

Dooley Has O'Neill Correspondent

Two recent news dispatches in the daily press...

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y.—The Communist take-over of Laos was placed in check during Russia Premier Krushchev's recent visit to the United States.

These front pages items of recent days are of special interest to Miss Mary Louise Birmingham, daughter of Mrs. H. J. Birmingham and the late Mr. Birmingham.

Ms Birmingham comes by the medical missionary interest honestly. She served in social work for the American Red Cross in Japan and Korea during the conflict with the Reds.

Because of the recent turn in Doctor Dooley's personal health, prayers are being offered in many Catholic churches in his behalf.

"Deliver Us From Evil" is the story of a refugee camp in Vietnam. In July, 1954, Dooley was a naval physician assigned aboard ships that took the refugees to South Vietnam to escape from the communist-dominated North Vietnam following the partition of that nation.

Doctor Dooley emerged from the refugee experience with the belief that medicine is one of the great bonds of unity among peoples.

"I have revisited my old hospital at Nam Tha and it is going well—not as well as when 20th century personnel were running it, but excellently under Asian standards."

"MEDICO has four other teams out—Cambodia, Burma, Afghanistan and Kenya. We are supporting Doctor Schweitzer a great deal."

Under MEDICO, Doctor Dooley returned to Laos in the fall of 1956 to establish two jungle hospitals—one of which was only five miles from the frontier border of Communist China.

Doctor Dooley's second book, "The Edge of Tomorrow," tells the story of those 15 months.

"In this village of Asians, most of whom have never seen a white man, none of whom have ever seen a doctor, four thousand are living, suffering and being generally miserable and wretched."
