Margaret McElvain Edward Walsh Marry Saturday in O'Neill

St. Patrick's Catholic church in O'Neill was the setting for the wedding of Miss Margaret Helen McEivain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McElvain of O'Neill, and Edward James Walsh of Brockton, Mass., son of Mrs. Christine Walsh of Brochton, Saturday, Sept. 17. Msgr. Tomothy O'Sullivan officiated at the 10 a.m. nuptial mass.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Gatz sang the wedding music accompanied by Miss Alvara Ramm at the organ

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, appeared in a gown of silk parchment fashioned in traditional white. A portrait neckline complimented the empire bodice which was appliqued in re-embroidered alencon lace traced with pearls and iridescent paillettes. This applique was repeated across the carriage skirt Mrs. Jack Everitt of O'Neill, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. Mrs. Hugh R. Heydt of Lincoln was bridesmaid. They wore identical dresses of dark gold silk shantung with hats to match. They carried colonial bouquets of yellow and gold pompoms.

Kathleen Ann Everitt, niece of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a gold silk shantung dress and carried a miniature colonial bouquet of pompoms. Flowers hung from the velvet streamers of her belt. John L. McElvain, brother of the bride, was the best man. High H. Heydt of Lincoln, Jerome P. Gallagher and John Berigan of O'Neill were ushers.

A breakfast and reception were Craig Eugene. held at the Town House.
