Ordinance No. 183

AN ORDINANCE OF THE VILLAGE OF EWING, HOLT COUNTY, NEBRASKA, REGULATING THE CONSTRUCTION, USE, MAINTENANCE AND OPERATION OF PRIVIES, CESSPOOLS AND SEPTIC TANKS

BE IT ORDAINED by the Chairman and Board of Trustees of the Village of Ewing, Nebraska:

Section 1: That no person shall construct, erect, any privy, outhouse, cesspool or septic tank for the reception of sewage or waste from a drain from any building, or otherwise, in the Village of Ewing, when the city sewer system is available to the premises on which said privy, cesspool, outhouse, or septic tank is located. The city sewer system shall be considered available for the purposes of this section when said system abuts the premises on which said privy, outhouse, cesspool or septic tank is located, or serves, or when connection can be had to said city sewer system by the running of pipes or drains from said premises through public streets and alleys a distance of not more than 300 feet from any point on the boundary line of the premises to be served.

Section 2: Any person violating the provisions of this ordinance, shall upon conviction thereof be ordered to pay a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than twenty-five dollars, and each day that said violation continues shall constitute a separate and distinct offense and violation of this ordinance.

Section 3: This ordinance shall be in full force and effect after its passage, approval and publication as required by law.

Passed and approved this 4th day of August 1959.

Hutton's Report Tremor In Montana Earthquake

By Mrs. Harold Harris

Coch and Mrs. Thomas Hutton and family returned home Monday from Glacier Park where they have spent the summer vacation. They report having felt a slight tremor of the Montana earthquake of last week.

Mrs. Bertha Urban returned home Friday from Long Beach, Calif. While here she attended a convention of the American Association in Massage. The two week vacation included many sightseeing tours. On her return trip she visited her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Walter and family and also her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Uban jr. at Grand Island.

Relatives and friends have received word of the marriage of Miss Myrtle Urban and Joe Wilkening at Seattle, Wash., August 10, where they now make their home at 5908 Bacon Ave. Mrs. Wilkening is well known in Ewing. She chose nursing as her profession and has served as a medical missionary from the United Presbyterian church and also served a time as a nurse in the U. S. Army. At present she is employed at a Seattle hospital as a private duty nurse.

Mrs. Bernice Harlan of Tilden was a recent weekend guest at the home of her mother, Mrs. Caroline Sanders, and other relatives in Ewing.

Watson McDonald, who has been in the sick list for the past week, is now improved.

Miss Sharon Hobbs returned home Thursday from Norfolk where she had been a guest at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Schiffbauer.

Mr. Floyd Butterfield of Ewing attended a business meeting of the Wayne Feed Company at Omaha on Friday and Saturday. He was accompanied to Omaha by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schrad who were guests at the home of their sons and wives, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Schrad and family and Mr. and Mrs. Clem Schrad.

Thursday dinner and evening guests at the Floyd Butterfield home were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Roberts, and her grandfather, Clyde Nielsen, all of Atkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Angus and son, Randy, of Lincoln, came Sunday to visit a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Angus. Mr. and Mrs. Merle Angus and daughter, also of Lincoln, are spending their vacation at the parental homes of Mr. and Mrs. Watson McDonald and Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Angus.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Olson of Sioux City, who spent the weekend at the H. R. Harris home, returned home on Monday. They plan to leave Tuesday on a vacation trip to Minneapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Butterfield and Sharon Johnston attended the rodeo at the Holt county fair held at Chambers Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Harris and daughter, Bertha, returned home Tuesday from Fremont where they were guests at the home of his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Harris and family, and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Zimmerman went to Norfolk on Monday where they saw his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Zimmerman of Battle Creek who will leave on a plane headed for a two months vacation in Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Glosso of Chicago were guests on Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Van Conet and family. They were enroute to Ainsworth.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Tessmer and two sons of Wayne arrived in Ewing and will make their home in the residence formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Aldrich Thompson.

Mr. Tessmer will teach commercial subjects in the Ewing high school and Mrs. Tessmer will teach the Thoenel school district 227 southwest of Ewing, beginning August 31.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Van Conet and children were entertained at dinner on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hawk.

Mrs. Martin Van Conet and Mrs. Wayne Elliot will begin their term of school in district number 46, known as St. John's, south of Ewing on August 31.

The congregational picnic of the United Presbyterian church was held at the Riverside park in Ne-ligh Saturday. A good crowd attended. After the dinner, the children enjoyed the many amusements in the park, while the men played horseshoes and the ladies visited.

Guests on Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Davis were Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vermilyea, all of Sioux City, and Mrs. Gertrude Davis of Orchard.

Mary Sharon, Monica, Patty and Mike Munn and Kay Bergstrom will complete their swimming lessons at the Ne-ligh pool this week.

William Larson of Oklahoma City visited Tuesday and Wednesday at the home of his brother Albert Larson. Mr. and Mrs. Sioux City where he had visited other relatives.

Albert Larson celebrated his 30th birthday on Saturday. In honor of the occasion a family gathering was held at his home on Sunday. A picnic dinner was served. Mrs. Don Larson baked and decorated the birthday cake. Mr. Larson was also presented a cash gift. His granddaughter, Linda Larson, who had a birthday on Friday, was also honored.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Starr and Elizabeth of West Point, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Pahl of Oakland, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reimer, Mr. and Mrs. Don Larson and Linda, all of Ewing. Their daughter, Mrs. Carl Christon, who was not able to be present, called. Letters of congratulation were received from his son, Leonard, and wife in Alaska.

Mr. Larson, who retired from the farm several years ago, continues to keep busy about his home caring for his garden and lawn. He is also janitor at the First Methodist church, which he attends regularly. He often lends a hand to a neighbor in need.

Since retiring, he and Mrs. Larson have spent some time in California, Texas and Colorado.

Mrs. Blanche Sisson and her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Adrian and family of Wichita, Kan., returned home Friday after visiting at the home of Mrs. Sisson's mother, Mrs. Hannah Tuttle and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Shain and family enjoyed a vacation the past few days visiting relatives and friends at various cities in Nebraska and Concordia, Kan. Both are employed at the Ewing Co-Operative Creamery.

Mrs. Harriet Welke accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Schmisser, to the Holt county fair on Thursday. Others in attendance from Ewing were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Bergstrom and family, Mr. and Mrs. Milan Welke, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Welke and Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Harriet and Bertha.
