Crowded Out Last Week's News

Wayne Klinetobe of O'Neill took Wednesday and was taken to the hospital by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Klinetobe. He is out of the hospital now but still not well.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Johnson of Verdel spent Wednesday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Klinetobe. They were also dinner guests at her parents' home. Mrs. Johnson came to O'Neill to consult the doctor.

David and Dale Sidok spent Sunday, September 27, with Jack and Chipper Cole.

The barn on the Jess Wills burned to the ground Monday. Sparks from a fire that Al Kloppenborg was burning off was thought to be the cause of it. Two fire trucks from O'Neill arrived when the fire was about out. Emmet has lost more buildings by fire than any other cause. In February the depot burned to the ground.

Jim Menkens surprised his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Menkens and family by coming home Friday night for the weekend.

Carolyn Baekhaus, Atkinson, and Mary Marie Staples of Butte stopped at home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Menkens on Thursday evening.

Jerry Smith and friends of Meadow Grove were supper guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Klinetobe on Sunday evening. Others present were Connie Menkens, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Klinetobe of O'Neill, Evelyn Scholes of Ewing, Jerry Menkens, Carol Klinetobe and Mrs. Lonnie Klinetobe of O'Neill.

Jerry Smith, Kenzie Schaaf and Jerry Menkens went to Valentine to work for a few weeks.

Mrs. Gilbert Fox and girls were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bredelhoff of O'Neill. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tomlinson and Nina of Grand Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dreckes of Sioux City, Iowa and Mrs. Helen Mullen of O'Neill visited their aunt Mrs. Georgia McGinnis on Sunday.

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. Gil Fox and girls were guests of Mrs. Fritz Belzer of O'Neill. Other guests from Emmet were, Mrs. Wayne Fox and family and Mrs. Vera Barnes.

Clarence Murphy was found by his brother, apparently he had been gassed. A faulty stove connection was blamed for the accident.

He was hospitalized for a couple days and is now home, feeling much better after his narrow escape.

Mrs. Paul Menkens was a guest of Mrs. Fred Wells of O'Neill on Saturday afternoon.

Helen Mae Banks Is Bride of Robert Pruden

Miss Helen Mae Banks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Banks, O'Neill, became the bride of Robert Ray Pruden, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Pruden, Ewing, Sunday at 2 p.m. at Christ Lutheran church.

Before an altar decorated with baskets of white mums, Rev. A. S. Gidwillo performed the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Elwyn Robertson, Chamber, was at the organ and accompanied "The Lord's Prayer," sung by Mrs. Samuel Burtwistle, sister of the groom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a waltz length gown of white nylon acetate lace with nylon net. The back featured a bow at the waist and a v-neckline. The scalloped skirt tapered in back to reveal a ruffled net underskirt. Her veil was set with a pearl crown.

She carried an orchid on a white Bible, a gift of the bride groom.

Barbara Ann Banks was her sister's only attendant. She wore a dress of light blue nylon lace over taffeta and carried a colonial bouquet of blue and white carnations.

Janus Pruden was his brother's best man. Ushers were John Pruden and Samuel Burtwistle.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue lace dress with white accessories and a pink carnation corsage. The mother of the bride wore a blue and white jersey dress with blue accessories.

A reception followed the ceremony for about 100 guests. The wedding cake was cut by Mrs. Lyle Tucker, Ewing. It was baked by the bridegroom's mother and decorated by Mrs. Pruden and Mrs. Waldo Davis, Ewing. Mrs. Samuel Burtwistle, Ewing, served punch, and Mrs. Russell Yusten served coffee.

Serving the wedding party were Mrs. Larry Brookhouser, Grand Island, and Mrs. Jack Hawk, Inman. In charge of the guest book was Janice Harmon and at the gift table was Miss Patty Morrison.

The couple planned a wedding trip through the southern states. For her going away, the bride chose a navy dress with white accessories. Following the trip, the couple will be at home on a farm two miles north and 1 mile east of Page.

Mrs. Pruden attended O'Neill high school and Mr. Pruden is a graduate of Ewing high school. He served five years in the armed forces, three of those in Korea.

Wilma Hanzlik Marries Melvin Miller Sept. 27

Miss Wilma Hanzlik, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vendelin Hanzlik, Niobrara and Melvin Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Miller were united in marriage at an 8:30 p.m. double ring ceremony September 27 at St. John's Lutheran church at Yankton, S.D.

The Rev. Bussco officiated.

The bride appeared in a white satin princess style street length dress. She wore a single strand pearl necklace, a gift from the bridegroom. She wore an orchid corsage.

The bridegroom was attired in a dark blue business suit with a carnation boutonniere.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Held of Royal were the couple's attendants. Mrs. Held wore a two-piece brown suit with a feathered mink corsage.

Mr. Held wore a blue-gray suit with a carnation boutonniere.

Following the ceremony a reception was held for the wedding party.

The bride is a graduate of the Niobrara high school, class of '59. The bridegroom is a '52 graduate of O'Neill high school.

The couple will be at home on a farm on the Knox-Holt county line.
