A Poem From Mrs. Eby...

TO DAD
Never had much style about him,
never cared for dress;
Sorta' spent his life a sewing seeds
of happiness; never caring Doing little things for others,
helping where he could;
Never making much pretention,
always doing good.
Home for him, was all for living,
filled his heart with pride,
And his doors were ever open,
latch string hung outside,
Folks who came were always welcome,
loved to have them round.
Wanted much of joy and laughter,
seemed to love the sound.
Had his cares and had his troubles,
same as all of us.
Figured that a part of living;
never made much fuss;
Made the best of all God gave him, as through life he went.
Ever toiling, giving, taking, kind
and provident.
Vain, the tribute we would pay
him, words cannot express.
What it meant to have him with us
and our thankfulness;
Sweet, the memory he has left us,
though our hearts are sad;
Great the blessing that was given,
just to call him DAD.
