Raymer-Wenner Vows Spoken at Atkinson In Saturday Ceremony

Miss Marilyn Raymer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Raymer, Atkinson, became the bride of John Wenner, jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wenner, Atkinson, at 9:30 a.m. Saturday.

The Rev. R. J. Parr performed the ceremony at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Atkinson. Serving the mass were Robert Raymer and Michael Keating.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride appeared in a white mist tulle gown, featuring a molded bodice with a Sabrina neckline and sleeves tapering at the wrists. Embroidery motifs outlined the neckline and the elongated bodice that extended into a deep point in the front panel of the bouffant skirt.

A small beaded cap held the fingertip silk illusion veil. Her cascade bouquet was of red roses. She carried a pearl rosary and wore a pearl necklace, a gift of the bridegroom.

Frances Raymer was her sister's maid of honor, and Mrs. John Kabeiseman, Yankton, S. D., was bridesmaid. They wore gold satin princess dresses and matching gold banded hats. They carried cascade bouquets of bronze pom-pom mums.

Sharon Osborne, Atkinson, was flower girl, and Eddie Osborne was ring bearer.

Mike Wenner, Atkinson, was his brother's best man, and Bill Raymer, Stuart, was groomsmen. Ushers were Pat Liable, Atkinson, and John Kabeiseman, Yankton, S. D., St. Joseph's high school choir sang "Ave Maria," "Panis Angelicus," "On This Day O Beautiful Mother," and "Jesus Thou Art Coming". The altar was decorated with mums.

The mother of the bride wore a grey dress with black accessories and the mother of the bridegroom wore a black dress with black accessories. Their corsages were of white carnations.

A dinner followed the ceremony given by the bride's parents at the Knights of Columbus Hall. The wedding cake was cut by Mrs. Mike Wenner. In charge of the guest book was Mrs. Francis Penry and at the gift table were Dolores Engler and Jean Mellor. The head table was decorated with bouquets of bronze pompons.

Both are graduates of St. Joseph's High School in Atkinson. The bride has been employed as a clerk and Mr. Wenner is engaged in ranching.
For her going away, the bride chose a navy dress with black accessories. Following their wedding trip the couple will be at home on a ranch.
