O'Neill Midgets

The O'Neill Junior Legion Midgets will play at Orchard at 6:30, this game is to be followed by a Junior Legion game between the O'Neill and Orchard Jr. Legion teams.

This Sunday the O'Neill Midgets will play Ainsworth here at Carney Park at 8:15.

The O'Neill Junior Legion will play host to Burke, S. D., this Tuesday night and Gregory, S.D., Wednesday night, both of these games will be played at Carney Park, game time 8:15.

Elkhorn Valley

In Elkhorn Valley Little League competition. East O'Neill ran over Orchard 20-3. Randy Nickeson was the winning pitcher, Burney took the loss.

Bob Riley shut out Ewing 9-0, Jim Booth and Russ Johnson homered for West O'Neill. Jim Beelaert picked up the loss for Ewing.

Spencer downed Atkinson 20-4, the winning pitcher was Havranek. O'Conner was the loser.

Pony League

Both O'Neill Pony League teams were idle this week. Their schedule for next week has the Bronchos traveling to Page and the Colts playing host to Orchard. Both of these games will be on Wednesday beginning at 5:30.

Town Team

The O'Neill Town Team dropped two decisions in North Central Nebraska League competition this past week. At Carney Park here in O'Neill Thursday night they blew a seven-run lead and were defeated by Clearwater 11-7, Atkinson handed them their second loss at Atkinson Sunday night. In last Thursday's game, O'-Neill held a 7-0 lead going into the fourth inning. Lloyd Hilligas started on the mound but left the pitching chores to Chuck Smith after tiring in the fifth frame. Smith came on with two down and retired the side. He opened the sixth with a 7-2 lead but found himself having trouble getting the ball over the plate. Alvin Carson took over and finished the game on the mound for O'Neill. Smith picked up the loss in his first pitching assignment of the new season.

Junior Legion Takes

13-11 Win Over Stuart Coach Joe Ollendick's Jr. Legion nine traveled to Stuart Friday night and brought home a 13-11 victory, their second of the season. The game was dominated by poor field play and a number of bases in balls.

O'Neill opened the scoring with five runs in the first inning. They sent eight men to the plate in the rally. Gary Brewster led the winners with four hits in four times at bat for a perfect evening at the plate. Norm Wettlaufer had two hits for O'Neill and Ray Belina tripled. Wettlaufer started for O'Neill but began to tire in the fourth. Rich Hill opened the fifth frame on the mound but me couldn't find the plate. Belina had to retire the side in this inning, he finished the game and was given credit for the victory.

Burial was at Buffalo. Stuart scored five runs in the fourth inning on two hits, one er-1880 at Coon Rapids, Ia. He died ror, and three walks. Consumers Announces Two Local Projects

Consumers Public Power District has announced two highvoltage transmission line projects have been approved in a $358,598 construction and equipment expenditure.

Included in the project is the rebuilding of nearly 13 miles of 34,500 volt transmission line from a mile north of O'Neill to five miles southeast of Atkinson. Cost of the project is estimated at 105.000. The rehabilitation is needed to bolster the power needs in the Atkinson, Bassett and Long Pine area. Additional expenditures will be made for line moving work in connection with road moving be tween O'Neill and Creighton. This involves moving four miles of a 69,000 volt line.
