The 22nd annual Letter Writing Week will be celebrated in Inman during the week of October 4 to 10, it was announced by acting Postmaster Mary E. Hartigan.

"I'm sure we are all aware that a personal letter is, next to an actual visit, the most intimate and economical means each of us has to communicate with our fellow human beings—write today to those away.

Posters, depicting a mailman in a new postal vehicle called the mailster, will be displayed in post offices throughout the country. Colorful streamers, proclaiming that Letters are fun to send and exciting to receive, will be displayed on postal vehicles.

Acting Postmaster Hartigan should serve as a reminder to write long-overdue letters to friends, relatives, hospital patients, foreign acquaintances, faraway friends and relatives, and other who will welcome a personal letter.

Ziskas Here From Wayne

New to O'Neill, but not to Holt county, is the Marvin Ziska family, who moved here about two months ago from Wayne.

Employed as a linotype operator at the Frontier, Ziska has spent the last 8 years in newspaper printing. He worked for the Wayne Herald for about 10 months and before that was employed by the Valentine Newspaper for 7 years.

The Ziskas are both originally born and raised in Atkinson and Marv comes from about 8 miles west of Atkinson. Although they have never lived in O'Neill, they have visited friends and relatives here many times.

Two girls and a boy comprise the younger set of the family. They are Beverly, 5½, and Doreen, 4, and Danny, 14 months. Mrs. Ziska is known as Blanche.

The Ziskas are members of the Catholic church. Their interests are many and varied. Marv likes to hunt and fist and enjoys singing. While in Valentine, he was a member of a male quartet and also sang in the church choir. Both Blanche and Marv like to play cards and games.

The couple were married in Atkinson 7 years ago. Before that, Marv was in the armed forces. Besides relatives in Atkinson, two brothers of Mrs. Ziska live in O'Neill.

Black Friday Sales

Rules and regulations for the Ranchers' Black Friday stocker feeder sales to be held October 23, 1959 in Atkinson, and on October 30, 1959, in O'Neill, sponsored by the Holt County Angus Breeders Association:

Any rancher may consign to either Atkinson, October 23 or O'Neill, October 30. You need not be a member of the Holt County Assn., however, we solicit your membership as an associate member.

In Atkinson the sale will be limited to 2,500 head total. In O'Neill the sale will be limited to 1,500 head total. Both sales will start promptly at 1 p.m.

Sale order will be determined by arrival at sale barn to be sold in order of arrival.

All calves will be sold first, then fall calves, then yearlings, two's and others.

Angus cross beef-bred cattle will be accepted.

If a consignor has some calves of 4-H caliber and wishes to have them sold as 4-H Club Calves, they will be sold along with his regular consignment, in the order determined by the sale rules.

Early consignments are imperative, for when 2,500 are consigned for Atkinson and 1,500 for O'Neill, ALL CONSIGNMENTS WILL CLOSE.

The Association charge will remain the same as before, 50 cents per head.

Mail or Phone your consignments either to:

Frank Beelaert, Page, Nebr., Assn. Pres.
Louis J. Bartos, O'Neill, Assn. Sec.-Treas.
Assn. Managers or Either Sale Barn

Our winter show and sale of range raised bulls and heifers will be held February 5, 1960 at the O'Neill Livestock Market, O'Neill, Nebr.
