

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lemmer. They will live on a ranch near Atkinson.

Fox-Lemmer Wedding October 3 at Newport

Shirley Ann Fox became the bride of Robert Charles Lemmer in a 3 p.m. ceremony Saturday, Oct. 3, in the Methodist church in Newport. Parents of the couple are Mrs. Mabel Fox, Newport, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lemmer of Atkinson.

Rev. Robert Peterson officiated at the double ring candlelight ceremony performed before the altar decorated with two pedestals of white mums and pom poms.

Mrs. Lola Mauch, organist, accompanied Don Fox, Lincoln, as he sang "Because", "Oh Promise Me" and "Wedding Prayer".

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Glenn Fox, wore a gown of alencon lace and nylon tulle. The fitted bodice was topped by a rounded neckline trimmed in tiny scallops and seed pearls with tapered wrist length sleeves. The bouffant floor length skirt was fashioned of lace extending into points and bound by a wide gathered band of nylon chiffon.

A pearl edged crown of open work lace accented with pearl drops held her tiered veil of bridal illusion and she carried a cascade bouquet of American beauty roses.

The maid-of-honor was Cyd Little. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Bob Maurer and Mrs. Ernest Hasch. They wore street length sheath dresses of shaded blue velvet with matching headpieces fashioned with a bow and blue net. They carried colonial bouquets of white carnations.

Lyle Lemmer, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. Groomsmen were Raymon Schifern and Gene Clauson of South Sioux City.

Ushers were Don Fox, brother of the bride and Rudy Dale Dvorak, cousin of the bridegroom.

Glenn Lee Fox, and Tommy Fox, Leadville, both nephews of the bride, were candlelighters.

Ringbearer was Dale Stahl, nephew of the bride and flower girl was Diane Stahl, niece of the bride, who wore a blue schiffle embroidered-jacket dress with a pleated cummerbund and flare skirt. She carried a nosegay of white feathered carnations.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony in the city auditorium. Mrs. Clifford Stahl, sister of the bride, presided at the guest book, and Mrs. Ivan Stewart, Ann Atkinson, and Kathy Jameson were in charge of the gift table.

Mrs. Walter Johnson, Mrs. Pete Utter, Mrs. Fay Pickenpaugh, Mrs. John Christenson, Mrs. Reno Gordon and Eileen Anderson were in charge of the reception.

Mrs. Merlin Otteman, Philadelphia, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Don Fox poured from a lace covered serving table. The four tier wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and groom was baked and decorated by Mrs. Glenn Fox, who also cut and served the cake. Mrs. Clayton Fox, Leadville, served the bridegrooms cake.

Following a wedding trip to the western states, the couple will reside on the bridegroom's father's ranch south of Atkinson.
