Daffodillies

Entertain at

Sunset Tea

Daffodilly Club women entertained at the Club Tea in Royal on Wednesday afternoon when 26 women of 65 and more years were honored by the WSCS at the annual tea.

The Daffodilly club, six in number (Mrs. John Walmer was not present when the picture was taken) banded together some five years ago to provide entertainment at Community Club meetings and appeared on monthly programs with original skits and music. They entertain periodically as well as helping out with civic projects.

Present at the Sunset Tea as guests were Mmes. Clifford Ziegenbein, Susan Mitchell, Jessye Shaw, C. E. Everhart, Gertrude Davis, Gertrude Cleveland and Louise Beal, all of Orchard; Allen Haynes, Charles Cronk and Harry Harper of Page; Lottie Wauer of Tilden; Dorothea Larsen of Belle Fontaine, Ohio; Alex Lichty, Duell Lichty and C. D. Lingenteiler of Brunswick; Salome Noddings, Truman Kirby, Lizzie Buckmaster, Alfred Ziegenbein, Mary Curtis, C. F. Storm, May Mattison, W. J. Reece, R. J. Hering, R. E. Trautman, Tena Warner and Ollie Rundquist of Royal.

A corsage was presented each guest upon registering.

Birthdays Observed

C. E. Rundquist was the guest of honor at a birthday dinner at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Thomsen and family. Sunday in observance of his seventy-second birthday. The youngest son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Matthias Rundquist, pioneer homesteaders south of Royal, he grew to maturity on the farm attended school at Wayne, taught in a district school one term and then began his apprenticeship in his father's mercantile store in Royal where he has been located for 35 years, having purchased the business a number of years ago. He is assisted in the store by Mrs. Rundquist and by their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Rundquist and their son Nolan, aged 10.

Mrs. Mary Field, of Rapid City, S.D., who will be 85 years old on September 30, called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Hering Sunday before leaving for home. Mrs. Field is in excellent health and has never had to use spectacles. Her hearing is keen and she takes care of all of her business. Mrs. Field owns property in Brunswick and plans to return there to live when she has disposed of her home in Rapid City where she has continued to live since the death of her husband, George W. Field, an uncle of R. J. Hering.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Weber were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mauer of Plainview, and also called on Mrs. Weber's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Johnson in the evening.

Royal band mothers have reorganized and elected the following officers: Mrs. Charley Meyer, president; Mrs. Walter Neutler, vice president; Mrs. Herman Ennen, secretary; Mrs. E. A. Rundquist, treasurer. The group will meet the last Friday of the month to formulate fundraising plans. They will continue to handle all-occasion greeting cards for sale.

Members of the group are: Mmes. Roy Frahm, E. A. Rundquist, Walter Beutler, Herman Ennen, Wayne Walmer, Charley Meyer, Link Henry, Warren Holm, Hans Hofer, Clayton Meisner, Clarence Stahler, Buster Charf, James Peterson, E. Rader, Glenn Rundquist and Dale Weber.

Mrs. John Walmer is caring for two of her grandchildren while their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Curt Schleusener are on a vacation. G. G. Meisner, student at Wayne, and Terry Storm, teaching at La Platte were weekend visitors at home.

Mrs. Dale Weber and Mrs. Warren Holm attended the teachers work shop held in Albion Thursday and Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Loeve of Pilger were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Meisner. Mmes. Keith Thelander of Orchard, Byron Hall, Clarence Bittner and Zola Hering of Royal were Norfolk visitors Friday.

Mary Hering of Plainview spent Sunday afternoon at home in Royal.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Charf and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rader were Pickstown and Ft. Randall visitors Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rader were entertained for them Monday and of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Colson on Tuesday. Mrs. Colson is remembered here as Clara Riley, daughter of the late Jesse Riley. She grew to maturity in Royal.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rouse of Denver, Colo., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Rouse and of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rouse who entertained for them Monday and of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Colson on Tuesday. Mrs. Rouse is remembered here as Clara Riley, daughter of the late Jesse Riley. She grew to maturity in Royal.

SEE THE ALL NEW 1961

Pontiacs and Buicks

MOST POPULAR PONTIAC BODY STYLE, the rakish four-door Vista hardtop, is more beautiful than ever in the new 1961 Bonneville series. Curving windshield pillars, a slim line roof, and crisply defined side windows create a new custom appeal. Distinctive Bonneville features include the high performing Trophy V-8 engine with four barrel carburetor and luxurious upholstery of pattern cloths and Jewellone Morrokide. The exciting Vista also is available in the Star Chief, Ventura, and Catalina series.

Big car comfort and styling are combined with the economy of the small car in Buick's new lightweight Special four-door sedan, powered by the first American aluminum V-8 engine in the automobile industry. The Special is mounted on a 113-inch wheelbase, is 188 inches long and weighs only 2,700 pounds, some 1,600 pounds lighter than conventional-size Buicks. Its high compression V-8 engine develops 185 horsepower, giving it outstanding performance comparable to the bigger models in the Buick line. The Special comes in two body styles, a four-door sedan and a four-door wagon, with a deluxe version offered in each. A new dual-pump turbine drive transmission is offered as optional equipment, along with power steering, and air-conditioning.
