Schaaf's Bar and Tavern
IN ATKINSON, NEBRASKA

A going business, complete with fixtures and excellent building; also a fine, 3-bedroom, completely modern dwelling house.

OFFERED FOR SALE TO THE HIGHEST BIDDER

This profitable business property and dwelling is being offered for sale by the heirs in order to close the Estate of the late Julia M. Schaaf. Bebr., bids will be received at the Law Office of Francis D. Lee, Atkinson, Nebr., until one o'clock p.m. on March 5, 1960. Francis is made on either property separately, or on both properties. The heirs reserve the right to reject any or all bids.

THE BAR AND TAVERN

Legally described as E 1/2 of lot 6 and all of lot 7 in Block 10, Original Town of Atkinson, Nebraska. Hollow-stone tile building erected in 1951, designed especially for a tavern. Includes all necessary facilities and fixtures - modern heating and air conditioning; built-in coolers and storage space. This is a going business. It enjoys the reputation of earning one of the highest net profits of any beer tavern in North Central Nebraska. An exceptional opportunity for any interested purchaser. Accounting records will be open for inspection by any prospective purchaser. Possession will be given so that license can be procured by May 1st, 1960.

THE DWELLING

Legally described as Lots 8 and 9, Block 1, Collins' 2nd Addition to Atkinson, Nebraska. This is a 3-bedroom, ultra modern dwelling built of Hollow-stone tile, located within 2 blocks of St. Joseph's Catholic Church and School; within 6 blocks of Atkinson Public School - probably one of the most desirable locations in Atkinson. It has a finished full basement and all the desirable features of a modern home.

Both properties are open for inspection upon appointment with the administrator.
