

Joan Soukup Weds
Gene Carr Saturday
At St. Patrick's Church

St. Patrick's Catholic church in O'Neill was the setting for the wedding of Miss Joan Soukup of O'Neill and Gene Carr of Amelia, Mo., Saturday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Soukup of O'Neill. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Carr, also of O'Neill. Leonard Havranek, cousin of the bride and Douglas Spittler, friend of the couple sang "On This Day" and "Ave Maria", accompanied by Sister Michael at the organ.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, appeared in a white gown of nylon and chamilly lace over Burmil satin. The portrait neckline of the bodice featured a narrow ruffle of tulle and was V shaped in back. Long fitted sleeves ended in bridal points. Wide panels of lace formed the front and back of the floor-length bouffant skirt of tulle, and deep lace shaped into points accented the sides.

A pearl trimmed crown held in place the bride's finger tip six illusion veil. She carried a large bouquet of carnations, centered with an orchid. She wore crystal ear-rings and necklace, a gift from the bridegroom.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Donald Marcellus, Atkinson, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Fred McCarr, Emmet, sister of the bride and Miss Sharon Carr, sister of the bridegroom. Their dresses were patterned in blue nylon over taffeta with white inserts in the skirt. They carried pink tinted carnations and wore crystal ear-rings, a gift from the bride.

Flower girls were Charlene McCarr, Emmet, and Donna Mae Marcellus, Atkinson, both nieces of the bride.

Ring bearers were Gary Soukup, nephew of the bride and Bruce Burge, cousin of the bridegroom. Their ring bearer pillows were made by the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Holcomb of Bayside, Calif.

Best man was his brother, Lyle James Carr of Bayside. Groomsmen were Frank Soukup and Daryl Carr, Amelia.

Paul Nielson of Omaha and Francis Havranek served as ushers.

Following the reception a dinner for 200 and a reception for 350 guests was given by the bride's parents. Mrs. Soukup was assisted with the dinner by Mesdames Bessie Vavak, Julia Fleming, Hugh Carr, John Peter, Joe Peter, and E. J. Hrnicek. The dinner was served by the Legion auxiliary with Mary Jurgensmeier in charge of the arrangements.

Mrs. John Peter, Mrs. Charles Kalina and Mary Fiala assisted with the serving arrangements for the reception.

Mrs. Bessie Vavak, assisted by Mrs. Joe Kalina and Mrs. Joe

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Carr

Peter, served the wedding and sheet cakes. Mrs. Clyde Burge of Amelia, aunt of the groom, poured coffee and Mrs. James Havranek Jr. served punch.

Mrs. Dorel Carr, cousin of the groom, was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Frank Soukup, Mrs. Leonard Vyhidal, Fremont and Mrs. Paul Nielson, Omaha, presided at the gift table.
