

Miss Barbara Wayman
Weds Emerson Steele
In O'Neill Monday

Seven branch candelabra and a floral arrangement of red carnations and white pompons decorated the altar at the O'Neill First Methodist church when Miss Barbara Ann Wayman and Emerson Lee Steele were married Monday, Feb. 6, at 8 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wayman and Mr. Steele is the son of Mrs. Norma Steele.

The Rev. Glenn Kennicott performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of 150 guests. Traditional wedding music was presented by the soloist, Mrs. Don Larson, and the accompanist, Mrs. Howard Manson.

A floor-length gown of Alencon lace and misty nylon tulle was chosen by the bride. The base of lace was fashioned with a sabrina neckline, trimmed with pearls and sequins. Long tapered sleeves ended in points at the wrists. The bouffant skirt of tulle over shadow ruffles, featured scalloped lace panels in front and alternating tiers of scalloped lace and tulle in the back. Her veil of French illusion was held by a crown trimmed with pearls and sequins. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Miss Bonney Lawrence was maid of honor, and Miss Gloria Jean Krogh and Miss Norma McClellan were bridesmaids. They wore red satin dresses and carried white muffs, trimmed with red and white satin hearts. They also wore identical headpieces, in matching colors.

Darrell Clyde served as best man. Groomsmen were Norman Kopejka and George Fuller. Ushers were Bill and Bob Ely. Miss Dianne Wayman acted as flower girl and Steve Steele was ring bearer. Candelighters were Miss Rita Steele, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Cheryl Roos of Valentine.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. Leo Babutke presided at the coffee service and Miss Darlene Pierson served punch. Mrs. Ben Wayman cut the wedding cake. In charge of the guest book was Miss Janet Krugman, and taking care of the gift table were Mrs. Clay Johnson Jr., Miss Lenna Fernau and Miss Susan Ellingson.

The bride is a graduate of O'Neill high school and is employed as telephone operator at the Northwestern Bell Telephone company office at O'Neill.

Mr. Steele was graduated from the O'Neill high school and is employed as salesman at the Gamble store here.

Following a wedding trip to Denver, the young couple will reside in O'Neill.

Celebrate Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thelander observed their 27th wedding anniversary on Tuesday. In honor of the occasion Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ickler, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Ickler and Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Boelter, all of Orchard and Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Klusman and boys came as surprise guests. Cards furnished the entertainment. Refreshments were served.

Visit New Grandson

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Streeter returned Sunday from Wichita, Kans., where they assisted at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Huebert, and became acquainted with the new grandson, Mark Eugene, who was born January 28. He weighed eight pounds and nine ounces at birth. The Hueberts have three other children.

Waist Whittlers Meet

Members of the Waist Whittlers club met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Durl Anderson. In the annual report it was noted that nine weight losing contests were held with $49.80 paid out in prizes. Mrs. Anderson had the greatest weight loss with a 60 pound loss total. A new contest is now in progress that will run until no one shows a weight loss. It is necessary to show a loss each week to be eligible for the prize. The eleven members must pay fines if they fail to register a weight loss. Mrs. Don Cleveland will be the winner of the contest which closed Friday providing she can hold her loss for two weeks. New members are welcomed to the club which meets each Friday afternoon at the Anderson home.

BCA MEETS

Members of the BCA club met at the Town House Tuesday evening for dinner after which the group adjourned to the home of Mrs. M. L. Burney for an evening of bridge. Prizes were won by Mrs. Winnie Barger and Mrs. Earl Hunt.

Juniors Meet

Sixteen members met Saturday for the regular meeting of the American Legion Junior auxiliary. They welcomed seven new members, Cynthia Fox, Cynthia Cousins, Mary Catherine Gleeson, Cheryl Donlin, Donna Langan, Joan McKenzie and Jean McKenzie. The Juniors sewed carpet rags which will be given to the Soldier's and Sailor's Home at Grand Island for the weaving of rugs. The group will assist with Poppy Day. Hostesses were Ellen Abart Ruth Ann McKamy, Gayle Murphy and Joan McKenzie. Scribe, Pat McKenzie.

Legion Auxiliary Convenes

Mmes. Robert Lowery, Lester Riege, Melvin Ruzicka and Winifred Ranges were hostesses at the February 1 meeting of the American Legion auxiliary. Unit President Mrs. Archie Bright reported that 19 baskets of food were delivered to needy families for Christmas. Eleven stamp books were turned in to be redeemed for kitchen supplies. Membership dues are now delinquent. The dues should be paid before the mid-winter conference to be held at North Platte February 1 and 18. Junior Counselor, Mrs. Dean Streeter reported on the Junior auxiliary. It was voted to donate $10 each to polio, heart, cancer, tuberculosis and Red Cross funds. Games were played at the close of the meeting.

Judy Syffe Entertains

The Phlox Livewires 4-H club met at the home of Judy Syffe Friday with all members present except one. Roll call was answered with the telling of pet peeves. Project and record books were distributed. Joyce Storjohan and Carol Damero were in charge of recreation. Mrs. Syffe served refreshments. Carol and Marilyn Damero will have the next meeting February 24. Enid Johnson, reporter.

Conways Are Honored

Relatives surprised Mr. and Mrs. Ray Conway on their 15th wedding anniversary Sunday. They came to the Conway home that day and provided food for the day and presented the honored couple with gifts. Present for the affair were Mrs. Bertha Conway, Fred, Clara and John Conway, Mrs. W. A. Conway and Mr. and Mrs. James Conway, all of O'Neill; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schiltz sr., parents of Mrs. Ray Conway, and they came from Manila, Ia.; Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Schiltz of Buck Grove, Ia.; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schiltz jr. of Menlo, Ia.; Mrs. Gene Denning of Neola, Ia.; Mr. and Mrs. Michael Schiltz of Dow City, Ia., and Miss Laurina Schiltz of Omaha. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Tank and children helped the couple celebrate Saturday.

To Leave Hospital

Alex Cleary is expected to be released from St. Joseph's hospital in Omaha Thursday (today) and will return to Elgin. His condition is satisfactory. He did not undergo surgery as had been planned. Mrs. Cleary has been in Omaha with him. She has been a guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wise. Mr. Cleary formerly resided a long time in this community.

Cards Appreciated

Friends wishing to send cards to Mrs. Art Kortje of O'Neill may address them to the Lutheran hospital at Norfolk, where she has been hospitalized for many weeks. Cards would be appreciated by Mrs. Kortje as they would brighten her long hospital hours. Her mother, Mrs. Rosa Harding, and sisters, Mrs. Edna Huebert, and Mrs. L. A. Hobbs of Ewing visited Tuesday with her. Mrs. Kortje is the former Lois Hartman.

Fifteen Attend

There were 15 members present Tuesday evening when the Christ Lutheran Ladies aid met for a regular meeting. It was voted to hold the annual smorgasbord in the fall. The Rev. A.S. Gedwillo presented the lesson. Hostesses were Mrs. Ben Miller and Mrs. Fred Timmerman.

Attend Federation

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bellin and Dale Bellin were in Omaha Sunday to Saturday evening attending the American Beekeeping Federation at the Paxton hotel. There were 396 registered from 37 states and representatives also from Japan, Panama and Canada. Gov. and Mrs. Morrison were guests at the banquet. Dale was director of meetings and Mrs. C. Bellin was in charge of registration.

Winkler Improves

Mrs. George Winkler and children went to Omaha Saturday where they visited their husband and father, Mr. Winkler, who is hospitalized at St. Joseph's hospital. Mr. Winkler underwent spinal surgery over two weeks ago and is still bedfast. He is to be permitted to sit up today.

Moseman - Reynoldson
Repeat Marriage Vows
In Church Ceremony

Miss Marion Moseman of Omaha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Moseman and Wayne Reynoldson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Brock Reynoldson were married Saturday in a candlelight ceremony at 7:30 p.m. in the First Methodist church here.

The Rev. Glenn S. Kennicott and the Rev. E. Embree performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of 150 guests. Miss Nancy Devall was soloist and presented traditional wedding music.

The bride chose a floor-length gown of pure silk organza with hand-clipped Chantilly lace. The sculptured bodice featured a sabrina neckline, defined by a deep overlay of imported lace, studied with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. Long tapered sleeves came to a brush train in the back. Her fingertip veil of imported illusion was caught by a jeweled crown. Her colonial bouquet was made up of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Carolyn Moseman of Omaha, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Harold Hatfield of Red Oak, Ia., Miss Doris Grof and Miss Joan Grof of Omaha. They wore iden-

(Continued from page 1.) children have been denied their privilege by inferior books," Mrs. Carden's courses, Mrs. Richards said, have been used successfully in many states and this year are being used in Texas and the Berkeley schools in California.

Miss Carden, who speaks four languages, was born in Hawaii, educated at Vassar, received a Master's degree from Columbia, and was in complete disagreement with their methods, Mrs. Richards said.

"Phonics is regarded as the first element of her teaching," Mrs. Richards continued, "and we can have the finest language arts program in Nebraska if we only insist."

Miss Carden is scheduled to visit central Nebraska this spring. Mrs. Richards urged all teachers to hear her.

The recently discussed film, "Operation Abolition," filmed by the National Guard was shown followed by a discussion of Communist influence in the U. S. and Nebraska by Dwain Anderson, Oakland farmer.

"We left the convention fired with the thought that if all schools had been riding along with no sacrifice on their part could realize the immensity of what the organization is striving for, there would be no financial problems," Mrs. Boettcher said.

"Free will donations at the close of the meeting to boost resources for their needed work was proof of its effort," she added. At the Monday evening banquet the group participated in group singing led by Mr. Von Seggren, with Marcia Widman, Morning-side college music student as accompanist on piano.

Miss Carolyn Prokop
Weds Rudolph Pavlik
At Bazile Mills

VERDIGRE—Miss Carolyn Prokop of Omaha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Prokop of Verdigris, became the bride of Rudolph Pavlik jr. of Omaha, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Pavlik sr. of Verdigris, in a candlelight ceremony February 1 at 5 p.m. in the Christ Lutheran church at Bazile Mills.

The Rev. Bernard Gorenz officiated at the ceremony. Miss Sonia Prokop, sister of the bride, was soloist, accompanied by Miss Karen Schuett of Winnetoon.

The bride wore a gown of imported hand clipped rosepoint lace over taffeta with a sabrina neckline encrusted with sequins and pearls. The molded bodice featured long, tapered lace sleeves and the bouffant skirt worn over stiffened petticoats was fashioned with matching lace panels accented with tulle flounces on each side and swept into an aisle-wide chapel train. Her veil of imported silk illusion fell in a full circular sweep from a jeweled coronet. She carried a white Bible centered with a lavender orchid.

Miss Laura Prokop of Lincoln was matron of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Miss Rose Mary Marshall and Miss Jo Anna Chalupnik. They wore identical gowns of white nylon organza over taffeta. Variegated orchid embroidery trimmed the skirt and bodice, and an orchid taffeta cummerbund highlighted the bouffant ballerina-length skirt. Jeweled orchid caps and short gloves completed the outfits and they carried bouquets of orchid mums.

Serving as best man was Robert Pavlik of Omaha and groomsmen were Jim Sokol and Ronnie Vavak. Kenneth Sonder and Dennis Dvorak were ushers.

Jimmy Pavlik was ringbearer and Miss Rose Elaine Rudloff was flower girl. Candelighters were Kenneth Sonder and Dennis Dvorak.

A reception was held in the ZCJBY hall for 300 guests. Hostesses were Mrs. Henry Chalupnik and Mrs. Bruce Walton. Punch servers were Mrs. Dennis Farnik and Miss Dianne Pavlik.
