Janice Sipes Weds Richard Gaskill In Methodist Ceremony

Miss Janice Sipes of Denver and Richard E. Gaskill of Denver were married Sunday, Aug. 28 at the First Methodist church in O'Neill. The Rev. Glenn Kennicott performed the 2:30 p.m. ceremony.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Sipes of Englewood, Colo., and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gaskill of O'Neill are the parents of the bridegroom. Mrs. Merwyn French Jr., sang, "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied by Miss Marjorie Johnson of Norfolk at the organ. The sanctuary was decorated with condalabra and two bouquets of pink chrysanthemums, snow on the mountain and garden flowers.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She appeared in a floor length gown of sheer nylon Jersey over taffeta. The gown featured a sweetheart neckline, short sleeves and bouffant skirt. A white taffeta cummerbund with a large bow and sash at the back accented the waistline. Her finger tip silk illusion veil was caught in a half crown with sequin trim. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink sweetheart roses and feathered pink and white carnations.

Mrs. Russ O. Borg of Winter Park, Fla., sister of the bridegroom, was the matron of honor. Miss Nancy Sipes of Englewood, Colo., was a bridesmaid for her sister. They wore pink and white pin-checked tissue gingham dresses with full skirts. Their dresses featured bateau necklines and bouffant short sleeves with pink gingham bows over the shoulders. The waistlines were accented with belts of pink velvet ribbons with a bow and streamers. They wore velvet headbands with pink mullene face veils. They carried colonial bouquets of pink pom-pom chrysanthemums.

Rene Gaskill of Neligh, a cousin of the bridegroom, and Marlene Sipes of Englewood, Colo., a sister of the bride, were the candle lighters. They wore dresses similar to those of the bridesmaids with wristlets of pink pom-pom chrysanthemums.

The flower girl was Miss Connie Gaskill of Neligh, cousin of the bridegroom. Miss Nina Tomlinson of Grand Island, cousin of the bride was the ring bearer.

Russ O. Borg of Winter Park, Fla., was the best man. Carroll Griener of O'Neill was the groom-man. Ushers were Roger Kroupa of Omaha, a cousin of the bridegroom, and Albert L. Sipes of Englewood, a brother of the bride. The men wore dark trousers and white dinner jackets with white carnation boutonniere.

The mother of the bride chose a cold-brocade tunic dress with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy and white linen sheath dress with white accessories. They each wore a corsage of pink carnations.

A reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. Richard Tomlinson cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Roger Kroupa poured the coffee. Mrs. Norma Haake and Mrs. Dean Anderson served. Miss Carole Johnson and Miss Lynn Haynes were in charge of the gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaskill are graduates of the O'Neill high school and are employed in Denver.

"Uncle" Louis Dimmitt easily stole the show with his impersonation of the pioneer khaki clad broad brimmed hat and bushy whiskered old prospector earning the first prize of $7.50 in the animal division as he sat astride the spirited palomino borrowed for the occasion from Elmer Tavener.

Twelve 4-H entrants received crisp new one dollar bills for their entries in the parade. A free show was in progress at the Page theater showing Walt Disney's "White Wilderness" while the Page and Orchard Pee-Wee baseball teams crossed bats in a 9 to 0 score in favor of Page.

Sixty-two hundred pounds of fresh watermelon was served to an appreciative crowd. The Page Improvement club members served dinner and supper and lunches at the club building while the auxiliary ladies sponsored a smorgasbord at the Lamason building, serving more than 400.

The evening's entertainment repeated the free show and a soft ball game left the west side the champion over the east side by two points.

The 4-H club girls displayed their sewing class projects and the bake girls held an auction food sale.

More than 250 visitors signed the guest book at the Page Bank where the Page Extension club ladies sponsored a Flower Show.

The celebration concluded with a free dance on the outdoor dance floor.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Laible

Marilyn Straka Weds Louis Laible Monday In Atkinson Church

Miss Marilyn Jean Straka, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Straka of Stuart, became the bride of Louis G. Laible, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Laible of Atkinson, in a 9:30 a.m. nuptial mass at St. Joseph's Catholic church in Atkinson Monday, Sept. 5. The Rev. Richard Parr performed the ceremony.

The high school choir sang the wedding music.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a bouquet of taffeta gown. The neckline of the fitted bodice was graced with a satin applied lily. The bodice also featured a basque waist and bridal sleeves. The hand embroidery was repeated in an applied lily on the front of the bouffant floor length skirt. The double waist length imported illusion veil was held in place by a crown of looped pearls and enhanced by crystal beads and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of two white cymbidium orchids with stephanotis on a white prayer book.

Mrs. William Krysl of Stuart, sister of the bridegroom, was the matron of honor. Mrs. Leonard Laible of Stuart, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, was a bridesmaid. They wore identical Nile green silk organza ballerina length dresses. The dresses were styled with fitted bodices with draped necklines with bow accents at the shoulder and olive green cummerbunds at the waist. They wore matching headbands and carried cascade arrangements of white chrysanthemums.

Robert Straka of Stuart, brother of the bride, was the best man. Leonard Laible was the groomsmen and John Laible and Alfred Straka were the ushers.

The mother of the bride wore an olive green silk organza dress with green and black accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose a green and white print silk jersey dress with black accessories. They wore corsages of white Frenched chrysanthemums.

A reception was given for 200 guests. The wedding cake was baked by Mrs. Charles Diermer and cut by Miss Helen Straka. The groom's cake was cut by Miss Janice Engler. Mrs. Francis Penry and Miss Janette Straka poured. Miss Arlene Engler registered the guests. Mrs. Alvin Krysl, Miss Mary Ann Straka and Miss Janene Straka were in charge of the gift table. The bride is a graduate of St. Joseph's high school at Atkinson and attended Marymount College School of Nursing at Salina, Kan. She has been a nurse at St. Anthony's hospital in O'Neill. The bridegroom graduated from St. Joseph's high school and is engaged in farming.

Mrs. Laible chose a black and white plaid dress with white accessories for traveling. Following a wedding trip to the Black Hills the couple will be at home on a farm south of Atkinson.
