Karen McKim Marries Gene O'Neill Saturday At St. Patrick's Church

Miss Karen Rae McKim and Gene Arthur O'Neill were united in marriage Saturday at St. Patrick's Catholic church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville McKim and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur O'Neill.

Rev. Robert Duffy officiated at the 10 a.m. nuptial mass and double ring ceremony. Singing "Ave Maria," "O Sanctissima," and "O Lord, I am Not Worthy" were the Misses Alice Schaffer and Colleen Corlie.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of chantilly lace and nylon tulle. A Sabrina neckline formed a v in back and accented the molded bodice which featured sleeves tapering to points. Her full skirt was trimmed with scalloped lace.

Her finger tip veil of silk illusion was held by a crown shaped hat trimmed with sequins. The bride carried a cascade of white roses on a white prayer book. Maid of honor was Miss Betty Miles and bridesmaids were Miss Elaine Miller and Miss Cheri Knapper. Miss Miles' gown was pink while the bridesmaids' were rose. The nylon street length gowns were styled with fitted bodices trimmed in satin with a bow at the waist and full skirts of nylon over taffeta.

The bride's attendants carried cascades bouquets and wore white head bands and gloves. Jerry Schmidt was best man and Fred Snowdard Jr., and Ronnie Ross, were groomsmen. Ushers were Lonnie McKim and Thomas Druick.

The mother of the bride wore a royal blue wool sheath with off-white accessories while the bridegroom's mother chose a navy blue silk dress with navy accessories. Both wore pink carnation corsages.

A breakfast for the bridal party and families followed the ceremony with a reception in the afternoon. The wedding cake, decorated in pink and rose and topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom, was baked and decorated by Mrs. Matt Beha. It was cut and served by Mrs. Harold Williamson, the bride's aunt. Mrs. Charles Tasler also served.

At the guest book, Mrs. Edna MacKinlay, and assisting with the gifts were the Misses Marilyn Strong and Marilyn Siders. Pouring were Miss Lois Nelson and Miss Sharon Murray.

The bride wore a royal blue suit with black accessories for her going away. Following a short wedding trip the couple will live on a ranch near O'Neill.

The bride is a graduate of O'Neill high school and the bridegroom a graduate of St. Mary's Academy.
