

Rev. and Mrs. Ivan Christoffersen and their three children Arlan Bruce, 6, Clenda Carol three, and fifteen month old Dawn Eileen arrived the last of last week to make their home in the Assembly of God parsonage at 704 East Clay.

Rev. Christoffersen presided over the morning and evening worship services for the first time Sunday.

The Christoffersens have spent the past two years in the Evangelistic field in Kansas, Nebraska and Iowa. They conducted services here in February. A pastorate seemed desirable so that they might keep the children in school and maintain a home. Arlan Bruce will be in the first grade.

They also served a pastorate at Stockton, Kan., the five years previous to their Evangelistic work. This was Rev. Christoffersen's first pastorate. He was youth director for 22 churches in Kansas. He graduated from the Central Bible Institute and Seminary in Springfield, Mo., in 1934. He spent two years in naval communications during World War II.

Mrs. Christoffersen is also a graduate of the seminary at Springfield. She plays the organ and accordion and likes to sew.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Christoffersen like to sing. He grew up at Napiece and his wife, Roberta, came from Jewell, Kan.
