

Servicemen's Notes . . .

Army PFC Floyd C. Black, son of Lloyd W. Black of Ewing, recently participated with other personnel from the 24th Infantry Division's 3d Engineer Battalion in a 20-day field training exercise in Grafenwoer, Germany.

The exercise was conducted to test and improve the efficiency of the battalion, and featured extensive combat engineer training.

Black, a truck driver in the battalion's Company A, entered the Army in December 1958 and arrived overseas in January 1960.

The 19-year-old soldier attended Ewing High School. His mother, Mrs. Edna K. Black, lives in Yakima, Wash.

Jim Renze, PTSA, US Navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Renze of O'Neill has completed recruit training at San Diego Naval training center and is home spending 15 days leave with his parents.

Upon completion of his leave he will be stationed at the naval air station in Norfolk, Va. for a course of indoctrination and then to fire control school at Bainbridge, Md.
