Double A Auction

MARKET REPORT
 Atkinson Tuesday, August 18. Cattle and hog receipts 523 head. A large run of butcher cattle, our largest in several weeks made up a big part of the day's receipts. Fat cows sold 50 to 75 cents higher again this week. Best beef cows sold from $17.50 to $18.60. Good cows $16.25 to $17.25. Canners and low cutters $14.00 to $16.00. Only a few shells under $14.75 cwt. Bulls largely $13.50 to $21.25.

Stockers and feeders largely steady with only part largely fed. Spring and fall calves $32.00 to $36.00 with no choice kinds offered. Heifers largely $30.00 to $33.00 cwt. Yearling steers $26.00 to $29.00. Heifers $25.50 to $28.00. Some warmed up kinds went out at $24.80. Other feeding heifers $23.00 to $24.50 cwt.

Next Tuesday's Auction promises to be one of the better runs of the season with a lot of reputation cattle being offered. Looks like 1800 head for sure could be more. If you have cattle to sell be here next week and take a look. There'll be cattle of all classes offered. Remember too we've got the best butcher cow market in the country, bring a few along and give us a try. Looks like our next Special Sale will be Sept. 15th—it's not too early to list yours, several already booked.

Mullen Funeral Is Held Today
 Funeral services were conducted at 10 a.m. today (Thursday) at St. Patrick's Catholic church in O'Neill for Homer F. Mullen, 61, who died August 19 at St. Anthony's hospital in O'Neill. Rosary was held Wednesday evening at 8:00 at Biglin's Chapel.
 He was born December 18, 1897 at O'Neill to P. D. and Mary McGinnis Mullen. On February 14, 1927 he married Helen E. Wilcox. Survivors include his widow, Helen; sister Mrs. J. M. Dierks, Nebraska City; brother, Owen, Nebraska City; and his mother.

Gas Bill Too High? Neil Has Answer
 Neil Ryan has completed a roundtrip junket to Neenah, Wis., 650 miles away, where he visited his brother, Joseph. His gas and oil bill for the 1,300 miles totaled $8.50.
 Explanation: Ryan made the trip by motorcycle. He has been scooting around Holt county all summer with the 'cycle, but the Neenah excursion was the first far afield with the two-wheeler.
 "Took a day to go up and a day to return," said Ryan, "about the same time as I've needed in the past to drive it by car."
