

A Poem From Mrs. Eby . . .

Former Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York likes to quote this prayer sent to him by William E. Robinson who, in turn, received it from his author, a Mother Superior who wishes to be anonymous.

PRAYER

Lord Thou knowest better than I know myself that I am growing older and will someday be old. Keep me from getting talkative, and particularly from the fatal habit of thinking. I must say something on every subject and on every occasion. Release me from craving to straighten out everybody's affairs. Keep my mind free from the recital of endless details, give me wings to get to the point. I ask for grace enough to listen to the tales of others' pains. Help me to endure them with patience. But seal my lips on my own aches and pains until they are increasing and my love of rehearsing them is becoming sweeter as the years go by. Teach me the glorious lesson that occasionally it is possible that I might be mistaken. Keep me reasonably sweet; I do not want to be a saint, some of them are so hard to live with—but a sour old woman is one of the crowning works of the Devil. Make me thoughtful, but not moody; helpful but not bossy. With my vast store of wisdom, it seems a pity not to use it all—but Thou knowest Lord that I want a few friends at the end.

Amelia News

By Miss Florence Lindsey

Our mailmen had a vacation Monday due to Washington's birthday anniversary. The Atkinson mailman, Dwight Kenny, probably spent the day getting acquainted with that new little grandson born to his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dale Kenny. The baby was named John Edward for his great-grandfather, the late John Kenny and Ed Welton.

Mrs. Vern Sageser accompanied Mrs. Van Robertson to the auction sale of antiques near Atkinson Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rees also attended the sale for a while.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Prewitt, Lori and Jerry visited at the Cliff Clemens' Wednesday evening.

Misses Elinore Porter and Kay Tracy of Chambers came out Saturday afternoon to stay overnight with Elinore's sister, Mrs. Clifford Clemens and family. Mrs. Clemens took the girls back to Chambers Sunday morning and later were dinner guests with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Porter.

Mrs. Elmer Oetter, Lana and Janeth visited at the William Riecks home in Chambers Sunday evening while Mr. Oetter attended a business meeting at the Lutheran church.

The Women's Society of Christian Service will meet March 3 at the home of Mrs. Emma Lindsey. Mrs. Joe Stoeker and Mrs. Dick Doolittle will serve on the lunch committee.

The Amelia Progressive club met Wednesday, Feb. 17 at the home of Mrs. Ralph Rees. Eight members and one visitor were present. Mrs. Rees gave the lesson on "More Meats for your Money." The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Vern Sageser. Mrs. Sageser and Mrs. Bernard Blackmore will give the lesson on "Shoes that Fit."

The Comet, which went on sale at Mercury-Comet dealerships March 17, combines economy with tasteful styling. Although it is two to three feet shorter than the standard size cars, the Comet has travel room for a family of six and their luggage. All Comets—the two and four-door sedans and the two and four door station wagons—are powered with a six cylinder engine and are available with either automatic or manual transmissions. The car's 114-inch wheelbase, longest in the Comet's field, gives driver and passengers an excellent ride.
