

Royal News

By Mrs. R. J. Hering

Church to Observe Anniversary

Announcement was made at the church service in Brunswick Sunday by Rev. Father Kenny that St. Ignatius church in Brunswick will observe its fiftieth anniversary Tuesday, Sept. 20. A dinner will be held. It is expected that a number of former pastors will be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Taylor and children of Albion and Mr. and Mrs. Hans Hofer and family were Niobrara visitors Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Dodds and Gayland Holm were Niobrara visitors Sunday.

Mrs. H. C. Clausen, Oakland City, Ind., was a weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Sawyer. Mrs. Clausen's husband was a former pastor at Albion and Tilden.

L. H. Sawyer will present one of his bands at the fair in Ne-ling Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Rundquist and Nolan left Sunday morning on a fishing trip into Minnesota at West Lake, northwest of Minneapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Nelson and three children of Bennington were Tuesday guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Rundquist. Mr. Nelson, a former superintendent here.

Dodd's Oil Company held their grand opening Saturday. The station, located on Highway 20, has been completely remodeled. Approximately 2,500 gallons of gas were sold during the day. Treats to the customers and children included 1,000 bottles of pop and an equal number of balloons and suckers.

Mrs. Clarence Weber and Mrs. R. J. Hering called at the Albert Johnson and G. W. Kirk homes in Plainview Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Burch and three children of Palo Alto, Calif., came Monday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Burch and his sisters, Mrs. Roy Frahm, Mrs. Darrell Anson of Royal and Mrs. Laurence Fryer of Norfolk. Mr. Burch, a captain in the Palo Alto Fire Department, has a vacation of three weeks.

William Rielke of Snider, a former resident here, sold his house located across the street from the pump house, to Mr. Louis Waterman who has been living in Rundquist's Apartments. Mr. Waterman expects to make improvements by enclosing the front porch and adding a bathroom. Mr. Rielke bought a home in Snider.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hagdorn Sunday included Mr. and Mrs. Leon Jackson, Marcia and Jim of Memphis; Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Rehberg and children of O'Neill, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Miller and Mrs. Hazel Rehberg.

Mrs. Rehberg, who had been in Royal and vicinity the past four months left Monday for Lincoln.

Mrs. Mabel Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Bartsch, Mrs. Fremont Curtis and Mrs. Jan Curtis attended the funeral of Bert Moser at Creighton Wednesday.

WCSO MEETS

Mrs. James Peterson was hostess to the Royal WCSO Wednesday with 22 present. Mrs. Oscar Bartsch presented the lesson on "Children". Mrs. Perry Lichty and Mrs. Gus Erickson read from the Scriptures. New members are Mrs. Duane Lenz of Orchard and Mrs. Hazel Makemson.

Mrs. Lulu Eyer Sessions of Santa Monica, Calif., mother of Kenneth Eyer, and grandmother of the well-known movie star, Richard Eyer, is here visiting relatives and friends in Royal and Orchard. She plans to remain a month.

Card Shower

A card shower is requested for Lenard Rabbass, long time resident of Royal community and a graduate of the local high school in the class of 1934. Lenard was seriously injured a number of weeks ago and is still unable to work. Hearing from friends will make the days less tiresome. His address is: Lenard Rabbass, Rosewood St. 27, Mattapan 26, Mass.

Connie Beutler went to Page Friday night to visit her friend, Linda Wood.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Beutler and Danny were Pickstown visitors Sunday.

Terry Storm will attend a pre-school teachers meeting in La Platte this week. He will teach in the grades and live in Springfield.

Gary Storm will attend Junior College in Norfolk.

Mrs. Warren Holm will teach in District 84, the school on Highway 14 where she substituted last year for Mrs. Cal Mahood of Ne-ling.

Mrs. Dale Weber will return to the school in District 85 where she was employed the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Holm and Gayland and Mrs. Bill Mittels and family spent Sunday afternoon at Niobrara.

Mrs. Mabel Meyer visited the first of the week with her sister, Mrs. Bert Moser of Creighton.

Deloit News

By Mrs. H. Reimer

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Harpster and sons were O'Neill shoppers Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Tomjack and Florence Butler of Ewing had supper in Clearwater Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Tomjack returned Wednesday evening from their trip to Salt Lake City and Dead Wood, S. D. Mrs. Tomjack has sisters in both cities.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Hupp, Mrs. Joe Hupp and Rose Hupp of Norfolk attended the funeral for Stanley Bartak Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Schindler of Omaha were there also.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reimer were Sioux City visitors Wednesday.

Several families attended the Wheeler Co. fair at Bartlett last weekend.

We received half an inch of very welcome rain Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Larson returned Wednesday evening from a trip through the Black Hills. They attended the "Passion Play" at Spearfish, S. D. Sunday evening.

Don Larson and two friends from O'Neill called at the Leonard Larson home Friday evening.

A number from here enjoyed Clearwater's jubilee on Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. Mary Marish of Spalding is spending a few days at the home of her sister, Mrs. Minnie Miller.

Mrs. Watson McDonald made a trip to the doctor at Tilden last week.

Mrs. Mary Marish and Mrs. Minnie Miller spent Sunday evening at the Watson McDonald home.

James and Robert Miller spent a few days last week in Ozarks. The Howard Temples attended a family picnic in Kansas Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harpster visited Anita Lee and family in Ewing Sunday.

Most of the hay is up and the third cutting of Alfalfa is ready to be put up.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Bartak and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sehi returned from their fishing trip to Canada

Saturday evening. They reported very good fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard McDonald and family spent Sunday at Watson McDonalds.

Virginia McDonald accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Moon and Gary of Ne-ling to Denver for a week's vacation with relatives.

Miss Anita Lee and Virtus accompanied Kenneth to his home in Kansas for an indefinite stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Larson spent Sunday at Henry Reimer's.

Mrs. Henry Reimer, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Larson and Linda, Mrs. Elmer Pahl and Mary of Oakland and Mrs. Don Starr and Elizabeth of West Point, spent Monday at the Larson home in Ewing. It was Mr. Larson's birthday.

Amelia News

By Miss Florence Lindsey

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierce were visiting at Tom Doolittles Monday evening.

Don Adams returned Thursday from the town of the southern states. He accompanied a group of teachers. Mrs. Floyd Adams and Mrs. Blake Ott met him in Norfolk Thursday. While he was in Florida he sent a Mango fruit to his parents.

Mrs. Adams shared it with several of us Amelia folks. We thought it very delicious.

Mr. and Mrs. Orland Fryrear were Spencer callers Thursday.

Almost everyone in the community attended the Chambers fair last week. The evenings were very cold, and some folks froze out and came home early.

Mrs. Delia Ernst visited at Mrs. Maude Forbes Wednesday afternoon.

Farewell Party
Rev. and Mrs. Ivan Turner were honored with a farewell party Wednesday by the members and friends of the Free Methodist church. Rev. Turner has been resident pastor of the Ewing Free Methodist church and also served the Bethany church near Amelia. He will move to the Ringold, parish soon.

Robert Burge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Burge has been having a seizure of blood poison in his hand. He stayed with his aunt Mrs. Hugh Carr in O'Neill several days to receive medical attention everyday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Kaiser, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Kaiser, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kaiser, Tommie and Jerry, all of Hardie, Mont., returned to their home Saturday after being here to attend funeral services for their father, Richard Kaiser who died Tuesday, Aug. 16.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fullerton observed their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary recently. A number of friends and relatives gathered Sunday at their home for a dinner. Those present were their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Skala and Mr. and Mrs. L. Skala, all of Fremont, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Doolittle and family, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Niham, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fullerton, Joan and Beth, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Doolittle, Mrs. Gene Thompson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Everet and Harley, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Gilman and Denny Doolittle. Mrs. Marvin Doolittle baked and decorated a lovely three tier cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd McIntosh and Robert of Tekamah were Thursday and Friday visitors with their cousin, Mrs. Lew Backhaus and Mr. Backhaus.

Ruthie Smith accompanied her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Coolidge of Chambers to Wyoming to visit her sister, Mrs. Dale (Hazel) Radford and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Smith of North Platte have been visiting at the home of his brother, Hamp Smith. Mrs. Leslie Smith and Mrs. Hamp Smith drove to North Platte Friday and on their return their nephew, Billie Smith returned with them.

Mrs. Oscar Peterson enjoyed a visit from three of her sisters over Tuesday night of last week. They were Mrs. Mary Coder of Ontario, Ore., Mrs. Agnes Mapel and Mrs. Otto Dickman, both of Sargeant.

Timmy Jean Doolittle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Doolittle, was baptized Sunday morning by Rev. Charles Cox, Methodist pastor at Amelia.

Duane Sammons left Monday for his home at Kimberly, Ida., after spending the summer here with his grandmother, Mrs. Bertha Sammons. He helped in the hayfield at Ed Jungmans.

Mr. and Mrs. Orland Fryrear spent Sunday evening at Vernon Berrys.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Widman and Marcia and Bowers Sugeser and Sandra visited at Mrs. Fancher's at Ainsworth Sunday. Mrs. Bowers Sugeser returned to Amelia with them and they expect to leave for their home at Manhattan, Kan. Tuesday.

Mrs. E. Andersen went to Lincoln Sunday to attend a meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service as a delegate from Amelia. She accompanied Rev. and Mrs. Charles Gates of Atkinson.

Mrs. Ernest Johnson is in charge of the switchboard during her absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jungman, parents of Mrs. Milton Clemens of Amelia, will observe their fiftieth wedding anniversary with open house from 2 to 5 Sunday, Aug. 28 at the home of their son Leonard Jungman in Atkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Weiland and family of Holdrege visited from Thursday to Sunday at the Ernest Johnson home. On Sunday the two families were sight-seeing at Fort Randall. The Weiland's son Richard, who had spent the summer here with the Johnson's returned with them Sunday evening.

Emmett Carr and Elwin Benson of Santa Monica, Calif., were visiting Art Waldman in Amelia Saturday.

Lloyd Waldo was one of the trophy winners in the golf tournament in O'Neill Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Hatch left Sunday evening for their home in Fort Collins, Colo., after a few days visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Peterson.

Rev. Ernest Chambers and family are now located in the Free Methodist parsonage south of Amelia.

Mrs. Harold Clausen, Debra, Linda and Harold Lynn left Tuesday for their new home in Denver, Colo. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Gilman, took them to Grand Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Peterson entertained at a cook-out supper Saturday evening. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Art Doolittle and Dale, Sandra and Linda Tesch, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Adair, Jerry and Diane, Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Hatch and Mr. and Mrs. Gus Robertson.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Waldo, Mrs. Edna Davis and John Zinko attended the Bartlett fair Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnston, Mark and Kay of Schueller and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Cobb and children of Fremont were Saturday and Sunday visitors at Oscar Peterson's.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Svatos and girls, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Svatos and David, Mike and Carl Kamphaus of O'Neill were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Svatos. Francis Kamphaus had been visiting at the Svatos' during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Doolittle and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bilstien and Dick and Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Ballagh and family spent Sunday at the Bus Embodie home in Atkinson.

Mrs. Stella Sparks and Lonnie, and Mrs. Bertie Adair visited at the home of Mrs. Elsie Doolittle at Stuart and attended the car races there that evening.

A new furnace has been installed at the Amelia schoolhouse the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Coolidge were O'Neill callers Saturday and visited at the Calvin Coolidges while there.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rees took their grandchildren, Judi and John Taylor, to Denver, Colo., Tuesday enroute to their new home at Flagstaff, Ariz. They will visit their son, Bob Rees and family at Denver over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Waldo and family visited this week in Denver, Colo., with Mrs. Waldo's mother, Mrs. Frank Seares and family, and in Cheyenne, Wyo., with Lloyd's brother, Harold Waldo and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hiatt, Paul and Gene visited at the Weston Whitner home in O'Neill Sunday.

Kathy and Joyce Doolittle visited Judi Taylor Monday afternoon as Judi was leaving Tuesday for her home at Flagstaff, Ariz.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Kenny of Atkinson visited the Chester Kaiser family of Harding, Mont. at Hank Whitcomb's Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Blake, Roseanne and Lorn were Sunday evening supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Fullerton.

Joan Fullerton, who attends a beauty school in Lincoln spent Saturday night with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fullerton and Beth.

The Lynch Fire Department was called to the Edward Carson farm Tuesday afternoon to help put out a prairie fire in a hay meadow. The fire burned only two or three acres before it was put out.

Nancy Kotas from Colorado arrived Wednesday morning to spend two weeks with friends.

Al Brady returned from Phoenix, Ariz., last Saturday after spending some time with his mother and family.

Mrs. Richard Christensen, Donna and Debbie called at the Glen Rihane home Tuesday afternoon.

The Lynch Public School will open Tuesday, September 6 with a complete staff.

Mary Jo Stenger was dismissed from the Sacred Heart hospital Monday afternoon after receiving burns on her feet last Wednesday night when a coffee pot broke at her home in Atkinson.

Mrs. Stella Sparks and Lonnie, and Mrs. Bertie Adair visited at the home of Mrs. Elsie Doolittle at Stuart and attended the car races there that evening.

A new furnace has been installed at the Amelia schoolhouse the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Coolidge were O'Neill callers Saturday and visited at the Calvin Coolidges while there.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rees took their grandchildren, Judi and John Taylor, to Denver, Colo., Tuesday enroute to their new home at Flagstaff, Ariz. They will visit their son, Bob Rees and family at Denver over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Waldo and family visited this week in Denver, Colo., with Mrs. Waldo's mother, Mrs. Frank Seares and family, and in Cheyenne, Wyo., with Lloyd's brother, Harold Waldo and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hiatt, Paul and Gene visited at the Weston Whitner home in O'Neill Sunday.

Kathy and Joyce Doolittle visited Judi Taylor Monday afternoon as Judi was leaving Tuesday for her home at Flagstaff, Ariz.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Kenny of Atkinson visited the Chester Kaiser family of Harding, Mont. at Hank Whitcomb's Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Blake, Roseanne and Lorn were Sunday evening supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Fullerton.

Joan Fullerton, who attends a beauty school in Lincoln spent Saturday night with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fullerton and Beth.

The Lynch Fire Department was called to the Edward Carson farm Tuesday afternoon to help put out a prairie fire in a hay meadow. The fire burned only two or three acres before it was put out.

Nancy Kotas from Colorado arrived Wednesday morning to spend two weeks with friends.

Al Brady returned from Phoenix, Ariz., last Saturday after spending some time with his mother and family.

Mrs. Richard Christensen, Donna and Debbie called at the Glen Rihane home Tuesday afternoon.

The Lynch Public School will open Tuesday, September 6 with a complete staff.

Mary Jo Stenger was dismissed from the Sacred Heart hospital Monday afternoon after receiving burns on her feet last Wednesday night when a coffee pot broke at her home in Atkinson.

Mrs. Stella Sparks and Lonnie, and Mrs. Bertie Adair visited at the home of Mrs. Elsie Doolittle at Stuart and attended the car races there that evening.

A new furnace has been installed at the Amelia schoolhouse the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Coolidge were O'Neill callers Saturday and visited at the Calvin Coolidges while there.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rees took their grandchildren, Judi and John Taylor, to Denver, Colo., Tuesday enroute to their new home at Flagstaff, Ariz. They will visit their son, Bob Rees and family at Denver over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Waldo and family visited this week in Denver, Colo., with Mrs. Waldo's mother, Mrs. Frank Seares and family, and in Cheyenne, Wyo., with Lloyd's brother, Harold Waldo and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hiatt, Paul and Gene visited at the Weston Whitner home in O'Neill Sunday.

Kathy and Joyce Doolittle visited Judi Taylor Monday afternoon as Judi was leaving Tuesday for her home at Flagstaff, Ariz.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Kenny of Atkinson visited the Chester Kaiser family of Harding, Mont. at Hank Whitcomb's Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Blake, Roseanne and Lorn were Sunday evening supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Fullerton.

Joan Fullerton, who attends a beauty school in Lincoln spent Saturday night with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fullerton and Beth.

The Lynch Fire Department was called to the Edward Carson farm Tuesday afternoon to help put out a prairie fire in a hay meadow. The fire burned only two or three acres before it was put out.

Nancy Kotas from Colorado arrived Wednesday morning to spend two weeks with friends.

Al Brady returned from Phoenix, Ariz., last Saturday after spending some time with his mother and family.

Mrs. Richard Christensen, Donna and Debbie called at the Glen Rihane home Tuesday afternoon.

The Lynch Public School will open Tuesday, September 6 with a complete staff.

Mary Jo Stenger was dismissed from the Sacred Heart hospital Monday afternoon after receiving burns on her feet last Wednesday night when a coffee pot broke at her home in Atkinson.

Mrs. Stella Sparks and Lonnie, and Mrs. Bertie Adair visited at the home of Mrs. Elsie Doolittle at Stuart and attended the car races there that evening.

A new furnace has been installed at the Amelia schoolhouse the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Coolidge were O'Neill callers Saturday and visited at the Calvin Coolidges while there.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rees took their grandchildren, Judi and John Taylor, to Denver, Colo., Tuesday enroute to their new home at Flagstaff, Ariz. They will visit their son, Bob Rees and family at Denver over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Waldo and family visited this week in Denver, Colo., with Mrs. Waldo's mother, Mrs. Frank Seares and family, and in Cheyenne, Wyo., with Lloyd's brother, Harold Waldo and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hiatt, Paul and Gene visited at the Weston Whitner home in O'Neill Sunday.

Kathy and Joyce Doolittle visited Judi Taylor Monday afternoon as Judi was leaving Tuesday for her home at Flagstaff, Ariz.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Kenny of Atkinson visited the Chester Kaiser family of Harding, Mont. at Hank Whitcomb's Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Blake, Roseanne and Lorn were Sunday evening supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Fullerton.

Joan Fullerton, who attends a beauty school in Lincoln spent Saturday night with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fullerton and Beth.

The Lynch Fire Department was called to the Edward Carson farm Tuesday afternoon to help put out a prairie fire in a hay meadow. The fire burned only two or three acres before it was put out.

Nancy Kotas from Colorado arrived Wednesday morning to spend two weeks with friends.

Al Brady returned from Phoenix, Ariz., last Saturday after spending some time with his mother and family.

Mrs. Richard Christensen, Donna and Debbie called at the Glen Rihane home Tuesday afternoon.

The Lynch Public School will open Tuesday, September 6 with a complete staff.

Mary Jo Stenger was dismissed from the Sacred Heart hospital Monday afternoon after receiving burns on her feet last Wednesday night when a coffee pot broke at her home in Atkinson.

Mrs. Stella Sparks and Lonnie, and Mrs. Bertie Adair visited at the home of Mrs. Elsie Doolittle at Stuart and attended the car races there that evening.

A new furnace has been installed at the Amelia schoolhouse the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Coolidge were O'Neill callers Saturday and visited at the Calvin Coolidges while there.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rees took their grandchildren, Judi and John Taylor, to Denver, Colo., Tuesday enroute to their new home at Flagstaff, Ariz. They will visit their son, Bob Rees and family at Denver over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Waldo and family visited this week in Denver, Colo., with Mrs. Waldo's mother, Mrs. Frank Seares and family, and in Cheyenne, Wyo., with Lloyd's brother, Harold Waldo and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hiatt, Paul and Gene visited at the Weston Whitner home in O'Neill Sunday.

Kathy and Joyce Doolittle visited Judi Taylor Monday afternoon as Judi was leaving Tuesday for her home at Flagstaff, Ariz.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Kenny of Atkinson visited the Chester Kaiser family of Harding, Mont. at Hank Whitcomb's Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Blake, Roseanne and Lorn were Sunday evening supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Fullerton.

Joan Fullerton, who attends a beauty school in Lincoln spent Saturday night with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fullerton and Beth.

The Lynch Fire Department was called to the Edward Carson farm Tuesday afternoon to help put out a prairie fire in a hay meadow. The fire burned only two or three acres before it was put out.

Nancy Kotas from Colorado arrived Wednesday morning to spend two weeks with friends.

Al Brady returned from Phoenix, Ariz., last Saturday after spending some time with his mother and family.

Mrs. Richard Christensen, Donna and Debbie called at the Glen Rihane home Tuesday afternoon.

The Lynch Public School will open Tuesday, September 6 with a complete staff.

Mary Jo Stenger was dismissed from the Sacred Heart hospital Monday afternoon after receiving burns on her feet last Wednesday night when a coffee pot broke at her home in Atkinson.

Mrs. Stella Sparks and Lonnie, and Mrs. Bertie Adair visited at the home of Mrs. Elsie Doolittle at Stuart and attended the car races there that evening.

A new furnace has been installed at the Amelia schoolhouse the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Coolidge were O'Neill callers Saturday and visited at the Calvin Coolidges while there.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rees took their grandchildren, Judi and John Taylor, to Denver, Colo., Tuesday enroute to their new home at Flagstaff, Ariz. They will visit their son, Bob Rees and family at Denver over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Waldo and family visited this week in Denver, Colo., with Mrs. Waldo's mother, Mrs. Frank Seares and family, and in Cheyenne, Wyo., with Lloyd's brother, Harold Waldo and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hiatt, Paul and Gene visited at the Weston Whitner home in O'Neill Sunday.

Kathy and Joyce Doolittle visited Judi Taylor Monday afternoon as Judi was leaving Tuesday for her home at Flagstaff, Ariz.

Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Kenny of Atkinson visited the Chester Kaiser family of Harding, Mont. at Hank Whitcomb's Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Blake, Roseanne and Lorn were Sunday evening supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Fullerton.

Joan Fullerton, who attends a beauty school in Lincoln spent Saturday