home-made ice cream.

The next general meeting will be August 10 at the court house annex at 2:00. The project meetings will be as follows: Sewing, August 5 at Sharon McLeish's; Cooking, August 6 at Perry's.

of food to augment the larder. The area was wooded, and the houses built were log houses, not sod. These activities and ways were not typical of central Nebraska settlers. Yet the experience of the settlers here were for the most part much like those of Nebraskans in many other settlements.

The business meeting was followed by a treasure hunt along the creek. Just before going home everybody was served cookies and home-made ice cream.

The next general meeting will be August 10 at the court house annex at 2:00. The project meetings will be as follows: Sewing, August 5 at Sharon McLeish's; Cooking, August 6 at Perry's.

of food to augment the larder. The area was wooded, and the houses built were log houses, not sod. These activities and ways were not typical of central Nebraska settlers. Yet the experience of the settlers here were for the most part much like those of Nebraskans in many other settlements.

The business meeting was followed by a treasure hunt along the creek. Just before going home everybody was served cookies and home-made ice cream.

The next general meeting will be August 10 at the court house annex at 2:00. The project meetings will be as follows: Sewing, August 5 at Sharon McLeish's; Cooking, August 6 at Perry's.

of food to augment the larder. The area was wooded, and the houses built were log houses, not sod. These activities and ways were not typical of central Nebraska settlers. Yet the experience of the settlers here were for the most part much like those of Nebraskans in many other settlements.

The business meeting was followed by a treasure hunt along the creek. Just before going home everybody was served cookies and home-made ice cream.

The next general meeting will be August 10 at the court house annex at 2:00. The project meetings will be as follows: Sewing, August 5 at Sharon McLeish's; Cooking, August 6 at Perry's.

of food to augment the larder. The area was wooded, and the houses built were log houses, not sod. These activities and ways were not typical of central Nebraska settlers. Yet the experience of the settlers here were for the most part much like those of Nebraskans in many other settlements.

The business meeting was followed by a treasure hunt along the creek. Just before going home everybody was served cookies and home-made ice cream.

The next general meeting will be August 10 at the court house annex at 2:00. The project meetings will be as follows: Sewing, August 5 at Sharon McLeish's; Cooking, August 6 at Perry's.

of food to augment the larder. The area was wooded, and the houses built were log houses, not sod. These activities and ways were not typical of central Nebraska settlers. Yet the experience of the settlers here were for the most part much like those of Nebraskans in many other settlements.

The business meeting was followed by a treasure hunt along the creek. Just before going home everybody was served cookies and home-made ice cream.

The next general meeting will be August 10 at the court house annex at 2:00. The project meetings will be as follows: Sewing, August 5 at Sharon McLeish's; Cooking, August 6 at Perry's.

of food to augment the larder. The area was wooded, and the houses built were log houses, not sod. These activities and ways were not typical of central Nebraska settlers. Yet the experience of the settlers here were for the most part much like those of Nebraskans in many other settlements.

The business meeting was followed by a treasure hunt along the creek. Just before going home everybody was served cookies and home-made ice cream.

The next general meeting will be August 10 at the court house annex at 2:00. The project meetings will be as follows: Sewing, August 5 at Sharon McLeish's; Cooking, August 6 at Perry's.

of food to augment the larder. The area was wooded, and the houses built were log houses, not sod. These activities and ways were not typical of central Nebraska settlers. Yet the experience of the settlers here were for the most part much like those of Nebraskans in many other settlements.

The business meeting was followed by a treasure hunt along the creek. Just before going home everybody was served cookies and home-made ice cream.

The next general meeting will be August 10 at the court house annex at 2:00. The project meetings will be as follows: Sewing, August 5 at Sharon McLeish's; Cooking, August 6 at Perry's.

of food to augment the larder. The area was wooded, and the houses built were log houses, not sod. These activities and ways were not typical of central Nebraska settlers. Yet the experience of the settlers here were for the most part much like those of Nebraskans in many other settlements.

The business meeting was followed by a treasure hunt along the creek. Just before going home everybody was served cookies and home-made ice cream.

The next general meeting will be August 10 at the court house annex at 2:00. The project meetings will be as follows: Sewing, August 5 at Sharon McLeish's; Cooking, August 6 at Perry's.

of food to augment the larder. The area was wooded, and the houses built were log houses, not sod. These activities and ways were not typical of central Nebraska settlers. Yet the experience of the settlers here were for the most part much like those of Nebraskans in many other settlements.

The business meeting was followed by a treasure hunt along the creek. Just before going home everybody was served cookies and home-made ice cream.

The next general meeting will be August 10 at the court house annex at 2:00. The project meetings will be as follows: Sewing, August 5 at Sharon McLeish's; Cooking, August 6 at Perry's.

of food to augment the larder. The area was wooded, and the houses built were log houses, not sod. These activities and ways were not typical of central Nebraska settlers. Yet the experience of the settlers here were for the most part much like those of Nebraskans in many other settlements.

The business meeting was followed by a treasure hunt along the creek. Just before going home everybody was served cookies and home-made ice cream.

The next general meeting will be August 10 at the court house annex at 2:00. The project meetings will be as follows: Sewing, August 5 at Sharon McLeish's; Cooking, August 6 at Perry's.

of food to augment the larder. The area was wooded, and the houses built were log houses, not sod. These activities and ways were not typical of central Nebraska settlers. Yet the experience of the settlers here were for the most part much like those of Nebraskans in many other settlements.

The business meeting was followed by a treasure hunt along the creek. Just before going home everybody was served cookies and home-made ice cream.

The next general meeting will be August 10 at the court house annex at 2:00. The project meetings will be as follows: Sewing, August 5 at Sharon McLeish's; Cooking, August 6 at Perry's.

of food to augment the larder. The area was wooded, and the houses built were log houses, not sod. These activities and ways were not typical of central Nebraska settlers. Yet the experience of the settlers here were for the most part much like those of Nebraskans in many other settlements.

The business meeting was followed by a treasure hunt along the creek. Just before going home everybody was served cookies and home-made ice cream.

The next general meeting will be August 10 at the court house annex at 2:00. The project meetings will be as follows: Sewing, August 5 at Sharon McLeish's; Cooking, August 6 at Perry's.

of food to augment the larder. The area was wooded, and the houses built were log houses, not sod. These activities and ways were not typical of central Nebraska settlers. Yet the experience of the settlers here were for the most part much like those of Nebraskans in many other settlements.

The business meeting was followed by a treasure hunt along the creek. Just before going home everybody was served cookies and home-made ice cream.

The next general meeting will be August 10 at the court house annex at 2:00. The project meetings will be as follows: Sewing, August 5 at Sharon McLeish's; Cooking, August 6 at Perry's.

of food to augment the larder. The area was wooded, and the houses built were log houses, not sod. These activities and ways were not typical of central Nebraska settlers. Yet the experience of the settlers here were for the most part much like those of Nebraskans in many other settlements.

The business meeting was followed by a treasure hunt along the creek. Just before going home everybody was served cookies and home-made ice cream.

The next general meeting will be August 10 at the court house annex at 2:00. The project meetings will be as follows: Sewing, August 5 at Sharon McLeish's; Cooking, August 6 at Perry's.

of food to augment the larder. The area was wooded, and the houses built were log houses, not sod. These activities and ways were not typical of central Nebraska settlers. Yet the experience of the settlers here were for the most part much like those of Nebraskans in many other settlements.

The business meeting was followed by a treasure hunt along the creek. Just before going home everybody was served cookies and home-made ice cream.

The next general meeting will be August 10 at the court house annex at 2:00. The project meetings will be as follows: Sewing, August 5 at Sharon McLeish's; Cooking, August 6 at Perry's.

of food to augment the larder. The area was wooded, and the houses built were log houses, not sod. These activities and ways were not typical of central Nebraska settlers. Yet the experience of the settlers here were for the most part much like those of Nebraskans in many other settlements.

The business meeting was followed by a treasure hunt along the creek. Just before going home everybody was served cookies and home-made ice cream.

The next general meeting will be August 10 at the court house annex at 2:00. The project meetings will be as follows: Sewing, August 5 at Sharon McLeish's; Cooking, August 6 at Perry's.

of food to augment the larder. The area was wooded, and the houses built were log houses, not sod. These activities and ways were not typical of central Nebraska settlers. Yet the experience of the settlers here were for the most part much like those of Nebraskans in many other settlements.

The business meeting was followed by a treasure hunt along the creek. Just before going home everybody was served cookies and home-made ice cream.

The next general meeting will be August 10 at the court house annex at 2:00. The project meetings will be as follows: Sewing, August 5 at Sharon McLeish's; Cooking, August 6 at Perry's.

of food to augment the larder. The area was wooded, and the houses built were log houses, not sod. These activities and ways were not typical of central Nebraska settlers. Yet the experience of the settlers here were for the most part much like those of Nebraskans in many other settlements.

The business meeting was followed by a treasure hunt along the creek. Just before going home everybody was served cookies and home-made ice cream.

The next general meeting will be August 10 at the court house annex at 2:00. The project meetings will be as follows: Sewing, August 5 at Sharon McLeish's; Cooking, August 6 at Perry's.

of food to augment the larder. The area was wooded, and the houses built were log houses, not sod. These activities and ways were not typical of central Nebraska settlers. Yet the experience of the settlers here were for the most part much like those of Nebraskans in many other settlements.

The business meeting was followed by a treasure hunt along the creek. Just before going home everybody was served cookies and home-made ice cream.

The next general meeting will be August 10 at the court house annex at 2:00. The project meetings will be as follows: Sewing, August 5 at Sharon McLeish's; Cooking, August 6 at Perry's.

of food to augment the larder. The area was wooded, and the houses built were log houses, not sod. These activities and ways were not typical of central Nebraska settlers. Yet the experience of the settlers here were for the most part much like those of Nebraskans in many other settlements.

The business meeting was followed by a treasure hunt along the creek. Just before going home everybody was served cookies and home-made ice cream.

The next general meeting will be August 10 at the court house annex at 2:00. The project meetings will be as follows: Sewing, August 5 at Sharon McLeish's; Cooking, August 6 at Perry's.

of food to augment the larder. The area was wooded, and the houses built were log houses, not sod. These activities and ways were not typical of central Nebraska settlers. Yet the experience of the settlers here were for the most part much like those of Nebraskans in many other settlements.

The business meeting was followed by a treasure hunt along the creek. Just before going home everybody was served cookies and home-made ice cream.

The next general meeting will be August 10 at the court house annex at 2:00. The project meetings will be as follows: Sewing, August 5 at Sharon McLeish's; Cooking, August 6 at Perry's.

of food to augment the larder. The area was wooded, and the houses built were log houses, not sod. These activities and ways were not typical of central Nebraska settlers. Yet the experience of the settlers here were for the most part much like those of Nebraskans in many other settlements.

The business meeting was followed by a treasure hunt along the creek. Just before going home everybody was served cookies and home-made ice cream.

The next general meeting will be August 10 at the court house annex at 2:00. The project meetings will be as follows: Sewing, August 5 at Sharon McLeish's; Cooking, August 6 at Perry's.

of food to augment the larder. The area was wooded, and the houses built were log houses, not sod. These activities and ways were not typical of central Nebraska settlers. Yet the experience of the settlers here were for the most part much like those of Nebraskans in many other settlements.

The business meeting was followed by a treasure hunt along the creek. Just before going home everybody was served cookies and home-made ice cream.

The next general meeting will be August 10 at the court house annex at 2:00. The project meetings will be as follows: Sewing, August 5 at Sharon McLeish's; Cooking, August 6 at Perry's.

of food to augment the larder. The area was wooded, and the houses built were log houses, not sod. These activities and ways were not typical of central Nebraska settlers. Yet the experience of the settlers here were for the most part much like those of Nebraskans in many other settlements.

The business meeting was followed by a treasure hunt along the creek. Just before going home everybody was served cookies and home-made ice cream.

The next general meeting will be August 10 at the court house annex at 2:00. The project meetings will be as follows: Sewing, August 5 at Sharon McLeish's; Cooking, August 6 at Perry's.

of food to augment the larder. The area was wooded, and the houses built were log houses, not sod. These activities and ways were not typical of central Nebraska settlers. Yet the experience of the settlers here were for the most part much like those of Nebraskans in many other settlements.

The business meeting was followed by a treasure hunt along the creek. Just before going home everybody was served cookies and home-made ice cream.

The next general meeting will be August 10 at the court house annex at 2:00. The project meetings will be as follows: Sewing, August 5 at Sharon McLeish's; Cooking, August 6 at Perry's.

of food to augment the larder. The area was wooded, and the houses built were log houses, not sod. These activities and ways were not typical of central Nebraska settlers. Yet the experience of the settlers here were for the most part much like those of Nebraskans in many other settlements.

The business meeting was followed by a treasure hunt along the creek. Just before going home everybody was served cookies and home-made ice cream.

The next general meeting will