Rock Falls News

By Mrs. Floyd Johnson
I hope you're all enjoying this interlude of nice weather. It may be of short duration, but the countryside along the hills and creeks is beautiful, with the patches of brightest gold and red showing in the green foliage. By the calendar autumn arrived officially on the 23 and your reporter hopes she speaks for the majority in that it will continue at least until winter arrives on December 21. The nice shower on Monday evening of about a half inch and a little more in this community really makes everything look fresh and green. In the meantime the main topic of the day is school activities, football, band practice and so on as the young group gets settled in their work for the coming months.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vequist, Mr. and Mrs. Duane Sanders and Dale and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gannon of Inman had dinner and spent the day with the Floyd Sanders family in O'Neill.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Druke and children were supper and evening guests of the Lou Brown family on September 17.

ATTENTION HOG CONSIGNORS

Through the fall cattle season, it will be necessary for us to begin our hog sale at 11 a.m. each Thursday morning. In order to serve you better, and to do a better job of advertising for you, please be ready with your hogs at that time. We are going to start our cattle sale promptly at 1 p.m. each Thursday because of the heavy runs. We feel this will please both the hog and the cattle sellers.
