Royal News

By Mrs. R. J. Hering

Lloyd Serck, jr., of Denver, Colo., surprised his mother, Mrs. Lillian Held, by arriving unexpectedly for a visit on Thanksgiving day at the Walter Beutler home. He returned to his work Plainview hospital Sunday. The young man is serving an appren-ticeship in a school of electronics and has one more year to complete his work. Mrs. Louis Waterman and infant son came home from the Plainvie whospital Sunday. The baby is the eighth child in a family of five boys and three girls. Mrs. E. Waterman of Orchard is assisting in the home. Mrs. Truman Kirby who was indisposed because of a cold the past week, is feeling somewhat improved this week and able to carry on her work. The BTC club will meet with Dorothy Jensen December 15 for the annual Christmas party. Work on the new auditorium is progressing. The heating plant has been moved from the old building, lights have been installed and the water pipes connected. The next step is to be the building of the stage. The Band Mothers club will finance the buying of the stage curtain. A freak storm visited Royal and vicinity Sunday afternoon about three o'clock when rain descended in torrents and the wind blew unusually hard. A number of persons reported an inch of moisture was received. The downpour came following a day of sodden skies, and af ter some ten minutes the heavens cleared and the sun shone brilliantly. Clayton Meisner was taken ill during the past week and hos-pitalized in Neligh suffering from a gall bladder ailment. Glenn Rundpuist, hospitalized in Plainview where he is being treated for a heart ailment, is said to be slowly improving. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bauer of Plainview were dinner guests Sunday evening at R. J. Herings and later guests of Mr. and Mrs.

Adolph Brozek.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Maple went to Omaha Monday where the two men were due for a health check-up.

All classes of calves were higher and bidding was active. Cows and butcher cattle found ready buyers with prices much higher than two weeks ago. REPORT-LAST MONDAY'S HOG AUCTION-DEC. 5, 1960

REPORT OF LAST FRIDAY'S SALE:

Hogs sold from Knox, Boyd, Holt, and Antelope Counties Verdigre livestock market sold hogs for over 100 consignors last Monday making it one of the largest sales on record. Prices held up remarkably with plenty of action throughout the sale. Extreme top reached $17.75 with the top hogs selling from $17.25 to $17.70. A considerable spread is developing between the heavy and lightweight butchers. Due to feed and weather conditions many of the hogs are being fed longer, consequently getting heavier. Hogs from 240 to 270 are being discounted from 50c to $1.00 per cwt. and the 270 to 300 lb. butchers are selling from $1.00 to $1.50 under the lightweight top butchers. Pigs and stock hogs sold about steady.

Ship that next consignment of hogs to Verdigre-we appreciate your patronage and will make Every effort to see that you are a satisfied customer. REGULAR SALES EVERY MONDAY
