Cardinals Down Springview 69-54 In Class C Tourney at Atkinson

The Class "C" district tournament at Atkinson saw the St. Mary's Cardinals take a 69-54 win over a surprisingly stubborn Springview quintet. Norman Mudloff led St. Mary's in scoring with 18 points, he received fine support from Gokie, Donohoe, Peter, and Spitzberger who collected 14, 12, 12 and 11 points respectively.

St. Mary's led all the way but was pressed by the all around play of Rodney Billings, who gathered 32 points. St. Mary's led at the end of the first quarter 21-13 as all five of the starters hit the nets. St. Mary's strengthened their lead by outscoring the Indians 20 to 11 to take a 41-24 lead at the half. The second half was a repetition of the first as the Cards had to hustle but always kept a good lead. In the last quarter Coach Templemyer cleared the bench.

St. Mary's Cards Drop Page 56-48

The St. Mary's Cardinals, playing one of their best games of the season upset the highly respected Page Eagles by the score of 56-48. In a game played Thursday, the hot shooting of Donohoe and Spitzberger combined with the hustle of Mudloff, Gokie and Peter brought a well deserved victory.

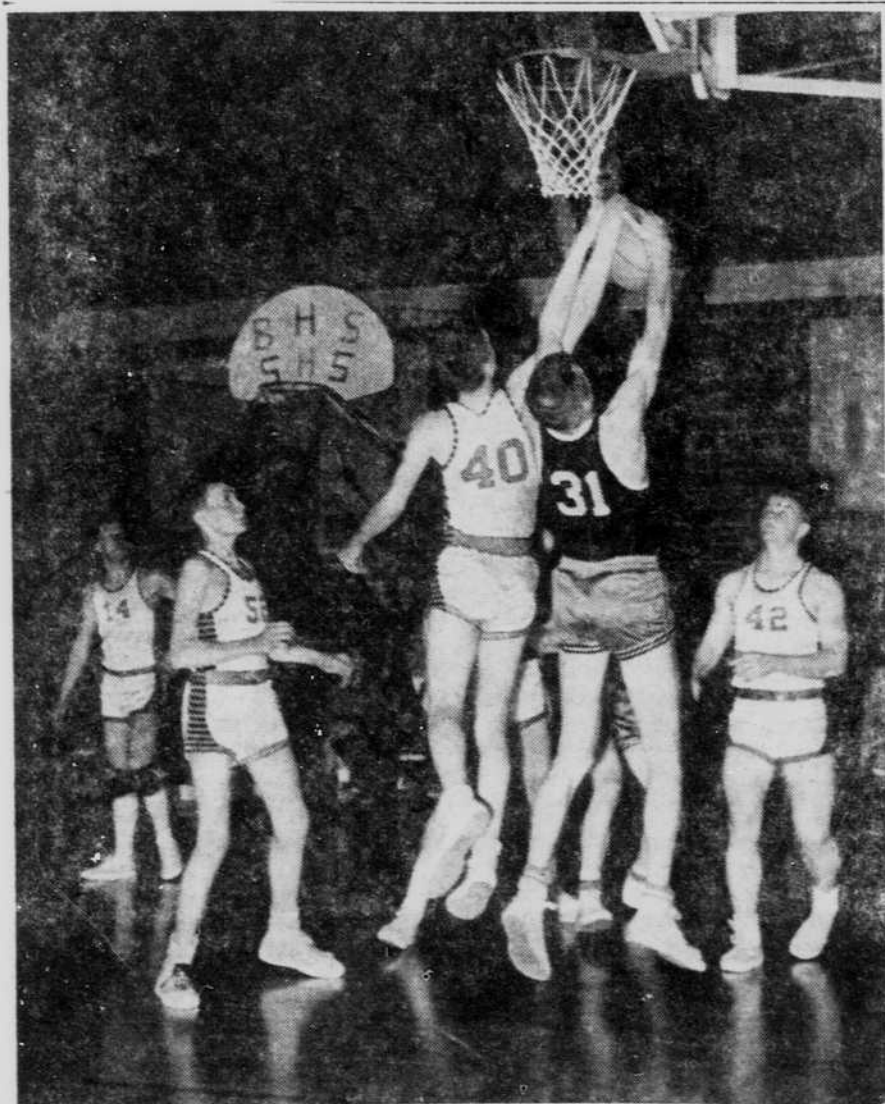

Jerry Gokie, besides his 12 points, blocked numerous shots in a well played game. Donohoe poured through 8 points to lead the first period scoring. Donohoe and Spitzberger got most of their 15 points in the first half. St. Mary's enjoyed a 27-19 half time lead.

At one time in the third period the Cards held a 16 point lead in a determined effort to grab the victory. Spitzberger fouled out late in the third quarter but St. Mary's still held a comfortable 45-32 lead as the third period ended.

The fourth quarter showed Page coming up a little but a full court press failed to stop the Cardinal victory. The only bright spot for the visiting Eagles was the 15 points each of Harvey and Cronk.

THE ST. MARY'S CARDINALS, in one of their best games of the season, upset the Page Eagles 56-48 in a game played here Thursday. St. Mary's enjoyed a 27-19 lead. Donohoe and Spitzberger led the Cards with 15 points each and Harvey and Cronk led the Page crew with 15 points each.

ATKINSON CLIPPED EWING 62-53 in their game in class C competition at Atkinson. Cliff Juracek, (30) of Ewing and Herman Grothe (40) Atkinson are shown here as they grab for a rebound. Also shown are Dick Galyen (14) Ken Claussen (52) and Charles Braun (42) of Atkinson.

Eagles Tromp Bassett 86-58

O'Neill High Coach Chuck Smith juggled his starting lineup Friday night and made good his show of bench strength as the Eagles downed Bassett here 86-58. Bill Nelson and Larry Godel, two seniors starting for the first time this season, turned in fine performances along with the rest of the OHS squad. Jerry Dexter led the aggressive Eagles under the boards during the opening quarter and racked up 15 points to lead all scorers the first half.

The visiting Tigers were apparently hotter than usual during the first quarter as they kept up with Dexter and company. The first period ended with O'Neill leading 19-18. Freshman Bob Van Norman and sophomore Jim Connick both had 6 points in the opening stanza to lead the Tiger-men. In the second quarter the visitors were unable to keep up with the Eagles and they dropped behind at half time 45-30.

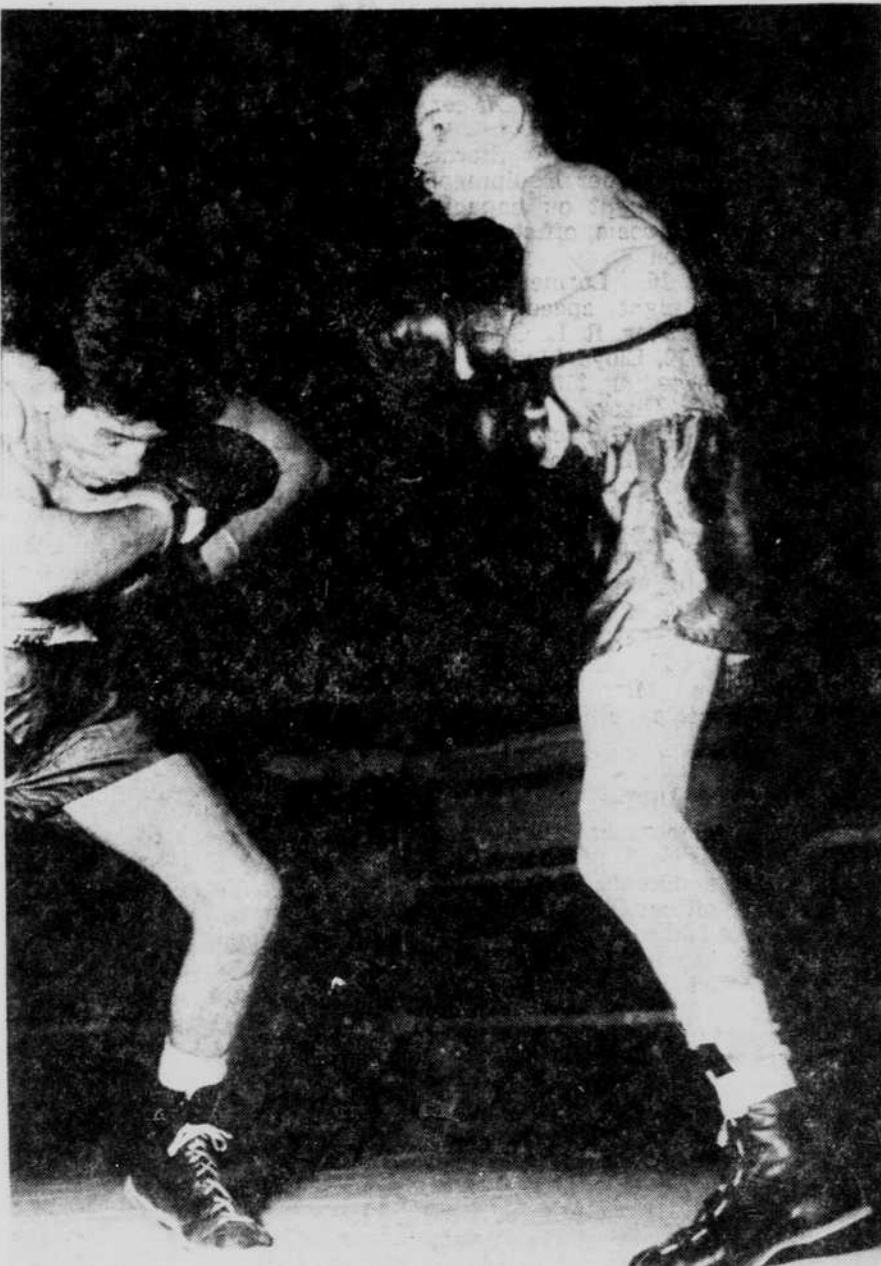

After being recharged with vigor during the half time break, O'Neill continued pulling away from their opponents behind the even scoring of six Eagles. The reserve squad went into the final quarter leading 69-43 and hiked the final score to 86-58.

Dexter's 20 points led the Eagles' even scoring. John Kurtz followed with 18 and Rich Hill contributed 13 to the winning cause. Senior Darold Ermer turned in a fine second half performance for the Eagles as he hit for 9 points after the half way break.

Connick led the Tiger-men with 20 points and Clark Anderson had 16.

O'Neill's record now stands at 16 wins, 2 losses. They will play host to St. Paul Friday to wrap up play before the district tournament at Ord.

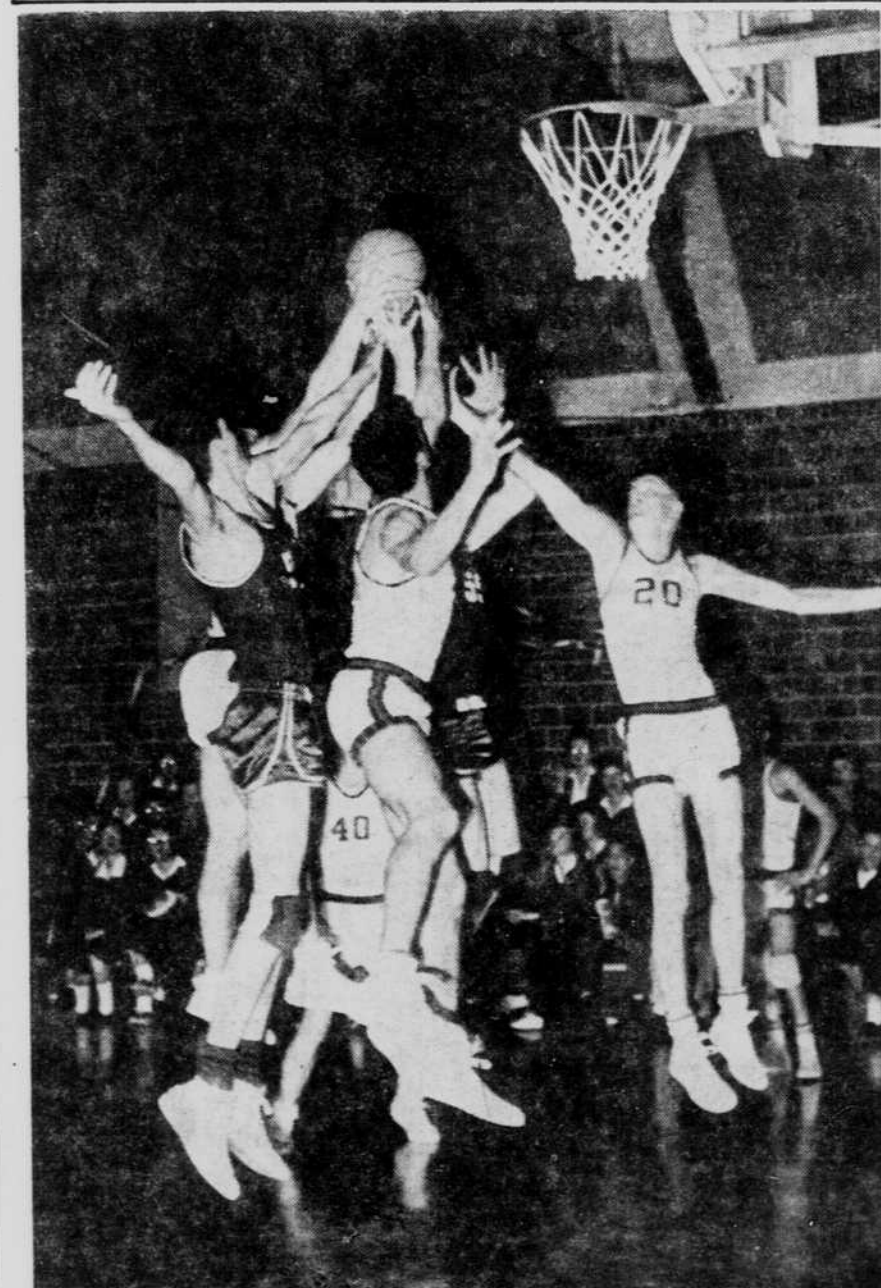

RESERVES
Harvey Colfack paced the winning reserves with 11 points. The final score was O'Neill 50, Bassett 25.

JACK MCGINN OF O'NEILL will pack up his gloves and head for Chicago Thursday to fight in the Golden Gloves. Jack, shown here as he defeated Bill Miller of Sioux City, went on to whip Salvador Franco of Scottsbluff to win the flyweight title at the Omaha bouts. Jack, who won the toughest fight at Omaha, received a five minute ovation from the crowd of nearly 4,000 following his bout with Franco. Jack's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McGinn and his sister Donna will go with him to Chicago.

THE O'NEILL HIGH EAGLES whipped Bassett 86-58 Friday evening in a game played here in O'Neill. Jerry Dexter led the Eagles with 20 points followed by John Kurtz with 18. O'Neill's record now stands at 16 wins and 2 losses. They will meet St. Paul Friday in the last game before the district tourney at Ord.

THE ST. MARY'S CARDS downed Springview Tuesday evening in the class C district tournament at Atkinson, 69-54. Jerry Gokie and Cal Peter are surrounded by Springview players as they go after a rebound. Gokie was high point man for the Cards with 14 points.
