

O'Neill Eagles Win Holt Meet; Kilcoin Wins Two Events

Jerry Kilcoin is first to the tape in the 220 yd. dash. Kilcoin won both this event and the 100 yd. dash. Frontier photo and engraving.

Shoemaker, running for St. Mary's Cardinals, captures the 440 yd. dash at the Holt county track meet held in O'Neill Tuesday. Dennis Ickes, right, finished second in the event. Frontier photo and engraving.

The O'Neill Eagles ran, jumped and heaved their way to the Holt county track championship Tuesday in O'Neill as they more than doubled the score on second place St. Mary's Cardinals. The Eagles had 99 3/7 points—St. Mary's scored 44 6/7.

Third place Atkinson St. Joseph's tallied 20 3/7; Ewing had 16 3/7; Chambers was fifth with 15; Atkinson was sixth with 10 3/7 and tied with Stuart, also scoring 10 3/7. Page took last in the tournament on two second place finishes by Dennis Ickes.

Capturing nine first places in the fourteen events clinched the title for the Eagles and turned the table on the Cardinals, winners of last year's tournament.

Jerry Kilcoin proved to be the only man to take two events by winning both the 100 yd. and the 220 yd. dashes. Kilcoin also anchored the 880 yd. relay—one of the events that O'Neill won.

Other first place winners were Shoemaker for SMA in the 440 dash; Higgins for SMA in the discus; Bob Eby for O'Neill in the high jump; Dobias for Atkinson in the pole vault; Schaaf for O'Neill in the 120 high hurdles; Dexter for O'Neill in the 880 run; Tomlinson for O'Neill in 180 low hurdles; Dowler for O'Neill in the shot put; Brewster for Stuart in the mile; and Oetter for SMA in the broad jump.
