

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Langemeier are newcomers to O'Neill. They moved here in June from Wayne.

Mr. Langemeier is the territory manager for Nutrena Mills. His territory includes nine counties. Mary, his wife, will be one of the kindergarten teachers this year at the O'Neill public school.

The Langemeiers were married the same week they graduated from the University of Nebraska. Gerald was affiliated with Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity and Toastmasters International. Mary was a member of Alpha Omicron Pi sorority. She was an Ak-Sar-Ben countess in 1954.

Mr. Langemeier was assistant county agent at Wayne until he went into the army. He spent one and a half years in Germany. His wife taught in the school for children of American service personnel.

The couple returned to Wayne following his discharge from the service. He was then associated with Nutrena Mills. Mr. Langemeier's father is a cattle feeder near Wahoo. Mrs. Langemeier's father, Guy Ludi, and brothers, Tom and Derrel, are publishers of the Wahoo newspaper. Tom Ludi is also mayor of Wahoo.

Gerald is a member of the Masonic lodge and Mary is an Eastern Star. They are members of the Methodist church and the O'Neill Country club.

Five Automobile Mishaps Reported In O'Neill Area During Past Week

Five accidents were reported to authorities this week.

A two-car accident was reported at Ewing on Tuesday at 4:10 p.m. Cathryn M. Rotherham, 23, of Ewing driving a car owned by the Lundquist Chevrolet Co., of Neligh and Kathryn E. Cleveland of Orchard, collided at the intersection by the Methodist church.

Damage to the Rotherham car was estimated at $50.00 and $400.00 damage to the Cleveland car. Dean Cleveland, 14, fell into the shifting lever and was taken to Neligh for examination. No report on his condition has been made.

Ralph E. Brown of North Platte driving a 1950 Volkswagen went into a ditch and rolled over about one and one-half miles north of Atkinson on highway 11 around 5 p.m. Sunday. No one was injured but the car was a total loss. Eugene Hastreiter investigator both accidents.

Robert L. Gude reports a one car accident on highway 281 about fifteen miles north of O'Neill Saturday evening between 10 p.m. and midnight. Milton E. Ballard left the highway on the west side and rolled his car. Patrolman Gude arrived on the scene at 12:20 Sunday morning. Ballard was taken to St. Anthony's hospital and released the next day. The car was a complete loss.

Two accidents in O'Neill were reported by Bob White. Eldon White of O'Neill and Theodore B. McNul of Burlington, Ia., were in collision on Douglas street between 7th and 8th at 12:22 a.m. July 24. Considerable damage was done to both cars.

July 23 Dale Curran struck the street sweeper on Douglas between Third and Fourth streets. Marcelus Schauf was operator of the machine. Considerable damage was reported to the Curran car.

Kennedy Rites Held Wednesday At Page Church

PAGE—Funeral services for Warren Kennedy were held Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the Methodist church at Page with Rev. Robert Linder officiating. Burial was in the Page cemetery.

Pallbearers were John Allen of Grand Island, Frank and Warren Cronk, Charlie Wiseman, Robert Wood and Donald Nissen.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Stauffer sang "The Old Rugged Cross," and "Beyond The Sunset," with Mrs. Merwyn French jr., at the organ.

Warren Wayne, son of Harley and Veva Henderson Kennedy, was born at Page, January 19, 1924. He was a graduate of the Page high school.

He was married to Miss Phyllis Louden of Shenandoah, Ia. They had one daughter, Sherry.

He was united in marriage to Frances Rayburn of Page April 23, 1948. They have one daughter, Scarlett.

Mr. Kennedy was employed as a car salesman at Harvey, Ill., a suburb of Chicago for the past ten years.

Survivors are his wife, Frances; two daughters, Sherry of Las Vegas, Nev., and Scarlett at home; parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Kennedy of Page; two brothers, Keith and Rodney of Page and two sisters, Mrs. Juellen

Mrs. E. McIntosh Services Held At Page Church

PAGE—Funeral services were held Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the Wesleyan Methodist church for Mrs. Ernest McIntosh of Albion. Rev. Mina Smith, pastor, officiated. Burial was made in the Page cemetery.

Pall bearers were Donald and Robert Nissen, Harold and Ben Asher, Roy Hansen and William Sorenson.

Sharon Elsberty and Donna Smith sang "I Won't Have To Cross Jordan Alone," "Going Down The Valley," and "Rock of Ages." Aletha Rutherford accompanied them at the piano.

Survivors include: daughter, Daisy Cronk Wilson, born at the family home northeast of Page April 29, 1913. She was a 1931 graduate of the Page high school.

She was united in marriage to Ernest McIntosh July 18, 1932, at Neligh. To this union two children were born.

The McIntoshes lived in the Albion vicinity most of their married life.

Mildred had been seriously ill for more than a year and died of cancer following a week's hospitalization at St. Anthony's hospital July 23.

Survivors include: Husband—Ernest; one son—Dale 5, both of Albion; her father and two sisters—Mrs. George (Lily) Clasey and Mrs. John (Frances) Sorenson, all of Page and one brother—Floyd Wilson of O'Neill.

She was preceded in death by her mother, September 28, 1959, and a daughter died in infancy.

Lynch Services For Mrs. Harris

LYNCH—Mrs. Florence Rose Harris, 55, died July 21 at Hawthorne, Calif. She had been visiting there with her daughter and family.

Funeral services were held Monday at 10 a.m. at the First Methodist church with Rev. M. H. Budensiek of Spencer officiating. Burial was in the Union cemetery at Spencer with the Jones Funeral home in charge.

Loren Pinkerman was soloist Mrs. Carl Weeder was accompanist.

Pallbearers were: Harry Mulhair, Edward Hoffman, Lewis Nelson, Richard Ducker, Carl Weeder and Kenneth McMeen.

The late Mrs. Harris was born February 9, 1905 at Spencer a daughter of Ole P. and Emma Nelson Froseth. She spent most of her life in the community. She was a former teacher in the Lynch public school.

Survivors include: Son—Gene R. of Rapid City, S. D.; daughters—Mrs. Dean (Bonnie) Oberle of Sioux Falls, S. D., and Mrs. Stanley (Lorene) Pickering of Englewood, Calif., and five grandchildren. Also a brother—Hilbert Froseth of Corona, Calif.

Samples Funeral Held July 13 In Atkinson

ATKINSON—Funeral services were held Wednesday, July 13, at nine o'clock at St. Joseph's Catholic church at Atkinson for Mrs. Frank Samples, Rev. R. J. Parr officiated at the requiem mass. Burial was made in St. Joseph's cemetery.

A rosary was recited Tuesday evening at 8:00 at the Seger Funeral home.

Pallbearers were Wallace O'Connell, Joseph Judge, John Osborne, Tom Malloy, Tom Welsh and Herman McDaniels.

Julia Rose, daughter of William and Julia Kane Corrigan, was born July 1, 1885 at Atkinson where she grew to womanhood and received her education. Julia taught in the rural schools near Taylor where she also filed on a homestead.

She was united in marriage with Frank Samples June 23, 1920 at Emmet and they made their home on a farm 2½ miles southeast of Atkinson. Mr. Samples was a World War I veteran.

Following the death of her husband in 1928 she moved to the Corrigan home place until she retired to Atkinson in 1945.

Failing health influenced her decision to make her home with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Corrigan at Atkinson for several years prior to her death, July 18 at Atkinson Memorial hospital.

One brother, Pat Corrigan of Atkinson is her sole survivor. Four sisters, Kathryn Corrigan, Mrs. Sarah Parkins and two infant sisters and a brother, Cornelius, preceded her in death, also a half brother, Edward Mullen and a half-sister, Mrs. Mary Mullen Bathke.

Mrs. Samples was a member of Catholic Daughter Court St. Michael of O'Neill.

Carl M. Nygren Funeral Wednesday At Bristow Church

BRISTOW—Funeral services for Carl M. Nygren, 75, a farmer living four miles north of Bristow, were conducted Wednesday at 10:30 a.m. at the Trinity Lutheran church. Rev. Orville Olson officiated. Interment was in the Trinity Lutheran cemetery under the direction of the Jones Funeral home of Spencer.

Mr. Nygren died Sunday in Sacred Heart hospital at Lynch.

Pallbearers were: Wallace Fredrickson, Vernon Johnson, Marvin Peterson, Lester Pearson, Morris Hagberg and Algot Sandberg.

The late Carl M. Nygren was born December 12, 1884 at Oakland, a son of Andrew and Mattilda Nygren. He came to Boyd county with his parents as child.

On April 7, 1915 he was united in marriage to Miss Minnie Lundberg and they became the parents of two sons. Mr. Nygren had been a farmer all his life.

Survivors include: Wife, Minnie; sons—Laurence of Bristow and Vincent of San Francisco, Calif.; grandson Mike of San Francisco, Calif.

Also brothers—Arthur of Salem, Ore., and Arthur of Los Angeles, Calif., and sisters—Mrs. Minnie Tobey and Mrs. Ruth Shelton, both of Los Angeles.

Janette Noffke Enters Colorado Sisters Order

Janette Noffke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Noffke of Ewing, was received into the Order of Saint Francis of Penance and Christian Charity at a 10 a.m. ceremony Saturday at Guardian Angel church at Denver, Colo. Her name in religion is Sister Sharon Marie.

Relatives and friends attending the service were: Mrs. Frank Noffke and son, Larry, Mrs. Francis Heumesser, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bartak, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Funk and family, all of Ewing, Mrs. Harold Grazert and Joetta of Creighton, Mr. and Mrs. James Rotherham of Fort Collins, Colo., Jack Bartak and Janet Meuller of Denver, Colo.

1,000 Mile Chadron-Chicago Horse Race Re-enacted In O'Neill Friday

Chadron horsemen will be in O'Neill Friday morning re-enacting the famous 1,000 mile horse race run in 1893 from Chadron to Chicago.

The race is run in comfort this time, however, as the horsemen will only ride their horses through the towns along the route. Trucks will carry the horses and riders between towns.

According to Howard Manson, Chamber of Commerce secretary, the men will stop in O'Neill for dinner after they ride through town.

Manson said that he hoped a good crowd will be on hand to welcome the men.

They will also ride through Stuart, Atkinson and Inman during the day.

Joseph A. Diez Funeral at Verdigre

VERDIGRE—Funeral services were held Tuesday, July 26 at the ZCJ Hall at Verdigre at 2 p.m. for Joseph A. Diez, 36, who died July 22 at the Antelope Memorial hospital at Neligh following an eight day illness.

Rev. David T. Gustafson, pastor of the Verdigre and Creighton Methodist churches, was in charge of the service. Burial was made in Riverside cemetery.

Mr. Diez is a native of Knox county, having lived on their farm 14 miles west of Verdigre over three quarters of a century.

Mr. Diez is survived by his wife, one son, Harold of Verdigre and one daughter, Mrs. Nathan Highes, of Long Mont, Colo.

County Nets $192.10 From Slot Machines

A total of $192.10 was removed from the three slot machines confiscated in the raid on the Ewing American Legion club in June. The money was turned over to Ed Hancock, Holt County treasurer, by Sheriff Leo Tomjack Wednesday afternoon.

Eighty-four dollars and ten cents was the amount found in the 5c and 10c machines and $108 was taken from the 15c machine. The money will go into the school fund.

Elected President

Mrs. Louis Siebert of Atkinson was elected vice president of the Holt County Extension Council at a recent council meeting. She replaces Mrs. Joe Rocke who moved to Scottsbluff. Mrs. Fred Roberts of Atkinson, Mrs. Dale Stauffer of Page and Mrs. G. H. Grimes of Chambers were chosen as delegates to the state council meeting in McCook September 20, 21 and 22. Mrs. Gene Zimmerman of Ewing was named first alternate. Mrs. J. L. Pruden of Ewing and Mrs. Catherine Indra will also attend.

AT THE COURTHOUSE

COUNTY COURT—

State vs. Gene R. Alloway of Burwell, night speeding, fined $10 and $4 costs; officer—R. L. Gude, July 21.

State vs. Henry L. Nohava of Omaha, night speeding, fined $15 and $4 costs; officer—E. M. Hastreiter, July 25.

State vs. Billy G. Summerlin of Casper, Wyo., 1. overweight on interior group of 4 axles 2. overweight on tandem axle, fined 1. $80 2. $60 and $4 costs; officer—Clifford L. Kizzire, July 25.

State vs. Catherine O'Shea of San Francisco, Calif., night speeding, fined $10 and $4 costs; officer—E. M. Hastreiter, July 25.

State vs. Michael Spitznberger of O'Neill, speeding in city limits, fined $10 and $4 costs; officer—Robert J. White, July 25.

State vs. Michael Spitznberger of O'Neill, reckless driving, suspension of license for 30 days, sheriff's fee $1 and $4 costs; H. D. Gildersleeve, Nov. 23, 1959.

State vs. Jerry L. Smith of O'Neill, reckless driving, fined $25 and $4 costs; officer—E. M. Hastreiter, July 25.

State vs. Vincent Arthur Kelley of Sioux City, Ia., day speeding, fined $25 and $4 costs; officer—R. L. Gude, July 26.

State vs. Eva J. Butterfield of O'Neill, no driver's license, fined $5 and $4 costs; officer—E. M. Hastreiter, July 26.

State vs. Edward T. Wall of Valentine, no driver's license, fined $5 and $4 costs; officer—E. M. Hastreiter, July 26.

State vs. Bernard Kier of Yankton, S. D., no reciprocity, fined $10 and $4 costs; officer—Clifford L. Kizzire, July 27.

State vs. Carl L. Kamphaus of O'Neill, night speeding, fined $25 and $4 costs; officer—R. L. Gude, July 27.

MARRIAGE LICENSE

Kenneth Loyd Reiner, 21, Zap, N. D. and Miss Darlene Verna Harley, 19, Chambers, July 23.

Funeral at Verdigre For Mrs. Antonia Hirsch

VERDIGRE—Funeral services were held Friday, July 22 at the ZCJ Hall in Verdigre for Mrs. Antonia Hirsch, 83 year old Knox county pioneer who died Tuesday, July 19 at a Creighton Rest Home.

Pull Your Local Selling Program TOGETHER!

Wise businessmen know it pays to advertise! And when it comes to advertising the NEW ADVERTISING MAT SERVICE available FREE through The Frontier, offers you top agency level art, layout, copy, merchandising ideas!

Start today to pull your local sales program together! Make your advertising pay dividends in increased traffic, increased sales!

Use our ADVERTISING MAT SERVICE! You will get results with professional art eye-catching layouts, selling copy!

THE FRONTIER