

Rites Held for Dr. J. Macauley At Clearwater

CLEARWATER—Funeral rites were conducted Saturday morning for Dr. James Macauley, 67, of Lincoln, formerly of Clearwater, who died February 22 at the Nellig hospital following a stroke suffered three days earlier while visiting at the home of his sister, Miss Mary Macauley, in Clearwater.

The Rev. Maurice Mohr, a nephew, had charge of the services in St. Theresa's Catholic church, and was assisted by the Rev. Charles Brodersen of Nellig. Burial was in St. John's cemetery southwest of Clearwater.

Dr. James H. Macauley, son of the late Bernard and Mary Macauley, was born at Clearwater July 10, 1893.

He received his A.B. degree from Creighton university in 1913 and finished law in 1916. After serving in the navy in World War I he attended St. Louis university where in 1930 he received his M. D. degree and then practiced medicine in Los Angeles until the outbreak of World War II. During the war he served as commander in the navy after which he served in the medical division of the Veterans administration at Lincoln until his death.

In 1917 he was married at Omaha to Hazel V. Cook of Tabor, Ia.

Surviving him are five daughters, Mrs. S. J. Torre, Mrs. L. Beihl, Mrs. E. Taylor, Mrs. Robert Schout and Genevieve, all of California; two sisters, Mary Macauley of Clearwater and Mrs. A. P. Mohr of Sterling, Ill., and one brother, Dr. Bernard J. Macauley.

Pallbearers were John Thiele Jr., Claude Schrage, Frank McGee, Johnny Hoffman, Fred Maiben and Joe Goscha.

Services Held In O'Neill for Mrs. Lindquist

Mrs. Peter Lindquist, 87, died Thursday, Feb. 23, after several months of illness.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday at Eglins chapel by Ministers Troy Craig and Lowell Kleeb. Burial was in Riverside cemetery at Verdigris.

Anna Lindquist was born near Borop, Denmark July 24, 1874 to the late Mr. and Mrs. Axel Christensen. She came to America at the age of 16 years.

On October 2, 1892 she was united in marriage to Peter Lindquist of Osmond. To this couple were born nine children, seven of whom survive.

For several years they made their home on a farm near Verdigris. After her husband's death she made her home with her son, Alfred, for several years.

She is survived by five daughters, Mary Block and Emma Bayne of North Platte, Hilda Durkee of Isle, Minn., Martha Hill of Ewing and Mabel Linquist of Mississippi; two sons, Nels and Alfred of O'Neill; 19 grandchildren; 41 great grandchildren and one great great granddaughter.

Besides her husband, she was preceded in death by an infant daughter and another daughter, Anna, who died at the age of 29 years.

Allbearers were her grandsons, Melvin and Laverne Bayne, Kenneth Hill, Donald Linquist, George and Raymond Block.

Korean Orphan Adopted By Mrs. Kazka's Niece

ATKINSON—A niece of Mrs. Alfred Kazka of Atkinson, Mrs. Warren Duckett, and Mr. Duckett of Indianola, Ia., have an adopted Korean daughter, Tracy Kim, with an interesting history.

Tracy Kim came to the Ducketts through the famous "baby lift" started in June, 1953, by Harry Holt of Creswell, Ore., formerly of Nellig.

They sent in their application for adoption of a Korean orphan in January, 1950. In October they boarded a plane for Portland and November 1, 1950, they first greeted their little daughter.

There were 52 infants, 18 toddlers and a three-year-old on Tracy's plane—bringing the "baby lift" past the 2,000 mark.

Mrs. Duckett's mother is Mrs. Pearl Smith of Johnston and she recently visited in the Iowa home.
