Robert Tams sr. of Norfolk spent the weekend with his family in Ewing. Miss Carolyn Tams and a classmate from the Norfolk junior college were overnight guests on Saturday. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tams were guests for the day at the home of the Tams family.

"Masters of Deceit" by J. Edgar Hoover was a book discussed at the men's council meeting held Monday evening at the United Presbyterian church. This book had been read by several of the members. The group also plan to present a copy of this book to the Ewing public library and the Ewing school library. Two other books, "The Life of John Noble" and "The Life of John Burch" will be given by Dr. William H. Ross, pastor to the Ewing public library. Twelve members were present. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jefferies celebrated their 48th wedding anniversary on Sunday. They were honored guests at a family gathering at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Lorraine Wright. A one o'clock dinner was served. The fourtieth anniversary cake, decorated in pink and white, topped with an ornamental "48" was made by their daughter, Mrs. Wilma Daniels. Visiting was the pastime of the informal afternoon hours. Pictures were taken of the honored guests and family groups.

Other guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Mark Muff of Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Cuddy and family of O'Neill, Mr. and Mrs. Don Drey and daughter, Kristi and Larry Drey of Omaha, Mrs. Wilma Daniels and family of Ewing and Dick Rutledge of Orchard.

Mr. and Mrs. Jefferies who have made their home in Ewing for several years have been life-long residents of the Clearwater and Ewing communities. Farming and ranching has been their occupation and they continue along this line of work on a smaller scale which includes turkey raising.

They have three daughters, Mrs. Daniels and Mrs. Wright of Ewing and Mrs. Mark Muff of Spencer. They have ten grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

Mrs. Lizzie Grim spent the weekend at Orchard visiting at the homes of Mrs. Lila Posephill and Mrs. Harry Butterfield.
