Royal News

Royal High Dedicates Auditorium

The new school auditorium at Royal was used for the first time Friday evening. The school band which consists of 23 members, presented a midwinter concert. This was a very gratifying occasion for the Royal community, and the proudest moment since the dedication of the new school building in 1912, both occasions indicating a definite step in progress.

After the concert the band mothers served pie, coffee, and ice cream in the improvised cafeteria which will be finished later.

Among the women who were members of the committee selling food were Mrs. Herman Ennen, Lincoln Henry, Roy Frahm, Charles Meyer, Dale Weber, Mrs. E. A. Rundquist and Mrs. Walter Beutler.
