Cardinals Thrill Homecoming Crowd; Beat Norfolk S. H. 42-7

St. Mary's Cardinals put homecoming alumni at ease Thursday night as they tromped all over Norfolk Sacred Heart, clearing the bench in a 42-7 victory.

In winning their third straight, the Cardinals turned Jim Shoemaker loose on scoring romps of 57, 67 and 88 yards. These runs, coupled with an up-the-middle blast by Bill Hynes good for 59 yards and the score, completely demoralized the Norfolk eleven.

The Cardinals opened the scoring early in the first quarter with Shoemaker's first long distance scamper. He burst around right end and went 67 yards to score with Hynes adding the point after.

They scored again just a short time later on a 65-yard drive with Jim Spitznberger going over from the one. The series needed only 5 plays.

The Cardinal's second unit played much of the second period and there was no scoring until late in the period. Then, with the first unit back in action, Ronnie Ross sparked a drive that carried from the St. Mary's 26 to paydirt. Ross got the touchdown on a 1-yard plunge. Shoemaker added the point for a 24-0 lead at halftime.

Norfolk kicked to start the second half and again Ross carried the mail to the Cardinal 40. On the second play from scrimmage, Bill Hynes howled over would-be tacklers and raced right up the middle for 59 yards and another 6 points. Shoemaker again added the point.

Sacred Heart scored in this period on an intercepted pass and run back to SMA's 10. They scored two plays and added the extra point.

On the kickoff, Hynes carried to the 43 and on the first play, Shoemaker dashed around the end again for a 57-yard touchdown. Spitznberger added the point.

With the alternate unit in action, the Cardinals were able to hold Norfolk but could do no scoring of their own. Then, when Norfolk put the Cardinals in the hole with a nice punt, the first team went back in with the ball on the 12.

A double reverse with Shoemaker carrying got the Cardinals out of the hole and right into the scoring column again as he thundered 88 yards to chalk up another 6 points. Spitznberger added the extra point to round out the scoring, 42-7.

Very fine defensive work on the part of Tom Higgins, Cal Peters, and Benny Kamphaus kept the Sacred Heart single wing attack contained to just 41 net yards rushing and 7 yards passing.

SMA To Test Improved Squad At West Point

St. Mary's Cardinal's happy with an impressive 42-7 win Thursday night over Norfolk Sacred Heart, journey to West Point Thursday night (tonight) to take on a tough Guardian Angel squad.

If past games can be any indication of how a team will do, the Cardinals are in for some tough going. The West Point club, although they have only one win to their credit, have lost some very close ones to Holy Trinity of Hartington, 7-6, and to St. Bonaventure of Columbus, 18-6.

The man to watch at West Point will be Dick Tingelhoff, supposedly a speed merchant and capable of getting behind the SMA secondary to be on the receiving end of a deadly passing attack.

The Cardinals, on the other hand, seem to have learned a lot about eleven man football in the past three weeks. It must be remembered, however, that none of the teams beaten in the three week period were noted for their brand of play.

If the Angels are able to stop the end sweeps of Jim Shoemaker or the pile driving of Bill Hynes they could add their second win. With the line play of the Cardinals as tough as it is though, stopping those two boys is quite a task, as more than one squad will testify.

All in all, it should prove to be a close one and will give the improved Cardinals a real test—one they've been needing for the past two weeks.

Unbeaten Crofton Stops Ewing Friday

Unbeaten Crofton took advantage of a blocked punt and a fourth down miss Friday night to win from a hard fighting Ewing team at the Tiger's field, 27-13. Except for the two first quarter miscues the game was close. Both teams collected 10 first downs and Crofton gained 225 yards rushing while the Tigers ground out 223.

Behind 14-0 to start the second quarter the Tiger defense wall dug in and held the single wing attack in check. Late in this quarter Jerry Tams picked off a Crofton fumble and raced 55-yards for the Tiger's first touchdown. Eacker fired a pass to Brion for the extra point and both teams went off the field for the half with Crofton leading 14-7.

Crofton wasted no time in widening the margin as they took the second half kickoff and marched down the field to another touchdown.

After an exchange of punts the Tiger offense got in high gear and moved the ball to within striking distance as the third quarter ended.

Ewing opened the fourth period with a touchdown, Ron Brion carrying. The extra point attempt failed.

Crofton bounced right back with another touchdown and the hard fought contest went to Crofton, 27-13.

Harold Parks gained 108 yards rushing behind the fine blocking of the tough Ewing line. Lester Hahlbeck and Bill Bauer were singled out by Coach Gary Tessmer for their fine defensive play.

Ainsworth Too Tough; Stuart Goes Down 25-7

Stuart Broncos took another loss Friday night as a strong Ainsworth eleven turned on the fuel in the second quarter, racking up 19 points and going on to win 25-7.

Jim Schmaderer again showed good speed for the Bronco's as he scored Stuart's only touchdown from the 30-yard line. Breyer and Carl Clements also looked good on offense, according to Coach Ferdy Mefford.

Mefford singled out Don Fuelberth, Larry Clements and Denny Wallinger for their defensive roles.

The homecoming king, Larry Clements, and the queen, Janet Jarde, were crowned at the half-time festivities.

O'Neill Eagles Take First Loss; St. Bonaventure Wins 38-19

O'Neill Eagles found the going tough Friday night and suffered their first loss of the season at the hands of an experienced and deceptive Columbus St. Bonaventure eleven.

The final score, 38-19, was not a true indication of the brand of ball played by the Eagles, however.

Both teams scored in the first quarter, but both failed to convert and the quarter ended in a 6-6 tie. O'Neill took the opening kickoff on the 24 and marched 75 yards to score. The big play of the series came on a 40-yard scamper by Jerry Kilcoin with good blocks by Darold Ermer and Dennis Tomlinson. Donlin scored the touchdown.

St. Bonaventure came right back and knotted the score when Jack Nosal pushed over from the five.

The visitors scored twice in the second quarter. Kudron rammed over for the first tally from the five and Ed Siemek got behind the O'Neill secondary for a pass to cap a 70-yard touchdown play. St. Bonaventure made the extra point try good.

With just 45 seconds remaining in the half Jerry Kilcoin took a pass from Bill Eby and raced 55 yards for a Eagle score. Both teams went off the field for the halftime intermission with the score standing 19-12.

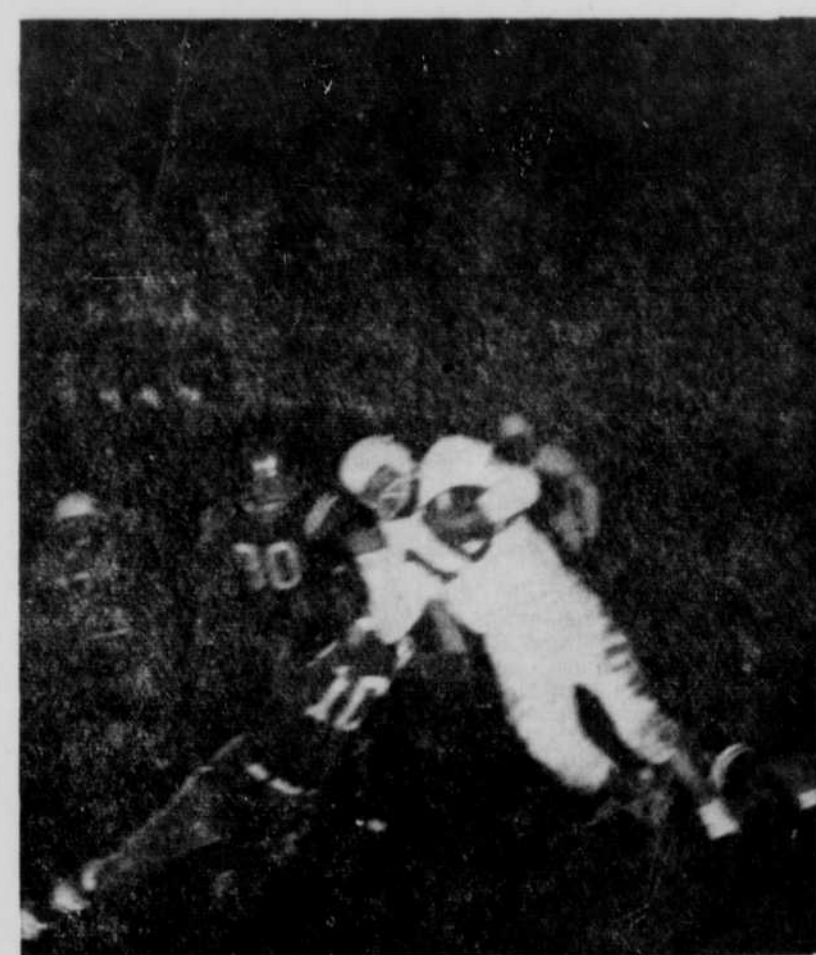

St. Bonaventure opened the second half with a drive that saw Kudron score from the 13. The Eagles, still in there tough, took the kickoff down field in a scoring drive that saw Kilcoin go over from the 25-yard line. He raced 42 yards on one play in this drive. This exchange of touchdowns put the score at 26-19 as the quarter ended.

The Eagles held the Shamrocks in the first series of plays in the fourth quarter and took the ball on their own 16. They moved to the visitors 18 in short order, but a fumble cost them the ball and in some people's estimation, was the turning point of the game. The Eagles never again posted any serious scoring threat.

The Shamrocks took this 4th quarter fumble and moved the ball to score. Nosal going over from the 17.

The Eagles, in desperation and trailing 32-19, went to the air in force and saw one of their passes picked off and returned to the 15. Bonaventure scored again on this opportunity.

Singled out for fine play by Coach Hawley were Donlin and Kilcoin and the passing of Eby.
