home rule charters, to acquire, civil, develop, and lease real and personal property to manufacturing and industrial enterprises and to issue revenue bonds for the purpose of defraying the cost of acquiring and developing such property by construction, purchase, or otherwise. Such bonds shall not become general obligation bonds of the governmental subdivision by which such bonds are issued. Any such real or personal property so acquired, owned, developed or used by any such county, city or village, shall be subject to taxation to the same extent as private property during the time it is leased to or held by private interests, notwithstanding the provisions of Article VIII, section 2, of the Constitution. The acquiring, owning, developing, and leasing of such property shall be deemed for a public purpose, but the governmental subdivision shall not have the right to acquire such property by condemnation. The provisions of Article XIII, section 2, of the Constitution, shall not apply to the issuance of revenue bonds herein provided for. The principal of and interest on any bonds issued may be secured by a pledge of the lease and the revenues therefrom and by mortgage upon such property. No such governmental subdivision shall have the power to operate any such property as a business or in any manner except as the lessor thereof.

TEXT OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT
Be it enacted by the people of the State of Nebraska,
Section 1. That at the general election in November, 1960, there shall be submitted to the electors of the State of Nebraska for approval the following amendment to Article III of the Constitution of Nebraska, which shall be a new section to be known as section 29, and which is hereby proposed by the Legislature:
"Sec. 29. (1) In order to insure continuity of state and local governmental operations in periods of emergency resulting from enemy attack upon the United States, or the imminent threat thereof, the Legislature shall have the power and the immediate duty, notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary in this Constitution, to provide by law for:
(a) The prompt and temporary succession to the powers and duties of all public officers, of what-nature and whether filled by election or appointment, the incumbents of which, after an attack, may be or become unavailable or unable to carry on the powers and duties of such officers;
(b) The convening of the Legislature into general or extraordinary session, upon or without call by the Governor, during or after a war or enemy caused disaster occurring in the United States; and, with respect to any such emergency session, the suspension or temporary change of the provisions of this Constitution or of general law relating to the length and purposes of any legislative session or prescribing the specific proportion or number of legislators whose presence or vote is necessary to constitute a quorum or to accomplish any legislative act or function;
(c) The selection and changing from time to time of a temporary seat of government, of temporary county seats of government for other political subdivisions; to be used if made necessary by enemy attack or imminent threat thereof;
(d) The determination, selection, reproduction, preservation, and dispersal of public records necessary to the continuity of governmental operations in the event of enemy attack or imminent threat thereof; and

(e) Such other measures and procedures as may be necessary and proper for insuring the continuity of governmental operations in the event of enemy attack or imminent threat thereof.

(2) In the exercise of the powers hereinbefore conferred, the Legislature shall in all respects conform to the requirements of this Constitution except to the extent that, in the judgment of the Legislature, so to do would be impracticable or would admit of undue delay."

Proposed Amendment No. 2
Constitutional amendment to provide that preferred stockholders may or may not have a vote and that preferred stock may or may not be of equal par value of all stock of the corporation.

TEXT OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT
Be it enacted by the people of the State of Nebraska,
Section 1. That at the general election in November, 1960, there shall be submitted to the electors of the State of Nebraska for approval the following amendment to Article XII, sections 5 and 6, of the Constitution of Nebraska, which are hereby proposed by the Legislature:
"Sec. 5. The Legislature shall provide by law that in all elections for directors or managers of incorporated companies every stockholder shall have the right to vote in person or proxy for the number of shares owned by him, for as many persons as he may desire, and such directors or managers to be elected or to cumulate said shares and give one candidate as many votes as the number of directors to be elected or to cumulate said shares shall equal, or to distribute them upon the same principle among as many candidates as he shall think fit, and such directors or managers shall not be elected in any other manner. Provided, that any mutual or cooperative company or association may in its articles of incorporation, limit the number of shares of stock any stockholder may own, the transfer of said stock, and the right of each stockholder or member to one vote only in the meetings of such company or association; and provided further, that a corporation in its articles of incorporation may provide that preferred stockholders shall have no right to vote.

ment of stock or bonds at a greater value than the actual value at the time said labor was done or property delivered, and all fictitious increase of stock or indebtedness shall be void; all stock shall have a face par value; and all stock in the same corporation shall be of equal par value, except that preferred stock may or may not be of same par value."

Proposed Amendment No. 3
Constitutional amendment authorizing the Legislature to provide a different method of taxing livestock and to provide for reciprocal and proportionate taxation of livestock located in this state for only part of a year.

"Sec. 1. The necessary revenue of the state and its governmental subdivisions shall be raised by taxation in such manner as the Legislature may direct. Taxes shall be levied by valuation uniformly and proportionately upon all tangible property and franchises, except that the Legislature may provide for a different method of taxing motor vehicles; Provided, that such tax proceeds from motor vehicles taxed in each county shall be allocated to the state, counties, townships, cities, villages, and school districts of such county in the same proportion that the levy of each bears to the total levy of said county on personal tangible property. The Legislature may prescribe standards and methods for the determination of the value of real or other tangible property at uniform and proportionate values. Taxes uniform as to class may be levied by valuation upon all other property. Taxes, other than property taxes, may be authorized by law. Existing revenue laws shall continue in effect until changed by the Legislature. The Legislature may provide that livestock shall constitute a separate and distinct class of property for purposes of taxation and may further provide for reciprocal and proportionate taxation of livestock located in this state for only part of a year."

INMAN—Jimmie D. Sawyer, machinist's mate fireman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Sawyer of Inman recently made a five day visit to Barcelona, Spain while serving aboard the attack carrier USS Saratoga operating with the Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean.

Sawyer is a 1956 graduate of Inman high school, attended a Omaha Business College and was employed in the Everglades National Park before his enlistment.

EWING—Army Sgt. Marvin D. Carl, 23, son of Mrs. Adeline R. Carl of Ewing, was a recent participant with other personnel from the 1st Cavalry Division in Exercise Trooper Turnout 11, a three-day field problem in Korea. This exercise, involving about 29,000 troops, stressed the divisions ability to adapt to fast changing combat conditions with training in defensive tactics provided by an attack by a simulated aggressor force throughout a 220-square mile combat zone.

Sgt. Carl, a 1955 graduate of Ewing high school, entered the Army in 1955 and arrived on this tour of duty in February, 1960. He is a squad leader in Company D of the division's 12th Cavalry. His father, Delbert M. Carl lives in Ewing.
