

THE WEATHER
	HI LO PREC
Thursday 25	62 37 21
Friday 26	77 4 11
Saturday 27	83 66 89
Sunday 28	72 36 1.83
Monday 29	73 50
Tuesday 30	93 66
Wednesday 31	95 65

NAME TOP CONSERVATIONISTS

Nebr. State Fair Opens Saturday; Holt 4-H Clubs Plan to Exhibit

About fifty exhibits including everything from clothing to grass root display is being sent to the state fair by 4-H boys and girls from Holt county.

Participating in the state fair activities in Lincoln will be a girls vocal group from the Celia 4-H club of Atkinson. The girls will sing at 10 a.m. Saturday at the University high school in Lincoln. Also participating in activities on Saturday will be three judging teams, dairy, livestock and weeds and grass.

Sunday afternoon will find two food demonstrations being given. Faye Scheer of Ewing will demonstrate making bread. Karen Farrier and Judy Beed of Chambers will show how to make a picnic table. All demonstrations are given in the 4-H building on the State Fair grounds.

Two home economic judging teams, one each in foods and clothing will take part in those contests on Monday.

Three girls, Faye Scheer, of Ewing, Kathryn Thiele of DeWitt and Karen Farrier of Chambers will take part in the State Fair style show Wednesday. The public is invited to attend the show which will be held in the arena of the 4-H building at 3 p.m.

Gary Fick of Inman will take part in the tractor driving contest at the Agriculture College, Wednesday, Sept. 7.

In addition to the exhibits, about thirty-five boys and girls will actively participate in the fair.

The 4-H'ers will be accompanied by leaders and parents. All will be invited to attend the grandstand performance Saturday evening. Gold's of Lincoln will hold their annual party for them Monday evening at the Cornhusker Hotel.

Rainfall has been reported in various corners of the vicinity as follows: Joe Beelert at Page, four inches; Gerald Snyder, Star, three and one-half inches; Arthur Hibbs, Star, two and one-half inches; William Derickson, Star, three inches; Neil Linquist, two and one-half inches; Dan Sholes, Inman, five inches Saturday. Rolfie Miller reported five and one-half inches of rain at their son-in-law and daughters, the Kruses at Winnetoon. Page families reported about 4 inches everywhere Saturday with Sunday morning's rainfall additional.

Librarian Injured In Fall Monday

Miss Bernadette Brennan injured her elbow Monday evening when she fell in front of the J. M. McDonald store. She was taken to St. Anthony's hospital for treatment.

The Gratton Township Library will be closed until further notice. Miss Brennan is the librarian.

Houtz Sentenced To Reformatory For Forgery

Floyd M. Houtz was given a one-year term in the Men's Reformatory at Lincoln for forgery in District court here Monday by Judge D. R. Mounts. This term will be served concurrently with a year's sentence he received for auto theft.

The forgery complaint was filed August 16 by Holt county attorney, William W. Griffin. He was charged with forging the name of Bob McDaniels to a check for $588.28 issued to Bob McDaniels by the Neligh Livestock Comm. Co., on the National Bank of Neligh dated June 17.

Airport Bid Let To Kugler-Ihle; Missouri Valley

The Missouri Valley Construction Co. of Grand Island was the low bidder on the General Contract for the runways, taxiways and aprons at the O'Neill Municipal Airport. Their bid was $7,924.32. The Diamond Engineering Co. of Grand Island was the second low bidder with a bid of $8,214.40 on the contract.

The Krueger-Ihle Electric Co. of Norfolk was the low bidder on the lighting contract with a bid of $8,801.20. The total of the bids on the project is $66,725.52.

The bids were let subject to the approval of the Department of Aeronautics in Lincoln and the Federal Agency in Kansas City, Missouri.

Security Agent Slates Visit

Mr. James B. Hoffman, field representative of the Norfolk social security office will be in the court room of the courthouse at Butte from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 8.

Severely disabled people under 65 who have had at least five recent years under social security should inquire.

William Hynes Fined For Assault, Battery

William (Bill) Hynes, 17, of O'Neill was charged with assault and battery by Duane Saltz of Page in Holt county court Monday.

The assault is alleged to have taken place near Seger's cafe in east O'Neill Sunday evening. Hynes was fined $30 and $4 costs.

Range Contest Winners Named

Twenty-three persons participated in the range judging contest at the Holt county courthouse annex Friday.

Winners in the three divisions are: FFA, Richard Hill of O'Neill, first; Don Skopce of O'Neill, second; Dean Frank of Verdigre, third; Harry Pavlik of Verdigre, fourth.

In the 4-H division: Gary Fick of Inman, first; Elmer Krugman of O'Neill, second; Walter Fick, Jr., of Inman, third; Charles Hill of O'Neill, fourth.

Adult: Walter Fick of Inman, first; Paul Krugman of O'Neill, second; Elmer Juracek of O'Neill, third and Orin Shippen of Atkinson, fourth. Pictures of the contest will be found elsewhere in this issue of the Frontier.

Leaves For Service

James I. O'Connor of Atkinson and Larry Lieswald of Chambers left for induction into the armed services Monday.

Vernon F. Albrecht of Atkinson also left for Omaha to take his physical.

Dedication ceremonies were held Tuesday for the New Assumption Blessed Virgin Mary church at Lynch. The Most Reverend Gerald T. Bergan of Omaha officiated at the rites. The new church was officially completed July 19, and has been in use since May 22. There are 47 families in the congregation with a total membership of 244. Pastor of the church is Rev. Charles Kammer, who has been assigned to the church since 1955. Other pictures of the dedication rites will be found on another page of this issue.

PTA Membership Drive To Open September 12

The first meeting of the Parent Teachers Association will be held Monday, Sept. 12. This meeting will also be the kick-off for the membership drive. Harry Spall, president, urges all parents of school children to attend.

Missouri Man Fined $164 For Soliciting Funds

J. Krull, 63, of Kansas City, Mo., was found guilty of illegal solicitation in Holt county court Wednesday and fined a total of $164.59.

Krull was charged by Cliff Hahlbeck, Ewing marshal, with soliciting and receiving a check for one dollar from Harold J. Rotherham as a donation for the benefit of the alleged "Good Samaritan Army of America" without first having registered with, and receiving approval from the Secretary of State of Nebraska.

He has been soliciting for twenty-five years for the "Good Samaritan Army."

Judge Louis Reimer also ordered Holt county sheriff Leo Tomjack to take custody of checks found on Krull's person and to return the checks to the persons in Nebraska from whom they had been received. The fine is $150 plus $4 court costs and $10.59 officers fees.

Mr. Krull is in the Holt county jail awaiting payment of the fine.

County 4-H Members Take Honors At Nebraska Sandhills Exposition

Holt county 4-H members took top honors at the Nebraska Sandhills National Exposition at Newport Saturday.

In the 4-H Beef Division James Melcher showed the Champion baby beef and Becky Beelaert had the Reserve Champion baby beef. Both are from the Eagle Hustlers 4-H club at Page. Other baby beef placings were: Becky Beelaert, Page, red; Dorothy and Mary Poessnecker, Atkinson, white. The Eagle Hustlers 4-H club of Page showed the second place group of three baby beefs.

The Champion dairy animal was a Holstein shown by Karen Knudsen of Page. Larry Skrdla of Stuart had the Reserve Champion dairy heifer. Other placings in dairy were: Blue—John and Jerome Crumly and Seal Luebecke of Page.

Red—Donnie Skrdla of Stuart, Seal Luebecke of Page and Ronnie Skrdla of Stuart.

Larry and Ronnie Skrdla of the Green Meadows 4-H club at Stuart had the best dairy pair. In dairy showmanship Jerome Crumly, Karen Knudsen, Larry Skrdla and Seal Luebecke received first, second, third and fourth respectively.

Cindy Jones of Atkinson showed the Reserve Champion stocker feeder, and Angus steer. Other stocker feeder placings were: Purple—Randy Jones of Atkinson.

Blue—Joy Dvorak of Atkinson. Red—Dorothy Poessnecker and Francis Dobrovolny of Atkinson. White—Linda Dobrovolny and Sheryl Gotschall both of Atkinson.

Bonnie Welke of Ewing and James Melcher of Page both showed purple ribbon breeding heifers. Other breeding heifer exhibitors and placings were: Blue—Roseanne Blake of Chambers and Tom Melcher of Page. Red—Loren Blake of Chambers.

In the livestock judging contest Tom Melcher of Page placed first with 227 and Alvin Crumly and Jerome Crumly of Page tied for second and third with 225. The Eagle Hustlers 4-H club of Page received the trophy for the top club judging team.

In open class fat steer show, James Melcher of Page showed the first place animal and received a $100 first award. Becky Beelaert received the $50 second place money. Twenty-three fat steers were entered in the show.

One hundred forty-two exhibitors from 10 counties in Iowa, South Dakota and Nebraska exhibited in this year's Nebraska Sandhills National Exposition.

Ash Grove Auxiliary

The Ash Grove Auxiliary will hold a meeting Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 6 at the hall.

All ladies are urged to attend this meeting so that plans can be made for the coming fall and winter activities.

Rites Scheduled At Neligh For Mrs. L. Graham

Funeral services will be held today (Thursday) at the Methodist church at Neligh at 2 p.m. for Lulu Graham, who died Tuesday morning at the Kahland rest home in Neligh.

Mrs. Kahland, the daughter of Edwin and Sarah Libby, was born on the correspond reports five miles west of Clearwater on July 3, 1884.

She married Walter Graham on March 22, 1905. The couple had two children. A daughter, Esther, died at the age of 12. She is survived by one son, Elmer, who lives at Neligh. Her husband died in 1953.

Services will be held at the Methodist church at Neligh with Rev. Johnson presiding. Interment will be at the Clearwater cemetery under the direction of the Snider Funeral Home.

Palbearers are: Loyd Kimes, Bernard Van Vleck, Harold Van Vleck, George Neal, Floyd Neal and Archie Wolfe.

Vac Randa, The Frontier's Verdigre correspondent reports that that community had three inches of rain.

Public School Registration Figure is 630

Initial registration figures at the O'Neill public school Wednesday indicate that 630 students will be attending the school during the coming term.

The following registration figures were released by Supt. Milton Black, Kindergarten, 82; first grade, 44; second, 40; third, 46; fourth, 52; sixth, 47, seventh, 47 and eighth grade, 50. This brings the total in grade school to 458.

In high school; freshmen, 42; sophomore, 53; junior, 40 and senior, 37.

Phone your news to 788

Off Campus Class

Principles and Practices in Guidance, Education 289, will meet for registration and first class Saturday, Sept. 10 at 9 a.m. at the O'Neill public school.

Dirt Slide Kills Verdigre Man

VERDIGRE—Leroy Bruner, 50, former Verdigre resident was killed in a dirt slide in an old cave while working on a farm near Newman Grove, Bruner, the son of the late Steve Bruner, resided on a farm six miles southwest of Verdigre. Mr. Bruner was married and has one step-son.

Also killed in the mishap was Johnny O. Johnson, 70, on whose farm the accident occurred.

Amy Kersencrook Repeats As Golf Champion; Defeats Yantzi

Defending country club golf champion Amy Kersencrook added her second straight club championship Sunday by downing Dorothy Yantzi but it took three extra sudden-death holes to turn the trick.

The tournament was a repeat of last year's final when Amy defeated Dorothy for the championship. Betty Barney won the consolation round in the championship flight.

Other flight winners include: First—Iris Liddy defeated Mary Vetter and Helen Clifford won the consolation.

Second—Lorraine Becker defeated Marie Kelly and Mary Reynolds won the consolation. Third—Nancy Grady defeated Ruth Wilson and Jo Wilson won the consolation.

In the final flight, Eleanor Pruss is champion, Elizabeth Gallagher is runner-up and Betty DeWitt is consolation winner.

Some 40 O'Neill women entered the tournament which was played during the past week. The championship rounds were played Sunday following the all-night rain and the greens hampered many of the women.

Claim Sale Dates

The Luben home which was to be offered for sale Saturday by the Laursen Real Estate company of O'Neill has been sold. The ad in this week's Frontier had already been printed when Virgil Laursen sold his home.

Saturday, September 3—Personal property of the late Sam Killiam will be sold at auction at the place 1 block south and a block and a half east of the Safeway store. Col. Ed Thorin is in charge of the sale.

Tuesday, Sept. 6—Farm Sale of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown at the place located 14 miles south, 2 west, 1 south and 1/2 mile west of O'Neill. 31 cattle, 16 hogs, good machinery and miscellaneous items. Col. Ed Thorin is in charge of the sale.

Jungmans Observe Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jungman observed their fiftieth wedding anniversary with an open house at the home of their son, Leonard Jungman, in Atkinson Sunday, Aug. 28 from 2 to 5 p.m.

More than eighty guests attended the celebration. The serving table was decorated with an arrangement of gold zinnias and white candles in gold holders. The three tier cake, topped with a gold ball and a "50" was baked by Mrs. Milton Clemens and was decorated by Mrs. Glen White and Venita. Mrs. Edgar Jungman of Amelia cut and served the cake. Mrs. Edward Cuka of Wagner, S. D., served the punch and Mrs. Charles Kirkland of Atkinson poured the coffee. Miss Janeth Clemens, a granddaughter, was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Louis Burgett of Amelia and Mrs. Bonnie Pospisical of Atkinson assisted with the serving.

Anna Slechta and Frank Jungman were married August 23, 1910 at the farm home of the bride's parents near Lynch. The couple lived on a farm north of Spencer for a few years. They then moved to a ranch in southern Rock county, then to Holt county.

They moved to Bassett where Mr. Jungman worked on the railroad for several years. In June 1928 the family moved to Atkinson and have made their home on farms in the Atkinson community since that time.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jungman are the parents of a son, Leonard of Atkinson, and two daughters, Mrs. Milton (Stasia) Clemens of Amelia and Mrs. Lloyd (Mildred) Clemens of Henderson, Colo. They also have eight grandchildren. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Clemens and six children were unable to be present. They had spent two weeks visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jungman in July.

Guests from a distance included Mrs. Joe Stastny and family and Mrs. James Krcil all of Wagner, S. D., Mrs. Ed Roman of Morty, S. D., Mr. and Mrs. Joe Slechta and family of Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cuka of Wagner, S. D., Mr. and Mrs. Levi Clemens and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Jungman of Amelia.

The Club Champions! From left, Champion Amy Kersencrook, Runner-up Dorothy Yantzi and consolation winner Betty Barney.