Holt Delegates Attend Meeting Of Rural Boards

Mrs. John Mohr jr., of Amelia, Mrs. Florence Boettcher of Atkinson and Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Whaley of O'Neill attended the annual meeting Tuesday of the Nebraska Rural School Boards association in Grand Island.

The Holt county delegates named above were among 11 persons from this county attending the session.

Dr. Freeman B. Decker was the morning speaker.

Much time was devoted to discussion of legislative bills introduced in the interest of education and the following were reviewed:

LB 222, requiring the state to pay tuition, grade and high school for children of men in military service; LB 266, providing that tuition paid for pupils living on state or city owned tax-exempt air fields shall not be less than the average per pupil cost; LB 267, authorizing the state board of education to rent or lease space outside the capitol, needed by various departments, rather than leasing office space outside the capitol; LB 314, revising the procedure for re-organization of school districts to provide that in an election on a proposed plan for re-organization of school districts Class 1 school districts which have, or have not, an incorporated city or village within the boundaries they shall constitute a separate voting unit; LB 668, redesignating emergency and provisional teaching permits as temporary certificates.

The Association went on record as supporting these five measures.

Much discussion was held, pro and con, with no definite decision concerning LB 362 which proposes to sell all state-owned school land at the termination of present leases.

The Association decided to draft a letter to Dr. Decker on what comprises a school year, asking Decker to bring this up with the board of education that the law be made more specific.

Burwell will be the 1962 meeting place, the second Wednesday in February.

Game Commission Plans Expansion Of Grove Lake Fishery Program

The expanding fishery program at the Game Commission's Grove Lake near Royal may include northern-pike production in the future, according to Game Commissioner LeRoy Bahensky of St. Paul.

Bahensky termed the northern-pike potential at the lake "excellent." "Growth rates of this species in Grove Lake compare with those common in most fertile Sandhill lakes."

The commission has already established two trout-rearing ponds at the area, after a survey had found the spring-fed stream water could support the fish. Raceways to hold the trout will be built this spring.

In addition, the lake and Verdigre Creek, its feeder stream,

Firemen Hunt for Lost Ewing Lad

EWING — The disappearance of a three-year-old lad caused an anxious three hours to a family here Friday afternoon.

Little Jerry Slizoski, who makes his home with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Slizoski west of Ewing, disappeared a short time after going outdoors to play. The family searched the farm home and surrounding area for approximately three hours before calling in the Ewing Fire department for assistance.

Firemen soon located the lad and his dog about one mile from home, unharmed and not in the least concerned about all the excitement. His dog, part Collie, would not allow members of the searching party to come near Jerry.
