A Poem

From Mrs. Eby . . .

—Don't Whine—
Today upon the bus I saw the loveliest girl with golden hair. I envied her, she seemed so gay, and I wished I were as fair. When suddenly she got up to leave I saw her hobble down the aisle. She had one leg and wore a crutch but as she passed she smiled. Oh! God forgive me when I whine I have two legs and the world is mine!
And then I stopped to buy some fruit, the lad who sold it had such charm, I talked with him, he seemed so glad I thought, if I am late, it will do no harm, And when I left he said to me, Thank you ma'am you've been so kind. It's nice to talk to folks like you, you see he said, I'm blind, Oh! God forgive me when I whine I have two eyes, and the world is mine.
Then later walking down the street, I saw a child with eyes of blue, He stood and watched the others play but seemed to know not what to do. I stood a moment and then I said, why don't you join the others, dear? He looked ahead, without a word, and then I knew, he could not hear. Oh! God forgive me when I whine, I have two ears, and the world is mine.
With legs to take me where I go, With eyes to see the sunsets glow With ears to hear what I would know. Oh! God forgive me when I whine! I'm blest indeed, The world is mine.

A "NEW LOOK" FOR COUNTY FAIR BUILDINGS— ANOTHER AK-SAR-BEN ACTIVITY

Last year, Ak-Sar-Ben for the first time sponsored a "spruce up" campaign for Nebraska's county fair grounds. Every county fair was eligible to participate in this dollar-matching program to "paint up... clean up... fix up."

For many years, Ak-Sar-Ben has contributed to every county of the state for much-needed improvement of fair buildings and grounds. In the past seven years alone, this contribution has amounted to more than $300,000 on a dollar-matching basis.

To reward and encourage young farm folk, Ak-Sar-Ben appropriates $25,000 each year to special premiums for 4-H and FFA exhibitors at county fairs, plus thousands more for open classes. All this is in addition to the license fees and admission taxes collected at Ak-Sar-Ben race meets, which bring many more thousands of dollars every year to the state's county fairs.

Yesterday... today... tomorrow — Nebraska's county fairs are better because of the Ak-Sar-Ben programs made possible solely by the revenues from thoroughbred racing.
