

Cub Scouts Repair, Improve Den 1 Bicycles

Under the direction of Chris McGinn, O'Neill police chief, and Lois Schaffer, den mother for Den 1 in O'Neill, eight cub scout members put their bicycles in tip-top shape last week.

The scouts, Kenny and Dick Lieb, Lee Longnecker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stan Longnecker, Danny Holsclaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Holsclaw, Bob Wilson, son of Dr. and Mrs. Rex Wilson, Jim Reimer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lou Reimer, Dewey Schaffer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Schaffer and Michael Wichman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marlin Wichman are the safety minded scouts.

The boys put lights, large reflectors, and repaired brakes on their bikes in bringing them up to par.

Police Chief McGinn also reminded parents to warn their children of some common bicycle rules.

Observe all traffic rules, keep to the right and ride in single file, have lights and reflectors on bike, give pedestrians the right of way and stay off sidewalks, make sure brakes are in good working order, don't weave in and out of traffic and never hitch a ride on other vehicles.

With school opening just around the corner, drivers should also be reminded to be especially alert for children in the streets.
