Chambers News

By Mrs. E. R. Carpenter

Escapes with minor injury
Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Carpenter have received word that their granddaughter, Mrs. Charles Gustafson (Bonnie Grimes) of Eaton Colo., had narrowly escaped serious injury when her car, another passenger car and two trucks were involved in an accident just east of Eaton Saturday, Nov. 19. A heavy fog was given as the cause. Both passenger cars were badly damaged. Mrs. Gustafson who received a shoulder injury and other bruises was the only one hurt.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hoerle and daughter, Patty drove to Grand Island Sunday, Nov. 6 to meet Mrs. Hoerle's brother-in-law and sister Mr. and Mrs. John Decker and family and her mother, Mrs. Ida Cady of Holbrook who came for a visit. The Deckers returned home but Mrs. Cady remained for an extended visit with her daughters, Mrs. Lloyd Hoerle and Mrs. Edwin Hoerle. Mr. and Mrs. Terry Moore of Wyan, S. D. were supper guests of her uncle and Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Carpenter Friday.

The Jungbluth Brothers farm sale held Saturday 3 miles west and ½ mile north of Chambers brought very satisfactory prices as far as the live stock was concerned. Hay and corn also brought a fair price.

The American Legion and auxiliary sponsored a public card party at the Legion Hall in the evening of Veteran's day. They reported a good attendance and a fine time. Hamp Smith received the door prize. Mrs. J. W. Walter was high scorer in pinocchle and Mrs. John Honeywell low and Mrs. Donald Green high winner in pitch and Mrs. H. W. David low.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Medcalf spent Sunday in Atkinson with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Medcalf.

Honored at shower
A pre-nuptial shower honoring Miss Arliss Wright was held Saturday evening at the Methodist church parlors. There was a large crowd of relatives and friends present. The program featuring a clever pantomime and several appropriate songs was in charge of some of her classmates, Mary Homola, LaRue Weller and Jannette Klabenes. A beautifully decorated cake baked by Mrs. Zane Rowe and decorated by Mrs. Vernon Smith furnished part of the refreshments. Miss Wright's marriage to Bill Logeman will take place November 17.

The Junior class play "Dude Ranch" will be presented at the high school auditorium Friday, Nov. 18.
Mrs. E. R. Carpenter drove to Atkinson Thursday morning and from there accompanied her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Stevens to Wyan, S. D. to attend the wedding of the former's niece, Kay Howder to Terry Moore. They returned to Atkinson Thursday night.

Bazaar and dinner
