Janice Steinberg Weds Wayne Hoffman At Orchard

Miss Janice Steinberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Steinberg, Orchard, became the bride of Wayne Hoffman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hoffman, Chambers, Sunday, June 4, at the Evangelical United Brethren church in Orchard.

The Rev. Duane Lenz officiated at the 7:30 p.m. candlelight ceremony before an altar decorated with baskets of white snapdragons and blue carnations. The candelabra was decorated with large blue bows. Mr. Stanley Lambert, Ewing, was soloist, as companied by Mrs. Harvey Holbrook sr.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white organza over bridal taffeta. The molded bodice was high-lighted by a portrait neckline designed with folds of organza edged in white embroidery motifs. Embroidery motifs were scattered over the bouffant skirt. A small crown, etched in pearls, held in place the bride's fingertip silk illusion veil. She carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Miss Shirley Steinberg, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Miss Carole Hoffman, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Carole Johnson, O'Neill, were bridesmaids. They wore ballerina length gowns in heaven blue organza styled like the gown worn home in O'Neill.
