Other members of the gang were being fingerprinted when this picture was taken so they could not be included but you can see them all in person this weekend at the New Outlaw Store in O'Neill.

"I'd Do It Again," Says "Slasher"

"I admit we have been guilty of slashing prices through the years but I would do it again if I had the chance. Let them convict me if they want to. I will go to jail with memory of all those happy shoppers picking up all the wonderful bargains," said "Slasher" Bob, head of this notorious gang. In fact, secret plans have been made to further slash prices for this coming weekend, said the "Slasher."

"Melon Head" Back in Cooler

SAM, PRODUCE DEPARTMENT MANAGER
Sam, produce department head at the New Outlaw, was caught cold handed in his sparking clean produce storage cooler unloading more of his famous "Pampered" fruits and vegetables for sale to his many fruit customers. "Melon Head" was further charged with offering his customers cold cash savings on his quality frozen food items too. "Melon Head" refused to divulge the reason for selling only the finest fresh produce when officials are positive that inferior grades are available. Sam's only comment was that he liked his customers too much to offer them anything but the best. At last report the officials were threatening him with solitary confinement for his refusal to cooperate with them.

Mr. Top Value Puts Up Bail

All the Slasher Outlaw Gang who have been captured are out on bail furnished by Mr. T.V. STAMP man. Officials were reluctant to divulge how many T.V. Stamps, Mr. T.V. put up to bail out this notorious mob but one of them remarked that he was amazed at how many wonderful premiums were available for those valuable T.V. Stamps. Mr. T.V. said he was happy to put up the bail because he wants to do everything possible in the way of cooperation to help make this giant weekend sale a huge success. Officials are still considering arresting Mr. T.V. as an accessory to the crime. Authorities say the "Slasher Outlaw" gang not only sell merchandise too cheap, but they are also giving away T.V. Stamps good for valuable premiums.

Many Other Employees Suspected

Authorities admitted they have been watching the Outlaw gang for sometime. Very few of the crew will be found innocent of cutting prices and selling foods too cheaply.

An intensified state wide search came to an end last night as most of the Notorious "Slasher Outlaw" gang were captured. This marked the end of more than a week of day and night scientific man hunting. Bloodhounds, fingerprint experts, private eyes and all authorities using the newest methods cooperated as a team to round up the ringleaders and most of the lieutenants in this "Slasher" gang. Authorities are confident that they will be able to capture the few remaining members of the gang soon. It is believed that some of the mob are cracking under the continuous cross-examination of authorities and divulging the hiding places of others. When all members are captured it is believed that the number may total as high as 30 or more. There is still some argument on what the charge will be. Authorities contend that the charge is "Price Murder" and they have accumulated enough witnesses to prove it beyond the shadow of a doubt. The "Slasher Outlaw" gang has acquired the services of the noted criminal lawyer who has never lost a case, Merry Pason. Pason insists that the charge should not be any more serious than "Price Slashing." The case is complicated by the fact that two ringleaders "Slasher" Bob and "Saw Man" Max have already signed confessions to the most serious charge of "Price Murder." They have admitted murdering prices week after week. Thousands of happy customers who have made tremendous savings at the New Outlaw Store will be able to testify that the Outlaw really did murder prices or at least slash them to the lowest possible level. It looks like this may be the first case the famous Merry Pason ever lost.

Big Rewards To Shoppers

Giant bargains will be offered in every department of the New Outlaw Store for this weekend and prices are effective Thursday through Saturday. "Saw Man" Max, Alias the Gopher, protested loudly when the authorities captured him. "They sure got a lot of nerve complaining because my steaks are too tender and my prices too low," he beamed. "Why it's every steer's ambition to be good enough to get into the Outlaw's meat cases. Why it's like a human getting into the Hall of Fame or Who's Who, for a steer to be selected for sale to our wonderful customers. And imagine complaining because our prices are too low. We can't help ourselves. We are so in the habit of trimming fat and waste on the meat that when we come to prices its just natural to trim them too. If they think our prices were low in the past, wait until they see our specials this week. If I'm guilty, so is everyone in our department because we take great pride in giving the customers the finest meats for the lowest cost. If those guys continue to complain, we may have to add another kind of hamburger to our list, he continued. "Slasher" Pappenheimer, with the aid of his lawyer, Merry Pason, were finally able to calm "Saw Man" Max down so he could present his usual charming personality to the customers.
