My mind drifted back to that lowly stable. Our Savious, Jesus Christ-whose sacred star that song so graphically proclaimed room in the inn.

night under such lowly circumstances was to be the Saviour of the world and the "King of Kings," likely the story would have been much different. He likely would have been given the best room in the inn. But only a chosen few knew this great truth.

Nearly 2,000 years have now elapsed since that lowly scene of the Nativity. It is no longer that Bibical innkeeper who can make room in the inn for Jesus It is now we-you and who must make room in the inn-our hearts-if we are to share with Him in His coming Kingdom and the joys of eternal life.

Have you ever considered this startling truth? It is now we who servation?
