Miss Lavada Frerichs Marries A. L. Juracek Saturday In O'Neill

The altar of Christ's Lutheran Church in O'Neill was decorated with candelabra and white gladioli for the wedding of Lavada Frerichs and Archie Leonard Juracek August 15, Rev. A. S. Gedwillo officiated at the six p.m. double-ring candlelight service.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Elsie Frerichs and the late Willard Frerichs, Page, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Juracek, O'Neill. Miss Ruth Mewmaw, Neligh, played the wedding marches on the organ and accompanied the Misses Faye and Aletha Rutherford and Marilyn Terrill, who sang "The Wedding Prayer," "With This Ring," and "Be A Guest at Our Wedding," and for Miss Terrill who sang, "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her uncle, Fred Frerichs, the bride appeared in a floor length gown of hand clipped lace, nylon and tulle. The basque bodice was designed with a Sabrina neckline edged with hand clipped scalloped lace. Long sleeves tapered to bridal points. The full bouffant skirt featured a wide band of hand clipped border lace. The gathered back was interspersed in rows of alternating tiers of border lace and nylon tulle.

Her double veil of silk illusion was held in place by a double crown of pearls and sequins. A gold sweetheart necklace and earrings, a gift from the bridegroom, were her only jewelry. Her bouquet was a lavender orchid with yellow and orchid streamers on a white Bible.

Maid of honor was her sister, Vernona Frerichs. She wore a ballerina length gown of nylon net over taffeta in green with an over jacket and a lavender orchid. Bridesmaids were Ruth Kelly, Alice Frerichs and Diane Pavlik, wearing yellow gowns styled identical to that of the maid of honor. They wore white accessories and carried white gardenia bouquets.

Randall Juracek, Norfolk, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man. Groomsmen were Lyle Frerichs, Tony White, Lawton, Okla., and Maynard Queen, Proctor, Colo. They wore white dinner jackets with dark trousers and cummerbunds. Their boutonnières were red carnations. Vida Jean Frerichs, sister of the bride, was flower girl. Ring bearer was Kevin Juracek, Orchard, cousin of the bridegroom. Candelighters were Sandra and Gaylene Juracek, Orchard, and Gloria Pavlik, Verdigré.

The mother of the bride wore a rose nylon net dress with navy blue accessories, while the mother of the bridegroom chose a pink lace and satin gown with pink accessories. They wore white gardenias in corsage arrangement.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Otto Rahe and great-grandmother, Mrs. Anna Hume and Mrs. Vine Ellis of Verdigré and Mrs. Sophie Nekuda of Omaha, grandmothers of the bridegroom also wore gardenia corsages.

A reception for 300 guests followed the ceremony in the church parlors. The five tier wedding cake was baked and decorated by Mrs. Esther Frerichs, Gurley. It was decorated with wedding bells, roses and doves with a miniature bride and groom topping it. The cake was cut and served by Mrs. Arthur Juracek, Norfolk, and Mrs. Ludwig Ellis, Verdigré.

Pouring were Mrs. Arthur Ostermaier, Sidney, and Mrs. Fred Frerichs, O'Neill. Members of the Lutheran Ladies Aid were in charge of the serving arrangements. At the bride's table were the Misses Raynelda Juracek, Erma Juracek, Helen Frerichs and Joyce Grass.

Miss Carol Kinetobe presided over the guest book and Mrs. Stuart Baker, Ericson, was in charge of the gift book. At the gift table were Marlen Frahm and Mari Lou and Charlotte Luebcke.

Mrs. William Derricksen, jr. and Mrs. Albert Derricksen decorated for the reception with the colors of yellow and green and seasonal garden flowers.

The bride is a graduate of Page high school and the bridegroom was graduated from O'Neill high school. The couple planned a month's wedding trip through the Black Hills, Yellowstone Park and the west coast.

After September 15, the couple will be at home at 321 West Clay in O'Neill. The bridegroom is in partnership with his father on a ranch northeast of O'Neill.

Weber-Miksch Wed In Atkinson Saturday

St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Atkinson was the scene on Saturday, August 22, of the 9:30 a.m. ceremony uniting in marriage Miss Marilyn Weber and Martin J. Miksch. The couple's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Weber of Atkinson and Mr. and Mrs. John Miksch of Stuart.

The Rev. Richard Parr performed the ceremony. Jim Hytrek, Stuart, soloist was accompanied by Miss Delores Schaaf, Omaha.

The bride appeared in a floor length gown of imported Chantilly lace over taffeta fashioned in a princess line. The empire lace bodice featured a Sabrina neckline. The long sleeves tapered to bridal points at the wrists. The princess line of the full skirt had a panel of miniature lace that extended into three tiers of lace. The fingertip veil of silk illusion was caught by a crown of lace accented with pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of red sweetheart roses and stephanotis, trimmed with ivy and satin streamers.

Miss Loren Miksch, Hastings, was maid-of-honor. She and the bridesmaids, Misses Lorene Ziska, Pueblo, Colo. and Marlene Beck, Omaha, wore identical waltz length gowns of blue Chantilly lace over taffeta styled with a scooped chiffon neckline which fell into streamers. They each carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Sally Hytrek, Stuart, was the flower girl. Attendants for the bridegroom were James Weber, Atkinson, as best man, Richard Hytrek, Omaha and Robert Miksch, Stuart, were groomsmen and Lyle Lower, O'Neill, Robert Groeger, Gregory, S. D., Chuck Hamik, Atkinson, and Henry Murphy, Stuart, were ushers.

Greg Lower, O'Neill, was the ring bearer. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Knights of Columbus Hall with 200 guests present. The bridesmaids presided at the gift table. Catherine Schmit had charge of the guest book, Mrs. Opal Keating cut and served the bride's cake and Miss Barbara Milnar cut and served the bridegroom's cake. Doris Grof poured coffee and Ruth Cleary and Phyllis Welsh served punch.

After a wedding trip to Missouri, the couple will reside in Stuart.

The Martin J. Mikschs, Stuart. The bride was formerly Miss Marilyn Weber of Atkinson.
