

Mrs. Robert Crosby . . . nee Patricia Ann Pollock

Patricia Ann Pollock
Robert F. Crosby Wed
Saturday in Omaha

Miss Patricia Ann Pollock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Pollock of Ewing, and Robert F. Crosby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred K. Crosby of Omaha, were united in marriage Saturday, Aug. 27 at Christ the King church in Omaha. The Rev. Robert Hupp officiated at the 12 noon ceremony. The altar was decorated with bouquets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums.

Karen Alexander, the flower girl carried a little basket of chrysanthemum petals. Danny Crosby, nephew of the bridegroom, was the ring bearer.

LeRoy Crosby was best man for his brother. Ushers were Glen Burbridge and Frank Shukis of Omaha, William Kepner of Ocala and Robert Ross of Lyons, Kan.

A reception following the ceremony was held at the Town House ballroom attended by two hundred guests.

After a wedding trip to Denver, Colo. and Las Vegas, the couple will make their home at 1976 A Street, in Lincoln.

Mrs. Lowell Peterson . . . nee Jannell Cederburg

Jannell Cederburg
Lowell Peterson Wed
In Lutheran Rite

St. Peter's Lutheran church at Orchard was the scene of the wedding of Jannell Rae Cederburg of Orchard and airman 2/C Lowell Harley Peterson of Lincoln Sunday, Aug. 14. The Rev. Walter Seefeldt officiated at the 2:30 double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Cederburg of Orchard and the parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Harley Peterson of Plainview.

Mrs. Dennis Venson, sister of the bridegroom, sang the wedding music accompanied by Mrs. Van Court of Plainview. Candelabra and bouquets of orchid and white gladioli and pom-pom chrysanthemums decorated the altar. The pews were decorated with orchid bows and streamers. The bride entered the church on a white carpet.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She appeared in a Chapel gown of chantilly lace and nylon tulle. Scallops of lace embroidered with sequins and pearls framed the sabrina neckline of the bodice. Hand cut lace panels accented the full gathered skirt in a redingote style with a panel of pleated tulle in front. The bride's veil was of French illusion caught by a double crown trimmed with pearls and rhinestones. She carried a cascade arrangement of stephanotis and ivy centered with a canhamiana orchid.

Miss Jan Withee of Orchard was maid of honor. Miss Alice Niles of Orchard and Miss Barbara Ogan of Humbolt, Ia. were bridesmaids. They wore identical gowns of orchid organza over taffeta. The gowns were styled with cowl necklines, tucked cummerbunds and full skirts over hoops. The matching crowned headpieces featured full veils with pearls. They carried bouquets of white carnations tipped with orchid.

Rebecca Ogan of Madison and Diane Peterson of Plainview were the candle lighters. They wore white organza gowns with full pleated skirts.

Colleen Ogan of Humphrey and LaVaille Peterson of Plainview were the flower girls. They wore orchid organza gowns identical to those of the candle lighters.

Larry Butterfield of Orchard was the ring bearer.

Airman 2/C Marion Cederburg, brother of the bride, was the best man. Dennis Venson of Osmond and Alan Norris of Plainview were the groomsmen. The ushers were Merle Boelter of Creighton and Gene Peterson of Plainview. They all wore white dinner jackets with dark trousers.

The mother of the bride chose a white silk dress with orchid accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore an orchid dress with white accessories.

Miss Elinor Mitties of Orchard registered the 350 guests.

A reception was held following the ceremony. Mrs. Jack Grubbs of Ewing cut the wedding cake assisted by Susan Voohties of Orchard. Miss Linda Johnson of Orchard poured the coffee. Miss Barbara Twibel served the punch.

Waitresses were the seventh and eighth grade volleyball girls who were coached by the bride last year. They wore orchid blouses and full white pleated skirts. Their aprons were of orchid net with their names written in sequins and pearls. The Ladies Aid serving committee served the reception.

Miss Janis Butterfield was in charge of the gift book. Assisting with the gifts were the girls of the 1960 Orchard graduating class, classmates of the bride. Four members of the grade volleyball class were at the church door to take gifts.

The couple will make their home in Lincoln.

Sick and Injured

O'NEILL
Jack Taylor entered the University hospital in Omaha last Wednesday and was released Friday following a medical check-up. Mrs. Charles Switzer is carrying her arm in a sling with a broken bone in her right wrist after considering the condition a bad sprain for two weeks before having it treated. Elaine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Krugman, had the misfortune to miss the last step when leaving an Omaha parking lot two weeks ago and received broken bones in both elbows. Elaine, who is a student nurse at Immanuel hospital, is at home with both arms in a sling, while she is more or less helpless. Mrs. Fred Krugman stepped in a hole in Saturday's rain storm and turned her ankle which resulted in a chipped bone. She is off her feet while that damage is corrected. Rodney Hibbs was treated for a throat infection the first of the week and returned home to recuperate from the malady.
