Patrons Happy With Solution To Re-districting

The new School House located four miles north of Orchard is the result of the merging of three districts, 30, 37 and 68. The new school has helped all three districts with their problems of decreased enrollment and the increased difficulty in finding qualified teachers.

Eleven pupils from kindergarten through eighth grade are enrolled this year. They are: Sharon, Eugene and Norman Elsberry, children of Mr. and Mrs. Myrl Elsberry; Rebecca Twibel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Twibel; Jamalie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Auman; Robert, Jerry and Eileen McBride, children of Mr. and Mrs. Donald McBride; Richard and William Meyer, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Meyer, and Paula, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Goller. Mrs. Elsie Coy is the teacher. She has a general elementary certificate and attended the summer session at WSTC to renew it. The school building is identical to one built north of Venus. Forwarding and Nissen were the contractors for both school houses this summer. Although the new arrangement has increased mileage for some of the patrons, they are very happy with their solution of the re-districting problem in their community.
