

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kurgeweit

Carol Cadwallader Wed In Clearwater Church; Honeymoon in Texas

The Concordia Lutheran church in Clearwater was the scene of the January 1 wedding of Miss Carol Cadwallader, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cadwallader, Inman, and Donald R. Kurgeweit, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Kurgeweit, Ewing.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. D. E. Brauner-Sreuther, before an altar decorated with white poinsettias and baskets of lavender and white mums.

Mrs. Eugene Kurgeweit, soloist, was accompanied by Miss Jeanne Schabell, Clearwater.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of chantilly lace and nylon tulle over satin. The sculptured bodice featured a Sabrina neckline edged with illusion and embroidered with iridescent sequins, and sleeves tapering to bridal points. The bouffant skirt of tulle, worn over hoops, was accented with a wide scalloped hand clipped border of lace.

The fingertip veil was held by a crown trimmed with sequins and seed pearls. She carried an orchid on a white prayer book. Her pearl necklace was a gift from the bridegroom.

Miss Brenda Colman, Omaha, was bridesmaid, wearing a floor length gown of orchid net over taffeta. Her bouquet was of lavender and white mums and she wore a white feather head band.

Merrill Forsland, Ewing, was best man. Ushers were Dick Appleby, Inman, and Henry Lange Jr., Ewing.

The bride's mother chose a beige suit dress and the bridegroom's mother wore a brown two piece dress. They wore corsages of white and lavender mums.

A reception given by the bride's parents followed the ceremony. The table was centered with a four-tier wedding cake, cut and served by Mrs. Harry Appleby. Serving were Miss Ruth Ann Hanson and Bernice Colman. Mrs. Joe Menish poured.

At the gift table was Miss Helen Sobotka and in charge of the guest book was Miss Linda Mae Kinley.

Leaving for a three week wedding trip in Texas, the bride wore a blue brocade flannel suit with black accessories. The couple will live south of Ewing.

The bride is a graduate of Inman high school and has been employed by Northwestern Bell Telephone. The bride groom is a graduate of Ewing high school and farms south of Ewing.

Elaine Schaaf Marries Dean Gokie at Atkinson

ATKINSON—St. Joseph's Catholic church was the scene of the 7 a.m. wedding Thursday morning, January 14, when Miss Elaine Schaaf and Dean Gokie were united in marriage by Rev. Robert Morocco.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Norbert Schaaf and the late Mr. Schaaf and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Conie Gokie, all of Atkinson.

The bride appeared in a white chiffon ballerina length gown. Her attendant was a sister, Miss Loree Schaaf of Omaha. She wore a blue chiffon ballerina length dress.

Larry Wewel of Newport was attendant for the bridegroom. After the wedding ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at Dorothy's cafe for the immediate families. A reception was held from 2 to 4 p.m. at the home of the bride's mother.

Mrs. Gokie attended St. Joseph's high school and the bridegroom was graduated from St. Joseph's a year ago.

The couple went on a wedding trip to western Nebraska and Colorado. They will live in Atkinson where Mr. Gokie is employed by the Bonenberger Feed Store.

The First Methodist church in Yankton, S. D., was the scene of the 2 p.m. ceremony with Rev. L. W. Sachse officiating. Miss Judy Enevoldsen, Osmond, was at the organ.

The bride wore a winter white wool street length dress with white accessories and a corsage of red roses. Miss Teri Decker, Yankton, S. D., was her aunt's maid of honor. She wore a pink wool sheath with a white carnation corsage.

Frankie Baldwin, Spalding, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man. Steve and Ric Decker, nephews of the bride, were ushers.

The mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Dale Potts, wore a navy blue dress with a white carnation corsage.

A reception followed the ceremony at the David Decker home in Yankton. Mrs. Lester Brown sat and served the cake. Mrs. Thomas Decker poured. Sharon Potts was at the guest book. Out-of-town guests were from Spalding, Plainview, Wayne, Bloomfield, Lincoln, Waterbury and Yankton.

The bridegroom is a graduate of O'Neill High school and served six years in the United States Army. Following a wedding trip the couple will live at 508 Douglas, Wayne. Both are seniors at Wayne State Teachers College.
