Mullen-Wallen Vows Exchanged Saturday In Emmet Ceremony

Epiphany Catholic church at Emmet was the scene of the wedding of Miss Patricia Mullen and John Wallen, Jr., on Saturday, Jan. 30. Rev. Kenneth Karl of Leigh officiated at the 10 a.m. ceremony. Tim Mullen and Dennis Richards were acolytes. Mrs. Ronald Reed played the wedding march and accompanied Douglas Spittler who "Mother Beloved," "Ave Maria" and "On This Day." Arrangements of mums decorated the altar.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Mullen of Emmet and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Wallen, Sr. The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, appeared in a waltz length gown of silk organza and re-embroidered alencon lace fashioned along princess lines. The bodice featured a scalloped peacock neckline and long sleeves tapering to bridal points at the wrists. The full skirt of silk organza was styled with deep V insertions of lace with a large bow and streamers at the back. Her shoulder length veil of lace trimmed silk illusion was held by a demis-cup of lace. Seed pearls and sequins trimmed the scalloped edge. She carried a bouquet of white feathered carnations and lily of the valley centered with a white orchid.

Marty Mullen of Emmet was the bridesmaid for her sister. She wore a lue waltz length gown of lace over satin and net. Charles Fox was best man and ushers were Ned Mullen of Norfolk and Ronnie Richards of Emmet. The bridegroom and his attendant were attired in navy suits with white carnation boutonniers. The bride's mother wore a green wool persey dress with rawn accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a beige with matching accessories. Both wore corsages of white carnations centered with a red rose.

The bridal party and immediate families were entertained at a breakfast in O'Neill y the bride's parents. A reception was held at St. Michael's hall in Emmet for 100 guests. The wedding cake was cut and served by Mrs. Al Havranek. Miss Vonda Thomas poured. Mrs. John Lee Farmer and Mrs. Ray Lampman took charge of the gifts and Mrs. Wayne Mattern registered the guests. Servers were Misses Mary and Madeline Richards.

For traveling the bride wore a brown plaid walking suit with matching accessories. Her corsage was the white orchid from the wedding ouquet.

Mrs. Wallen is employed y Consumers Public Power District and Mr. Wallen is associated with the Ewing Co-op creamery. The couple will reside at 213 1/2 North 2nd St.
