Hunters Hunt for Small Boy Who In Turn is Hunting for Hunters

Jimmie, three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Clyde, had a frightening experience Friday afternoon and passed the fright right on to his parents and those who were searching for him when he became lost on the Schaffer ranch about 20 miles southwest of O'Neill.

Don and his three sons went duck hunting and told the three year old to stay in the car, they were to be right back.

When Don came back, ten minutes and two duck shots later the lad was gone and a frantic search failed to bring him in sight.

The alarm was sounded. Walt Kneijka took up the air vigil and others combed the area in circle formation.

At the end of the search it was his 12 year old brother, Donnie, who found him trapped in a hole about 100 feet up in high weeds. Don heard a sound he could not identify so went into the jungle-tangle until he found the sound maker sobbing at intervals-cried-out completely.

Jimmy was found three-fourths of a mile from the car after being lost for two and one-half hours.
